Move To Limit Army-McCarthy Hearing Made

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—Committee Democrats and Army officials held out tonight against a Republican leadership proposal to cut short the McCarthy-Army row by calling Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) Monday as the final witness in public hearings.

Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill) said, with the outspoken backing of Sen. Bridges (R-NH), the Senate's president pro-tempore, that he will move in the Senate Investigations subcommittee Monday to supplant Secretary of the Army Stevens on the stand with McCarthy.

Dirksen explained that his proposal would open the way for the committee—if it chooses to do so—to take testimony later behind closed doors from Roy M. Cohn, McCarthy's chief counsel, Army counselor John G. Adams and other present "principals" in the controversy.

Dirksen predicted he will have solid backing from the subcommittee's other three Republicans, although Chairman Mundt (R-SD) said he had not been approached by his Illinois colleague about the proposal.

The Democrats, outnumbered 4-3 gave immediate signs that they would fight the move. They regard it as an attempt to end a public spectacle which they see as politically damaging to the GOP.

Sen. McClellan of Arkansas, top Democrat on the subcommittee, announced in an interview that he will vote against Dirksen's motion if the latter makes it, as promised, at the opening of the 13th day of televised hearings Monday morning.

"All of the accusers and the accused should be heard in public hearings," McClellan said. "They should have their day, just as Secretary Stevens has had. All the principals should be treated alike."

The committee Democrats lined up last week against a similar proposal sponsored by Dirksen. Joseph N. Welch, Army counsel who had originally proposed that McCarthy be brought to the stand after Stevens, also turned thumbs down on it.

Legislature To Convene Monday In Baton Rouge

BATON ROUGE, May 8 (AP)—The longest studying Legislature in Louisiana history opens a 60-day session Monday under a cloud of tension released by the one burning issue lawmakers did not study—a right-to-work bill.

Sixteen states, including all of Louisiana's neighbors and most Southern states, have laws which prohibit making membership or non-membership in a union a condition of employment.

Major struggles are also shaping up over perennial problems like banning livestock from highways, calling a constitutional convention, reapportioning the House and Senate, and revision of the homestead exemption program.

All have been the subject of unprecedented in between session scrutiny by lawmakers, and for this reason are conceded a better than normal chance of passage.

Money—where to find it and how to spend it—will be of vital concern to the 100 representatives and 39 senators. Gov. Robert Kennon has pledged a balanced budget and no new taxes.

Lawmakers, who are all up for re-election in 1956, seem mostly in agreement.

Under discussion are bond issues totaling nearly 88 million dollars to take care of highway and institutional construction in the next two years.

Chief among fiscal worries is more funds for public schools.

An attempt probably will be made to outlaw the Communist party, set up a "little Kefauver committee" to probe crime, legalize bingo and other charity gambling, refund slot machine owners for the unused portion of the $100 tax on machines seized in the statewide crackdown last summer and another to limit state police to highway duty.

Segregation is not an issue in Louisiana at this time; neither is prohibition.

Welfare, always a hot issue already is shooting sparks over proposed lien and recovery and relative responsibility laws.

Negro Injured When Auto Hit By Locomotive

A 27-year-old Monroe Negro was injured early Saturday morning when his automobile was struck by a train on South 26th street, but hospital attendants said later his condition was not serious.

He is John White of 2712 Coolidge street, who was being held in St. Francis Sanitarium Saturday for treatment of minor injuries.

White was injured in the second of two accidents involving trains in this area Friday night, neither of them serious. Earlier a Diesel locomotive and about 40 freight cars rammed a stopped box car on a spur line, sending both the freight car and the locomotive off the end of the spur but injuring no one.

According to police, White's accident happened about 2:30 a.m. Saturday while his automobile was traveling north on South 26th street.

They said White's car pulled into the path of a slowly-moving Missouri Pacific railroad freight train, pulling nine cars, and was struck on the right side.

White's car was dragged about 144 feet sideways from the point of impact, they said.

A passenger in White's car, Betty Ray Robinson, Negro, of 1715 Thomas street, was uninjured. R.A. Hodge of 206½ Morris avenue was the engineer on the train. Neither he nor the others on the train were hurt.

Shortly before 10 a.m. Friday, an Arkansas and Louisiana Missouri railroad freight train rammed one of its own box cars on a spur line directly behind the Blue Grass Wholesale Liquor Co. warehouse on the Sterlington road.

M. D. Sorkin, manager of the liquor company said the incident occurred in this manner:

The locomotive had dropped the box car, loaded with 3000 cases of Country Club malt liquor, behind the warehouse and then pulled back down the track to the main line to pick up the remainder of the train.

He got the train and started back toward the warehouse, thinking to pass the spur and stay on the main line past the warehouse in the direction of Monroe.

Instead, the switch which was supposed to have closed off the spur track had broken. The train came back down the spur.

The engineer applied the brakes and succeeded in slowing down the train to some extent, but not enough to stop it.

The locomotive struck the stopped box car, shoving it off the end of the spur and plowing on until the full Diesel locomotive was off the end.

Both the box car and the locomotive sank deep into the dirt, however, and stayed upright.

Train crews Saturday had removed the locomotive, but were waiting until the box car could unload before attempting to move it back onto the track.

Partly Cloudy Today, Monday

Mild weather is predicted for Louisiana today and Monday, according to last night's government weather bureau forecast. Partly cloudy skies are also expected throughout the state.

Cloudy to partly cloudy skies are in store for Arkansas today and Monday, and a few showers are expected in the north portion of the state today. No important temperature changes are predicted.

CAA officials at the Selman Field station last night reported the maximum temperature in Monroe yesterday was 78 degrees. The minimum for the day was 54 degrees.

Find Lovers' Notes Of Civil War Days

PORTLAND, Me., May 8—UP—Workmen ripping out a ceiling in a school found dozens of notes written on scraps of paper by former pupils who over the years had dropped them between floor boards above. One read:

"By the time you read this I will be dead or in the Army."

The date was 1865, the year Lee surrendered to Grant at Appomattox.

Truman Says Ike Needs To Master Own Household

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP)—Former President Truman tonight called on President Eisenhower to assert himself as "master in his own house" and stem the "growth of hysteria" about communism.

"Then perhaps our television sets can return to normal," Truman said.

Without referring directly to the McCarthy-Army hearings, Truman declared the country cannot afford an attack on presidential powers by "today's version of the radical Republicans" of post-Civil War days.

In a speech prepared for a dinner honoring his 70th birthday, Truman said all the people look to the President when they are beset by fears, and added:

"It is to the President that they look to say a firm 'No' to those who wish to destroy others through fear and innuendo; to defend the unjustly accused and show in the executive branch of the government that the ancient principles of fair play and decency prevail.

"By such deeds and acts the presidency can reassure the nation and stem the growth of hysteria.

"Again, we see today history repeating itself as the legislative branch of the government, under the overshadowing fear of communism, expands its functions and activities into the very center of the power of the executive branch.

"The President is responsible for the administration of his office. And that means for the administration of the entire executive branch.

"Our government cannot function properly unless the President is master in his own house and unless the executive departments and agencies of the government, including the armed forces, are responsible to the President."

Unless the President takes a firm stand against encroachment by the legislative branch, Truman said, it is "impossible to have orderly government."

"The legislative power will ooze into the executive offices," he said. "It will influence and corrupt the decisions of the executive branch It will affect promotions and transfers. It will warp and twist policies.

"It raises the threat of legislative dictatorship."

Declaring "our country has acted firmly and resolutely to hold Communist imperialism in check," Truman added:

"Nevertheless, concern has created fear and fear has been played upon by persons who see it as an

Peiping Radio Says General Now A Captive

8,000 Prisoners Evacuated From Dien Bien Phu

HANOI, May 8 —UP—Red Chinese took part in the overwhelming of Dien Bien Phu, Gen. Henri E. Navarre, French commander in Indo-China, said Saturday.

Navarre said in Saigon that one regiment of Communist Chinese anti-aircraft participated in the siege of the fortress.

He said he now expects new intensive warfare — such as was fought in Korea — to spread through Indo-China.

"It is therefore certain that if the Geneva conference does not produce a solution, the problem of Indo-China war must be completely re-considered," he said at a news conference.

Some 8,000 men survived the final flaming holocaust of Dien Bien Phu and marched Saturday from the fallen fortress as prisoners.

Earlier the Communist Peiping Radio said the Red forces had taken the bastion's commander, Brig. Gen. Christian de Castries, among the prisoners.

The Red report and Navarre's announcement confirmed that all the French had not been massacred after De Castries radioed a dramatic "au revoir."

But defiant French Legionnaires preferring death to surrender, made a suicide charge early Saturday down the hill of the bastion's last, isolated strongpoint in the fortress' dying gasp of resistance.

The marching prison columns were seen by French observation pilots who also witnessed the final futile charge by the Foreign Legionnaires and commandoes at "Isabelle" — a strongpoint three miles south of the overwhelmed fortress.

Pilots said in the light of flares they saw the defenders of Isabelle —estimated to number 2,000 men—climb from the ruins of their position and charge down the hill into massed Red guns.

That ended the defense of the fortress and the end of an epic battle.

Navarre said that the 57-day siege and battle of Dien Bien Phu cost the French 4,000 dead and wounded. In the same time the

My Mother

An angel on earth so loving,
So gracious, good and true,
Always so tender and willing,
That, dear Mother, is you.

If I could have chosen a Mother,
I know it would have been you,
The one so faithful and loving,
You're the only one who would do.

I've caused you many a trouble,
At night I've kept you awake,
You nursed me through my childhood,
And cured my every ache.

Your trials are great and many,
Your rewards so small and few,
But your faithful, kind and loving heart,
Is ever patient and true.

But I know there's a reward for you,
With God and his Angels of Love,
He's reserved a place, dear Mother for you,
In his heavenly home above.

Molotov Blocks Early Action For Armistice

Seeks Admission Of Cambodia And Laos To Parley

GENEVA, May 8 (AP) — French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, his voice choking with emotion, asked for a cease-fire in Indochina in the Geneva conference today, 24 hours after the fall of Dien Bien Phu.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, pointedly ignoring the French proposal, tied the conference up in a procedural knot by asking for the admission to the talks of Red representatives of Laos and Cambodia—part of Indochina not directly connected with the current fighting.

France has called the so-called Communist governments of Laos and Cambodia "phantom regimes." France and the United States promptly rejected the idea of issuing any bid to them.

Molotov then tried to bring Red China into a proposed Big Four discussion of the proposed invitations. This the United States rejected.

Huang Hua, press spokesman for Red China, said Bidault's proposals for a cease-fire were "not reasonable." He said they amounted to "dissolving" the Communist-led Vietminh army and the "resistance governments of Khmer (Cambodia) and Pathet-Laos (Laos)."

The United States reserved its position on the Bidault proposals. An official spokesman said the United States would "do its part toward achieving restoration of peace in the discussions which follow."

Bidault addressed the representatives of the nine delegations which make up the Indochina section of the Geneva conference as they assembled for the first time in a small room in the old League of Nations Building. He asked that

2 Brothers Drown In Old River In Concordia Parish

FERRIDAY, April 8 (Special) — Two brothers, George A. Walters, 32, and Thurman, 28, were drowned and a companion, Lovice Jones, 29, narrowly escaped the same fate when their fishing boat overturned in Old River 15 miles below Vidalia early Saturday morning. Both brothers were residents of Cranfield, Miss.

The trio was running trot lines during an all night fishing trip when the boat toppled over. One of the brothers could not swim and the other stayed behind to help him. Their struggles in the water drowned both. Jones swam to the shore, his cries for help attracting the attention of a trio of Negroes fishing nearby. The Negroes arrived on the scene and promptly recovered the body of George Walters. Efforts at artifical respiration failed and it was not until the arrival of the Natchez Fire Department emergency truck that Thurman's body was recovered.

Concordia Parish Coroner Dr. J. H. Pankey and Deputy Sheriff Roy Barlow were summoned to the scene and conducted an on-the-spot inquest, returning a verdict of death by accidental drowning. Relatives were then called to the scene to make positive identification and the bodies were removed to a Natchez funeral home.

Both men were World War II veterans and members of the Mississippi National Guard. They are survived by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin E. Walters of near Cranfield. In addition to their parents, other survivors include their wives, children, two brothers and a sister, Mrs. William Harper of Natchez.

Fine Arts Festival Here Today At Forsythe Park; Second Annual Showing

Several thousand Northeast Louisiana residents are expected to visit Forsythe Park, here today, to witness the Second Annual Fine Arts Festival to be held under the sponsorship of the Northeast Louisiana League of Artist, the North Louisiana Chapter of American Pen Women, Twin City Symphony Orchestra and the Monroe Little Theatre.

The exhibition will get under way at 2 p.m. and continue until 6 p.m. The boulevard through Forsythe Park will mark the entrance to the showing. Several hundred paintings, including oils, watercolors and sketches have been entered in the exhibit and will be suspended from taunt wire on the rows of trees. The lane of pictures lead to an especially built stage behind the legion home where the Monroe Little Theatre will present two one act plays. Gordon Hall's "No Second Chance" and Tennessee Williams "Portrait of A Madonna." The plays are scheduled for 2:45 and directly following this there will be an hour concert of classical and popular music by the Twin-City Symphony Orchestra. The plays will be shown a second time from 5 until 6 p.m.

The special built stage has been constructed by the city and it is 40 feet long and will seat 50 people.

The North Louisiana Pen Women's exhibit of books, poems, features and magazine articles in published form will be on display on tables between the middle rows of trees in the park.

Last year the first Fine Arts Festival drew an estimated crowd of between 3 and 4 thousand spectators and the favorable comments called it a cultural asset to the Twin Cities.

The forty-two playing members of the Twin-City Symphony orchestra, who have completed their first full year as an organization, come not only from Monroe and West Monroe, but claims members from Hamburg, Ark., Bastrop, Perryville, Rayville, Delhi and Tallulah. The concert will include

Fabulously Rich Gold Sand Spurs Arkansas Search

PARAGOULD, Ark., May 8 (AP)—A new gold hunt—spurred by assay reports ranging from $2,105 to $8,890.50 a ton—starts Monday near Bentonville in northwest Arkansas, the Paragould Daily Press reported in a copyrighted story today.

The Press story, written by News Editor Gene Wirges, said that Enid, Okla., cattleman Herb Lipps would begin preliminary excavation work atop Madre Veda Mountain.

Lipps told the Press that he had leased approximately 1,000 acres in the area and that he was prepared to spend "whatever it takes" to locate the source of the gold-bearing sand.

In Little Rock, State Geologist Norman Williams said it is "possible but highly improbable" that there is gold in the Madre Veda area. He said he had not heard of Lipps' activities.

The geologist said that the only gold ore found in "measurable quantity" in Arkansas was turned up during a gold boom that swept the state in the late 1800s. That sample assayed at $1.75 per ton and was found south of Hot Springs, he said.

Publication of the assay ended the boom.

The sand Lipps had assayed was scooped from the bottom of a shallow pool 400 feet inside the mountain. The pool is accessible only through a winding cave.

The Press said the assays valued the sand at $2.105 per ton, $6,445.50 per ton and $8,890.59 per ton. They were made by the Henry E. Wood Assaying Co., and Charles O. Parker & Co., both of Denver, and Oscar N. Brieback of Aurora, Colo.

Lipps inspected the pool after receiving a letter from an unidentified person telling him of the possibility of gold in the vicinity.

Lipps theorizes that the gold bearing sand is carried to the pool by an underground stream. He plans to drive a tunnel at an angle from the top of the mountain to the pool, pump the pool dry and then trace the stream to what he thinks is the "mother lode."

Secret Of 'Black Snow' Is Revealed

GENEVA (AP)—Residents of Geneva discovered today the secret of the strange "black snow" that's been falling on the city since the Geneva conference began.

It's thousands of tiny pieces of burned papers—secret and confidential documents of the various delegations.

Starving Sailor 20-Days Adrift In Tiny Sloop

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., May 8 (AP)—A feeble whistle at sea today brought help to George Ramsdell, 30, whose one-day sail in his tiny sloop turned into a 20-day nightmare of cold, exhaustion and hunger on bleak, rain-swept Atlantic swells.

"My feet are still numb," Ramsdell murmured sleepily from the cozy warmth of a hospital bed as he recalled his last six days without food on the mastless, helplessly drifting craft.

The Medford, Mass., electric company executive dropped from a 160 to 120 pounds during his epic trip but Portsmouth Hospital officials said he was in good condition except for exhaustion and malnutrition.

Ramsdell gave this account of his voyage that began with "a Sunday sail" April 18 to try out his newly acquired 22-foot sloop, Kickapoo:

After leaving Essex, Mass., harbor, Ramsdell said everything was going so well he thought he might as well keep on sailing and headed for Nova Scotia.

Twenty miles north of Portland, Maine, and 75 miles offshore, Ramsdell ran into a gale that snapped a rope supporting the mast. He unstepped the 25-foot mast to repair the halyard and

Tragic Hours Before Surrender Form An Epic Of Heroism

French Fight To The Last Gasp

(EDITOR'S NOTE—Larry Allen's cable copy from Hanoi is clogged behind a communication logjam and is strangling in piecemeal. Based on this copy, plus cables from Saigon and other reports available in the French capital, Associated Press staffers in Paris have constructed the following story of the last hours of Dien Bien Phu.)

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PARIS, May 8—The last hours and minutes at Dien Bien Phu were a curious mixture of confusion and cool-headedness.

Brig. Gen. Christian de Castries, who rose to fame through his direction of the heroic 56-day defense of the fortress bowl, gallantly said at the end: "Au revoir, mon general. Vive la France."

A few minutes later his radio operator laconically reported: "In five minutes everything will blow up here. The enemy is only a few yards away. Greetings to everyone."

What happened after that is unknown. The only clue has been a report from Vietminh radio that the commander—presumably De Castries—and 17 of his companies were taken prisoner. Another report from Peiping radio said some 2,000 defenders in the isolated fortress Isabelle had tried a breakout and had been annihilated.

It was during the afternoon of Friday that wave after wave of fanatic Vietminh troops — under Communist direction—started rolling in on the fortress for the long awaited final assault.

Gene. Rene Cogny, French commander in northern Indochina, told De Castries that as far as Dien Bien Phu was concerned, "You have a free hand."

There was a last minute change in instructions from the fortress. During the early morning hours, De Castries made an urgent demand for 20 plane loads of ammunition—120 tons. Instruction to the fliers were precise, too. He wanted them to fly low, and to be very careful in making the parachute drops, so that they would land in the sharply constricted area still held by his men—an area not very much bigger than Yankee Stadium.

"My men are in danger of death 24 hours a day," De Castries told headquarters in Hanoi earlier in the week. "The pilots must come down as low as necessary to drop the containers and to give effective immediate support."

But during the afternoon, after another reassessment of the situation, the order for ammunition was suddenly cancelled. Instead, De Castries called for massive quantities of rations. This apparently was in anticipation of captivity.

At 4 p.m., by teletype, Dien Bien Phu reported to Hanoi: "Points three, eleven and twelve at Eliane have fallen. The violent barrages from mortars and artillery continue. The Vietminh is infiltrating massively through the strongpoints on the west."

But Dien Bien Phu still held and was in communication with Hanoi and with a C47 Dakota plane lazily circling the fortress. The pilots of the plane said they could see fire only from the Vietminh cannon and that the rockets from the newly

Amount Of Loss In Store Blaze Is Undetermined

Late yesterday no estimate of the damage to Brennans Utility store, on Ouachita Avenue, which was gutted by fire Friday night, was available. Fran J. Brennan, proprietor of the store, which traded in almost every conceivable type of merchandise, was reported out of town, and not expected to return until sometime today.

Throughout Friday night firemen battled the blaze, which for a time threatened several nearby buildings. The first alarm was sounded at 8:22 p.m. and fire trucks 101, 102, 103, 104, and one ladder unit were dispatched to the scene. Firemen remained at the scene until approximately 8 a.m. yesterday.

During the night long battle against the blaze, firemen poured tons of water into the flaming structure, and on nearby buildings in an effort to prevent the blaze from spreading.

During the first two hours that firemen fought the blaze they were also endangered by overhead power lines which snapped and fell among them, and by numerous explosion, which police attributed to small firearms ammunition in the burning structure. Flaming fragments and debris from the blazing structure floated to the grounds several hundred feet from the fire, also posing a danger for more than a block away.

Late yesterday the cause of the blaze, which was believed to have originated in the rear of the building, was still undetermined.

Reds suffered 18,000 casualties, including 8,000 dead, he said.

The Red Chinese participation in the battle of Dien Bien Phu called for a new approach, he told newsmen.

"I do not see any other solution except internationalization, since France alone cannot support a generalized offensive," the French Far East commander said, "while Viet Nam political difficulties prevent her building an Army as fast as we had expected."

But, such "internationalization"—bringing other Western nations into the war — might bring aid to the rebels camp from other Communists, he said.

Informed quarters at French high command headquarters here said there also might be another French appeal for U. S. assistance. The French asked for American pilot and plane support at the height of the Dien Bien Phu battle.

Legislature To

holding hearings and gathering data on subjects ranging from reform of the Legislature itself to isolated issues like use of drunko-meters in traffic arrests and damage done by hogs in the pine woods.

More than 1500 bills will be introduced, most of them in the first hectic week.

The study movement started two years ago with creation of the 18-member council, official research arm of the Legislature. It reached major proportions when Sen. M. Eloi Girard, a scholarly businessman from Lafayette, urged his colleagues to form volunteer study groups.

These waded into reapportionment, the stock law, tax assessments, and a dozen other issues deemed too hot to handle by the council, which was making surveys of public school education and highway needs.

The council made available its research facilities to the Girard Committees, and between the two more than 100 lawmakers were digging into the problems.

The House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees decided on a joint examination of the state budget two months in advance of the session.

In addition, the Public Affairs Research Council, a private, nonprofit organization, was asked by the 1952 Legislature to survey the state's 110 million dollar a year welfare program and make recommendations to improve it.

PAR decided to look into the huge teacher retirement system, found it to be the costliest in the country from the viewpoint of state and teacher contributions and the size of its surplus.

Both the welfare and retirement studies may provide fireworks.

But lawmakers find themselves puzzling over a right-to-work bill that didn't receive pre-session study.

The issue is not new. A right-to-work bill passed in the 1946 session, but Gov. Jimmie Davis vetoed it. There is good reason to believe present governor will sign the bill if it reaches his desk.

Kennon prides himself on an independent Legislature, goes out of his way to avoid controversy when administration measures are not at stake, and usually reserves his veto for money bills, leaving policy making to the Legislature.

He said there will be no administration program beyond keeping the state "functioning efficiently"—the bond issue presumably.

This dumps the explosive right-to-work question into the hands of what the governor calls Louisiana's "finest and best informed Legislature."

But the administration cannot avoid the issue completely. House Speaker Clarence Aycock of Franklin has the job of filling three vacancies on the 12-member labor and Capitol Committee, where the bill is expected to land.

Because lawmakers seldom override a committee report, most Louisiana Legislatures are characterized by vicious in-fighting at committee session, the real battle ground of the bills.

Labor unions, slowly mustering strength in the growing industrialization of this oil-rich state, have girded themselves for all-out battle.

DeRidder Man Held For Slaying His Half Sister

LEESVILLE, La. (AP) — Vernon Parish Sheriff John Craft said today murder charges were filed against a DeRidder service station employe in the fatal beating of his half-sister.

Craft identified the man as Ed Carroll, about 35, and the dead woman as Mrs. Agnes Gill, about 30.

Mrs. Gill's two-year-old daughter, Ann, is in a critical condition at DeRidder Hospital, where Dr. Luke Marcello said she had a fighting chance for survival.

Craft said Carroll led officers to the scene of the attack, a wooded area near Rosepine, but told investigators, "If I did it, this is where it happened."

The sheriff quoted Caroll as saying he did not remember anything about the attack.

No motive has been established.

Craft said the wooded area was splattered with blood and hair and a blood-covered jack handle was found.

He said the victims were put on a car and driven to U.S. Highway 171 between Rosepine and DeRidder, where the car was run off the road and someone had smashed the glasses with a hammer in an effort to make it appear a traffic accident.

3 Persons Arrested On Liquor Charges

Three persons were arrested by West Monroe police last night, two of them on charges of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors.

Otis Francis Lightner, 27, of 3904 Blanks avenue, Monroe, was arrested by officers O. H. Hill and Ray Wyles on charges of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and of carrying a concealed weapon, a pistol. His bond was set at $450.

Officers Hill and Wyes also arrested Mrs. Dorothy Crawford, 23, who gave her address as the Carolina Hotel, West Monroe, on charges being drunk and disorderly and fighting and distrubing the peace.

Her bond was set at $75.

Officers Dave Johnston and H. L. McPhail arrested Belle Norma Battaglia, 41, of 208 Conrad street, Monroe, on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Her bond was set at $350.

Services Incomplete For Mrs. C. Stoval

Funeral services for Mrs. Carrie Stoval, 89, who died Saturday night at her residence in Bastrop are incomplete, however, arrangements will be under the direction of Hall Funeral Home of Monroe and interment will be in Rose Hill cemetery near Bastrop.

She is survived by a son, John H. Stovall of Bastrop and three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Watkins, Lavon, Texas, Mrs. Lonnis Edwards, San Angelo, Texas, and Mrs. Eddie Brown, Baton Rouge.

scope the hearings, said that thus far his group has been able to get no assurance that Welch and Stevens would agree to the Dirksen proposal.

This senator, who asked not to be identified by name, said, however, that White House emissaries had been urging action to end the hearing as early as possible in line with President Eisenhower's news conference statement that it is hurting American prestige abroad.

McCarthy, who has accused Stevens and his aides of using Schine as a "hostage" in efforts to halt the Investigations Committee's inquiry into alleged Reds at Ft. Monmouth, said he would be agreeable to limiting further testimony to himself and Stevens. He told reporters at Milwaukee that he himself had suggested such a telescoping of the sessions several weeks ago.

Mundt said that if Dirksen makes his scheduled motion Monday, he will ask that the committee consider it in closed session. He said, however, that if there is a second to the motion he would be forced to put it to a vote in the public session.

Mundt said that, without knowing any of the details, he thinks the important question is to find out whether any of the principals would feel that such a move "would do violence to justice."

Besides Stevens, McCarthy, Adams and Cohn, other present principals are Francis P. Carr, McCarthy's chief of staff, and Asst. Secretary of Defense H. Struve Hensel.

MOTHERS DAY VIGIL—Mrs. John A. Eversmeyers, Temple City, Calif., will spend Mothers Day as she has the past 41 days, keeping watch in the hospital at Covina, Calif., at the bedside of her son, James, 18, who has been unconscious since being injured in an auto crash north of Glendora March 27. The mother spends 18 to 20 hours each day at her son's side. (AP Wirephoto)

Handel's "Water Music Suite"; "On The Trail" from the Grand Canyon Suite-Grofe; variations on a theme by Tchaikovsky, arranged by Aremsky; and in addition a group of popular selections from South Pacific.

The cast of the Little Theatre plays include Bob Canedo, Thom Feuerstein (director of the Little Theatre), Jerry Kenny, Dorothy Elmendorf, Kay Causey, Sim Black, Tom Flint, Jimmie Hobbs, Sidney Raye Rhodes and Ralph Bird.

The Northeast Louisiana League of Artists have limited each exhibitor to only ten pictures each. The League has 70 members and 250 associate members. Besides the paintings, they will also feature ceramics and art craft.

Starving Sailor

then found he didn't have the strength to put up the mast.

Ramsdell rigged a temporary mast six feet high and attached the spinnaker sail but it was insufficient to give it enough speed to steer.

The Kickapoo was "drifting like a son of a gun" and taking water as she wallowed sideways in the rough seas.

Ramsdell said he had only a pocket compass to guide him and tried to keep the boat heading Westward toward land.

For food he said he started out with "10 gallons of water, 12 boxes of graham crackers, some biscuits and a couple of boxes of raisins." When he ran out of food, he tried fishing but "I didn't get even a nibble."

Several times in the days and nights of helplessness, Ramsdell sighted fishing trawlers but none spotted his tiny, storm-tossed craft or noticed his frantic signals with a whistle and bulls eye lantern.

Asked if he prayed for help, Ramsdell told a newsman: "No, I did what had to be done and then sat in the bottom of the boat and bailed."

Finally, shortly after daylight this morning—on the 20th day—a lobster fisherman, Dana Knight of Kittery, Maine, heard the feeble whistle call from the exhausted Ramsdell. Knight radioed the Coast Guard station here to pick up the helpless craft.

Ramsdell's ordeal ended when a 40-foot boat rushed to the scene and brought him to the hospital. He was given a warm drink and put to bed. Later he was able to talk by telephone to his mother, Mrs. Eugene V. Mingotte of Medford, and said weakly:

"Ma, I'm very sorry I have caused you so much trouble."

Coast guardsmen had searched for Ramsdell since shortly after the start of his trip. During the past week it has been raining steadily along the New England coast with temperatures in the low 40s.

the cease-fire be guaranteed by the nine delegations.

After the cease-fire, Bidault said, the political problems between Viet Nam and her Vietminh foes could be tackled. But, he added, these problems could be carried out only through free elections carried out in complete independence.

Bidault was seated at the first time with representatives of France's Communist-led Vietminh enemies headed by Foreign Minister Pham Van Dong.

Present for the opening of the talks were representatives of the Big Four, Red China, Vietminh, and the three Associated States of Indochina — Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia.

Bidault's early statement of France's position was designed to find out what peace in Indochina will cost. But there was no immediate answer from the other side. The Vietminh delegate in his first speech asked only for admittance of Communist representatives from Laos and Cambodia. Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov immediately backed him.

Bidault asserted, "We are here to discuss questions of peace, not the question of phantoms, but of human beings, human beings who are shedding their blood."

U. S. Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith proposed that the Big Four take up the question. Molotov countered immediately with a suggestion that Red China be admitted to the discussion.

Britain's Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, chairman for the day, proposed adjournment when it appeared no settlement could be reached. On this jarring note the meeting was adjourned until Monday.

Under the French proposal for a cease-fire the commanders-in-chief of the opposing sides in Viet Nam would make suggestions to the conference concerning suitable assembly zones for the troops. All forces not attached to the armies or police forces would be disarmed. War prisoners and civilian internees would be freed immediately. All of these moves would be controlled by international commissions.

For Laos and Cambodia, the French proposed the evacuation of all regular and irregular Vietminh forces as invaders, disarmament of nonmilitary or police units and immediate liberation of war prisoners and civilian internees.

The accord would be guaranteed by the member states of the conference on Indochina. Violations would call for immediate consultations among these states with the view of "taking individually or collectively appropriate measures."

Bidault said France's close ties with the three Associated States moved him to open the debate on view of "taking individually or collectively appropriate measures."

Bidault said France's close ties with the three Associated States moved him to open the debate on peace with his formal proposal.

"We are here to seek both practical and concrete results and to put an end to hostilities," he declared. "Nothing will be neglected on our part to facilitate solutions based on reason and equity which ought to be achieved, if one really wishes, as the Berlin communique said, the re - establishment of peace.'"

He referred to the Big Four foreign ministers' meeting in Berlin which arranged the conferences here on Indochina and Korea.

Bidault, rejected partition of Viet Nam, a state "whose unity, territorial integrity and independence must be respected."

The representatives of the Vietminh had been accepted in the conference room — at one of nine tables set out for the individual delegations — only because the shooting could not be ended any other way Their presence, he said, could not be taken as recognition.

Bidault referred to the "gloriously unequal combat carried on for 55 days" at Dien Bien Phu. He remarked pointedly that the Communist attack was launched "on the very eve of the scheduled date for this conference of Geneva, whose prospect alone should normally have silenced the cannons." He added:

Bidault also referred to the "Asia for Asians" declaration of Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-lai. He said that if this viewpoint really were held by his Communist colleague "it would seem to be adventurous."

easy way to influence votes. There is no dispute any more that this unreasonable fear exists. The leaders of both parties have acknowledged it.

"I hope and believe that we will pass through this present crisis successfully. I do not believe that the Congress will succeed in taking over the functions of the executive if the President presents the problem in its constitutional light.

"I have always maintained that the internal security of the executive branch was a matter for the President to handle. President Eisenhower in his first State of the Union message announced the same principle.

"If this administration under his leadership will act upon this principle, we will soon regain our equilibrium on this problem, and then perhaps our television sets can return to normal."

French Fight

arrived "Stalin organs" seemed to be directed on Gen. de Castries' headquarters.

It was at about this time that De Castries told Hanoi by radio:

"The enemy have infiltrated the entire central fortress. Our munitions are insufficient. The resistance will be drowned out.

"The Vietminh are a few yards away from the radio over which I am talking to you. They are everywhere. I have given the order to inflict the maximum amount of damage. We will not surrender."

Gen. Cogny told De Castries: "You will fight on to the end. There is no question of raising the white flag over Dien Bien Phu after your historic resistance."

De Castries replied: "I understand. We will destroy the cannons and all the radio equipment. The radio transmitter will be destroyed at 5:30. We will fight on to the end. Au revoir, mon general. Vive la France."

The next message was from the radio operator saying that everything would be destroyed in five minutes.

An officer in Hanoi, listening to the messages from Dien Bien Phu described them as like "the tapping on the hull of a submarine lying helpless at the bottom of the sea."

It was the crew of the C47, hovering over the doomed fort, that got the final message from the main center of resistance. A sergeant of the Foreign Legion passed the word: "The Vietminh have reached Junon (code name for Gen. de Castries' headquarters). I say au revoir to you now."

The pilot of a plane which flew over the area from 1 a.m. to 7 a.m. Saturday said he had seen "enormous explosions" but little else. He could not contact Dien Bien Phu by radio. The enemy anti aircraft was strangely silent.

The fliers said they believed the explosions came from the isolated southern strongpoint, Isabelle. The C47, flying at 12,000 feet, reported it had been rocked by the detonations. Isabelle, which held out after the main center of resistance had fallen, was in radio contact with Hanoi up to 9 p.m. From then on only the planes flying over were the only contact.

The words of the defenders of Dien Bien Phu from that moment on were buried in the silence of death or of a Vietminh prison camp.

W. Monroe Man Gets Top Prize In Safety Tests

Winner of the Chamber of Commerce Traffic committee safety program's grand award was declared to be H. A. Traylor, Rt. 1, West Monroe at the drawing held yesterday at the Chamber's offices.

The winning ticket for the prize, a 21-inch TV set, was drawn by Barbara Ford, Chamber staff member, assisted by Officer Jim Cullipher of the West Monroe Police Department and Capt. Jack Davis of the Monroe Traffic Department.

Traylor, the lucky winner, is at present confined to St. Francis hospital where he underwent surgery late this week. "The TV set will be a great aid in passing the long hours of convalescence," said Jim Williams, Chamber secretary.

The drawing officially closed out the five-day safety check program sponsored by the Chamber and Look Magazine. Three-thousand and four autos were examined during the program and 30.9 per cent were found to be defective in one or more parts. This is about average for the nation according to the National Safety Council.

Look Magazine wired congratulation to the Chamber for successful completion of the safety check and lauded the efforts of the traffic committee.

$110,800 Slander Suit Filed Over Used Car Tangle

SHREVEPORT —UP— A $110,800 damage suit was filed in federal court yesterday against the General Motors Acceptance Corporation by John B. Daigle of Lafayette who charged slander growing out of his purchase of a car which he thought had been used only as a demonstrator but allegedly had been used and even wrecked.

Daigle said he bought the car from Louisiana Motors of Lafayette in 1953, and later discovered papers in the glove compartment indicating prior ownership. He claims he was mis-informed about the car and refused to comply with terms of the contract.

He said in turn, the corporation, a part of General Motors, threatened to seize the car and sell it at public auction.

GMAC brought suit in district court and Daigle claims that the litigation caused him "grave embarrassment, humiliation and mortification" and that the action "slandered his honor and impugned his business integrity."

Woman's College Changes Name

JACKSON, Miss., May 8 (AP)—Mississippi Women's College, operated by the Mississippi Baptist Convention since 1912, has changed its name to William Carey College.

The Rev. J. R. Davis of New Albany, president of the convention board, announced approval of the new name today.

William Carey was a pioneer Baptist missionary who worked in India during the latter part of the 18th century. He was credited with the phrase, "Expect great things from God. Attempt great things for God."

The convention voted last November to make the four-year senior college at Hattiesburg co-educational and authorized the change in name.

The college was founded in 1906 as the South Mississippi College.

In 1912, the name was changed to Mississippi Women's College and it was donated to the convention.

The college confers degrees of bachelor of arts, science and music.

13,000 Applicants For State Jobs

NEW ORLEANS May 8—UP—A report by the Louisiana Civil Service League today said that nearly 13,000 persons had been given examinations under the system to obtain a backlog of qualified applicants for job openings.

In a report on civil service, Ralph Pons, president, and Joseph Lallande, executive director of the league, said the state can look forward to having "a merit and career system of public employment" that will serve as a model for other states.

The report said 742 persons under civil service had been removed for cause since last July 1; that 33 appeals were filed of which 13 were decided in favor of the agency and seven in favor of the person, eight appeals were withdrawn and five are still pending.

Three Area Firms File Incorporation

Two Bastrop firms and a Monroe concern recently filed documents of incorporation in the office of Wade O. Martin, Jr., secretary of State, it was announced Friday.

The firms were Bastrop Ready Mix., Inc., which deals with concrete work and its capital stock was listed as $100,000; Crossett Concrete Products, Inc., of Bastrop which is also a dealer in concrete work has a capital stock listed as $100,000; and Commerce Realty, Inc., 815 Louisville Avenue, Monroe. This firm dealing in real estate has a working capital of $20,000.

PTA Seeks To Divorce Schools From Politics

NEW ORLEANS May 8—UP—The Louisiana Parent-Teacher Association said Saturday that Rep. Edward Dubuisson of Opelousas will introduce a bill in the legislature designed to remove parish and city school boards from politics.

School board candidates would be nominated by petition of voters alone under the bill, said Mrs. Frez Zengel of New Orleans, legislative chairman of the P-TA.

The proposal specifies that "no candidate for school board membership shall be nominated by means of party primary."

Mrs. Zengel said that if the proposal was approved school board elections would be timed to coincide with congressional elections. The nominee would be elected "without reference to affiliation with any political party, organization or faction," she said.

Cotton Futures Hold Steady In Week's Trading

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP)—Cotton futures prices displayed a steady tone this week, holding to a narrow range in quiet dealings.

Net price changes of active futures contracts traded on the New York Cotton Exchange ranged from 25 cents a bale lower to 70 cents higher, with only the current May delivery losing ground.

The market got some support from Washington reports that the House Agriculture Committee is lined up four-to-one in favor of continued high price supports. Bullish sentiment was also mildly encouraged by the improved behavior of the Cotton Textile Market. Bearish influences included word of continued good weather in the cotton belt and indications that farmers intend to plant their full allotment of 21,379,000 acres.

Some surprise was occasioned in trade quarters when the Agriculture Department announced that it will extend price support loans on 1953-crop cotton for another 12-month period after July 31.

This action will give growers an additional year to pay off loans and redeem their cotton.

Exports for the week ended Tuesday came to 73,000 bales as compared to 97,000 the previous week and 52,000 in the comparable week last year.

Work To Start On New Steel Plant

NEW ORLEANS May 8 —UP— Construction is expected to begin May 15 on a $600,000 steel plant which will occupy 28 acres of land along the west side of the Industrial Canal.

The board of commissions of the Port of New Orleans signed a lease for the land, effective May 15, with the Southwest Steel Products company, a subsidiary of Armco Steel Corp.

The plant, which will employ about 150 persons, will fabricate chiefly reinforcing bars, bar joists, long span joists, roof deck and steel forms used in construction.

Materials for the new plant will be shipped to New Orleans by barge.

Teamwork Urged Between Business And Government

NEW ORLEANS, May 8 —UP— Former Gov. Sam H. Jones said here Friday night that the self-preservation of our government demanded that "business and government pull together."

Jones warned that failure of the groups to cooperate effectively could lead to a "national catastrophe which could even destroy our system of government."

The former governor of Louisiana spoke at the annual banquet of the ninth annual convention of the Association of State Planning and Development Agencies.

Jones said the "law of the jungle" is outmoded and "we have reached by evolution a period of partnership between business and government."

In earlier sessions of the convention, Harold V. Miller of Nashville, Tenn., was elected president of the association, succeeding Tarold Keller of Albany, N.Y.

President Peron's Health Excellent, U. S. Surgeon Says

CHICAGO, May 8 —UP—A noted surgeon said Saturday rumors that President Juan Peron of Argentina is seriously ill are 'completely false."

Dr. Max Thorek, surgeon-in-chief of the American hospital here, said he examined Peron recently and found him in excellent health.

Thorek, who returned Saturday from Buenos Aires, is the founder and secretary-general of the International College of Surgeons.

Dr. Thorek was in San Paulos, Brazil, attending a meeting of the group, when he heard rumors that Peron was suffering "serious nervous and physical deterioration."

Thorek said he was invited by Argentina's minister of health to examine Peron. He said Peron's blood pressure and pulse were normal and that his "mental and physical behavior are enviable."

Mother's Day, 1954

The Nation and many parts of the world take time off today to salute the mothers wherever they may be. It is indeed fitting that people should take time off to salute the mothers who in years past, have had to endure so much and if the human race continues on its charted course, who will have to endure so much in the future.

The mystery of providence has endowed the mothers, with a sense of loyalty and instinct to protect their offspring through times of trial and danger. In these days, it is also necessary for mothers to have a working knowledge of conditions at hand in order that they might be equipped to help their children in many other ways. The path to self destruction is always at hand and the mother's job is always to shield her offspring from connections and associations which tend to turn the children down that path.

The homes of America are under many forms of stress in these times with a concerted effort to destroy the family unit which helped make America great. The mother stands as the main bulwark against the present storm. The hope of the nation and the free world partially rests on the American mothers whose job it will be to steer the youngsters (and sometimes, the grownups) into a life dedicated to God, Honor and Country.

Each man, woman and child today revere their mothers in their own special way for their own special reasons. Mothers, much depends on you. The hopes of a nation rest on your shoulders.

This morning, the Monroe Morning World takes the opportunity to salute you wherever you may be across the face of this great nation which you and those you love may soon be called upon to defend.

'Conelrad'

The international situation, growing more frightening by the hour, makes it necessary for Americans to become familiar with new terms and names. In the history of the United States, there have been few armed invasions. Once, there was a disastrous war between the states but such was not the efforts of an outside source.

Since that war which ended nearly a hundred years ago, the United States has never had any armed aggression against its soil. True, German and Japanese submarines lobbed a few shells here and there along the coasts, but there was no instance of a mighty armed attack on the nation. Now, things have changed. The Air Force of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has aircraft designed to carry atomic weapons from the U. S. S. R. to the United States and back. Its fleet of jet bombers is growing even as is the American Strategic Air Command.

As a method of defense, American industry has pooled its knowledge and resources and has designed what is termed "NIKE" or a guided rocket weapon guaranteed to knock out a sizeable share of enemy bombers. The curious fact is this however, Americans just cannot adapt themselves to the idea that there will ever be attacks on this nation and these cities. The cities, the towns, the familiar buildings are all taken for granted. Few actually believe that it can actually happen here.

Unfortunately, it can and there are preparations being made even now inside the Soviet Union to make such an attack a reality.

There are even more preparations being made in the U. S. to see that the nation is defended from this attack. One of these preparations, operated by the FCDA is called "Conelrad." It is a joint effort on the part of the government and the broadcasting industry to bring you information in times of emergency. The official designation or title is: "Plan for Control of Electro-magnetic Radiation," hence, "Conelrad."

It is a well known fact that enemy bombers can be guided to a city by the radio waves emanating from the transmitting towers of the regular radio and television stations. To avoid this happening, the radio industry in cooperation with the FCDA and the FCC has designed a method of rapid changing of frequencies to throw off the enemy bombers. The changes are made however, so that the standard radio, tuned to either 1240 kilocycles or 640 kilocycles can pick up a continuing program of Civil Defense information.

In this community, 1240 on the dial of your radio, (sometimes designated as 124) will be the official Conelrad frequency. As soon as an alert is sounded, the radios will go off the air. In a few moments, the Conelrad system, a combined operation of all the radio stations, will be put into effect.

In any alert, you will possibly hear the following statement, "This station is now leaving the air. During the Conelrad radio alert, there will be no FM or TV programs. The only program on your radio will be on your standard radio at 1240 kilocycles starting in a few moments. Tune your radio to 1240 kilocycles for official information, and instructions." This will be set in motion by the Air Defense Command. That organization will also determine when it is safe to resume normal operations.

In Monroe as well as all over the nation, there will be an official alert on June 14th. The Air Defense Command and the Federal Civil Defense Administration is setting into motion the entire nation or CD system. Monroe and District F will take part in this "trial run." It is hoped to attempt a Conelrad test so as to familarize you with the system. In any emergency, it is possible that the regular power will go off, so it will be necessary to use either a battery radio or the radio in your automobile.

The Civil Defense test here and in all parts of the nation will consist of both a yellow and a red alert. The efforts of the FCDA, the radio industry and the government to get the nation prepared for what it fears will come, is an admirable one. The efforts of the Governor of Louisiana as regards Civil Defense are also noteworthy. Mayors of most Louisiana cities and communities are also demonstrating their cooperation. In fact, Louisiana's CD operation is far ahead of many other states.

The test on the 14th will demonstrate the efficiency of the CD effort all over the nation.

There will be many eyes watching it; all of them will not be American.

M. A. R. S.

A little known group of individuals who receive little thanks for the work they do is the organization of amateur radio operators. All over the nation these men and women have been of such assistance in times of emergency as to almost defy description.

In tornadoes, storms, fires, accidents, and other disasters, they seldom leave their radio sets relaying messages, relating orders, establishing the only lines of communication and carrying personal messages of all various types. Not too long ago, there was organized among the operators, what is today called the Military Affiliate Radio System. Termed "MARS" by the operators, it operates as a line of communication in all times of trouble. MARS operators relay messages all over the world.

At present, MARS is expanding its activities and is preparing an educational program designed to interest more people in its activities and in the activities of Amateur Radio in general. The MARS operators are assigned certain frequencies in which they operate and they must undergo frequent training a "maneuvers" over their radio sets. MARS operators must follow the rules set by the government and the military.

Few people seem to realize the efforts put out by this devoted group of "HAMS", as they are termed. Those in this area who know amateur operators can easily testify as to the work and the effort they put in their "rigs". More than just a seat in front of a microphone, or a key, the operators are actually electronic experts in their own right. They are at all times, ready to use their radio equipment to serve the best interests of their cities, their states and their nation. The MARS network gives them this opportunity.

The Vicksburg disaster is a good example of how effective the Amateurs operated in time of trouble. Communications were down all over the area. Vicksburg amateurs operated as the only direct means of communication with the outside world for many hours. The state police radios were too jammed to handle the majority of messages and the major effort was left to the "HAM" operators. The work they did was most effective. Most of it was a MARS operation.

Here in the Twin Cities, there are quite a number of amateur operators. Many of them are familiar to you. In time of trouble, they stand ready to help you in many ways. The Civil Defense office both in the city and in the district is calling on them to join the Civil Defense operations as part of the effort to alert America and to stand ready in time of natural or man made disasters.

So well organized is MARS and the operators, that the City and District offices were notified that they are ready to integrate themselves into the Civil Defense organization on an organized basis.

The need for these men and women is great. Their efforts should be made known and appreciated by all citizens of this and other areas. The Military Affiliate Radio System is an excellent example of the work of a farsighted group of Americans standing ready, on call, for anything which may come about.

East Carroll—Indications

Dating back to the year 1722, the history of East Carroll parish definitely is a mark in the historical background of the State of Louisiana.

East Carroll parish has furnished one of the most famous sons in the state. He is the Honorable Joseph E. Ransdell, now 95 years old, who served as United States senator from 1913 to 1918. In performing his duties as Louisiana senator he earned high honors for his community, state and nation. East Carroll has other famous sons who today are extremely active in public life. One of these many famous sons is Judge Frank Voelker, who is recognized throughout the state as a capable judge and also as chairman of the state juvenile commission.

Another claim to state recognition is the annual Miss Louisiana beauty pageant which is conducted at Lake Providence, parish seat of East Carroll. Each year thousands of persons from throughout the state converge on the beautiful old town as favorite daughters of each city and town in the state compete for the coveted title.

The road ahead is a bright one for East Carroll. Agriculture, natural resources, livestock and oil are the economy of the area, whereas the future will be developed through the hard-working people of the parish, who have as their dream, a brighter future.

Adequate schools, churches and other community projects can be found around Lake Providence and other smaller communities. The school system is on an even keel with others found in adjoining parishes, churches stand proud in gracious edifices; civic and community organizations add the final touches that knit people together.

With her past as guidance East Carroll has displayed and is displaying an illustrious present with indications of a great future.

Another Sign Of Progress
Congratulations, United Gas

The opening yesterday of the new and modern United Gas building on Louisville Avenue shows the foresightedness and confidence of this company in the future of Monroe and Northeast Louisiana. The United has demonstrated not only in its own growth in the Twin Cities, but its aim to continue an aggressive program to keep pace with the fast growing era. Monroe is proud of this new edifice. While it is an asset to the appearance of the city, more so it is indicative of the company's belief in a still growing and greater Northeast Louisiana.

Mr. N. C. McGowen, President, in a speech here Friday night, emphasized the fact that United was happy to grow with this area and he left no doubt that the United developed the Louisville center with an eye for the future.

In addition to the Louisville expansion, United Gas is now constructing an office building in West Monroe and plans are in the making for an additional building in Monroe.

This newspaper office congratulates the United Gas Corporation, its officers and employees on the Louisiville Avenue development and for its faith and optimism in the future of this great area. In turn this magnificent building is accepted by the Twin Cities with pride.

United Gas past, present and future not only continues to serve the Northeast Louisiana area, but also the entire "Gulf South".

Editor, Morning World:

In the April 29 edition I read your version of the crash of the T-33 jet training plane which crashed near Rocky Branch and was flown by Cadet Richard H. Ledgett.

You have been misinformed as to how Cadet Ledgett was rescued. My son and I live a short distance apart and about 10:15 p. m. we heard the plane. The motor stopped running and shortly after there was an explosion. We heard a call which later proved to be a mile and a half from our home. My son came by for me and we drove toward the sound of the call. We went as far as possible by car and then on foot for ¾ of a mile through the woods. We found him near Port Union Rd., about 2½ miles southeast of Rocky Branch. The pilot's condition was fairly good. He had built a fire and was going to spend the night there as he had no idea where he was. After some trouble getting his parachute disentangled from a tree we brought the pilot home with us. He was taken to a nearby telephone to get in touch with his commanding officer, who told him to return to Monroe, as they were sending a plane for him. He was taken to Selman Field where the plane picked him up.

"Three Minutes A Day"

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

An article called "Three Minutes A Day" published in quite a few newspapers over the country has come to my attention and I believe it is worthy of yours and your readers. It's just a little article, but with what force of good. Good that one person can do to inspire each of us to do something to make the world a better place to live in. I think it is very worth while and believe all your readers would enjoy it, if they have the opportunity to read it.

We (my whole family) appreciate your continually wonderful editorials against communism.

Who wants the stock law in the state of Louisiana? I live in a stock law area but will not vote for one.

I wish to say to the reader of this fine paper and voters of this state, "Don't vote for this law. It will only help those who are concerned. It will reduce the income of livestock and increase livestock for the men who have large pastures and the little man can jump in the lake." Another problem: What will the hill farmer do who lives on his income from livestock? We must look at the principle of free enterprise. Think for yourself. Don't be dumb but be wise. Here is a reminder to you recognizers of this law: You, by the laws of nature are free by divine law as an individual and we live in the system of judgment free.

Vote right and a cow can be free!

A Miscarriage Of Justice?

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

The following statement is true to the best of my knowledge.

I, Mr. J. A. Watson and citizen of the State of La., City of Monroe, formerly manager of Economy Gas and Sales Co., located at 3200 DeSiard St.; said station being burglarized on February 22, 1954, was arrested, tried and convicted of this crime in which I am innocent.

I am without funds or counsel to defend my case and my constitutional rights for a fair trial has been violated, because I was led to believe by the District Attorney of the Fourth Judicial District of La. that I would be granted probation by pleading guilty, not knowing what to take place in behalf of my case.

Is It Possible?

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

I have been a reader of your paper over a long period. I have not always agreed with the political stand you take. For instance in regard to Mr. Huey Long. I think he did more for this state than any before him or after him. He was the poor people's friend. There seems to be an advocation of the abolition of the welfare checks. I do not think this should happen.

Take the Joseph Sheffield case for instance. Is it possible that there is some unknown power that can overrule our honorable courts and juries? I have known Judge Carey Ellis at Rayville all my life and I have the highest regard for him. Is it possible that we have come to the point that our duly elected district attorney and judges have no power to enforce the laws? Joseph Sheffield was tried and sentenced to die in the electric chair. What has happened that this man has not been electrocuted?

"Gentlemen, Where Are We?"

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

At the beginning of the McCarthy - Army investigation, I thought it behooved me as a loyal citizen to keep informed of its progress. Through the press, the radio and TV I have endured it as long as I can. That affair is as muddy and opaque as the Red River. I now give up.

Sixty years ago the presiding officer of the Kentucky legislature fell asleep in his chair listening to a debate full of sound and fury signifying nothing. When the row ended he awoke, stared around him a moment, and wailed, "Gentlemen, where are we at?" I am sure there are many of us who at the end of every session of the investigation could echo the classic interrogation of the Kentucky statesman. An echo answers: Where are we at?

Among the trivialities of my memory, there emerges a ditty which I change slightly to indicate just how much I have comprehended of the McCarthy-Army investigation up to date:

All that I remember
Of each session is just how
Every witness takes an hour to avow
That what happened when it happened
Did not happen when it happened
And really does not matter anyhow.

Radar Hasn't Stopped Them

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

Monroe is really keeping up with the progressive trend. Now we have a radar check, but we still have the speed fiends, only now they have moved over to another street.

Radar check may have its place in the wheels of progress but unless an enforcement of the 25 M. P. H. limit is imposed, some little child will be under the wheels of some speed maniac.

I hope we can have a patrol on our streets in the months to come when all the children will be home every day. I'm sure every parent out here would be most appreciative.

THOUGHTS

For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day. — Matthew 12:8.

The happiness of heaven is the constant keeping of the Sabbath. Heaven is called a Sabbath, to make those who have Sabbaths long for heaven, and those who long for heaven love Sabbaths.—Philip Henry.

My son, fear thou the Lord and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change. — Prov. 24:21.

We should enjoy more peace if we did not busy ourselves with the words and deeds of other men, which appertain not to our charge. —Jeremy Taylor.

Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Ishope for thy truth.—Isaiah 38:18.

Nothing is truly infamous, but what is wicked; and therefore shame can never disturb an innocent and virtuous mind. — Sherlock.

And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the Lord hath spoken unto Moses. — Numbers 15:22.

Let him that sows the serpent's teeth not hope to reap a joyous harvest. Every crime has, in the moment of its perpetration, its own avenging angel — dark misgivings at the inmost heart. — Schiller.

Timmons In Washington

By Bascom N. Timmons

Party Unity Is Now Theme Of Democrats

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Democrats are meeting here under circumstances which could be very depressing, had events taken another turn. As it is they are unmistakably in such high spirits that they could turn out to be overconfident.

With little more than three months of this session of Congress left, the Republican legislative record can be likened to the laggard housewife who had only the sheets on the line by the time the full wash should have been up to dry. Many observers think the housewife is badly handicapped because her attention has been turned to washing dirty linen, very much in public.

Even with its slender margin in both houses, many Republicans in Congress believe that had President Eisenhower been firmer in telling his legislature what he wanted done and when, this final session of the 83rd Congress would now have at least one half of the White House program either passed or well along toward final action. This, with the apparently encouraging economic outlook for the country, would have been enough according to past political performance to give the edge to the party now in power.

Leading Democrats in the first quarter of 1954 led off with baleful predictions of receding business which have turned out to be the wrong political angle. They backfired so much that little of that talk will be heard at this meeting. Ordinarily that would give party leaders the cue to be cautious, to play it carefully this time.

What the new party line should be has not been decided. The concensus of opinion is that the Republicans couldn't be more helpful to the Democrats if latter had written the script. But if the advice of impartial political observers is accepted, the Democrats will play it carefully during the congressional campaign, keep their party unity, urge discordant influences to limit their campaign activity—meaning chiefly Harry S. Truman and Adlai Stevenson — and devote themselves to deploring the Republican failure to make progress.

More and more Democrats seem to be talking that way. Their line of reasoning would require Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (Rep.-Wis.) to be ignored by Democratic campaigners leaving it up to voters to make up their own minds about the senator and the highly controversial investigation now going on. But on the other hand, if McCarthy in his campaigning again attacks the Democratic record as "twenty years of treason," Democrats cannot fail to strike back and that is hard to do without attacking Joe personally.

In the face of the most threatening international situation confronting the nation since American forces were on the verge of being driven out of South Korea in 1950, Democratic criticism must be reasonable, so long as U. S. ground forces are not committed to battle in Indo-China. In that unhappy event, Democratic spokesmen figure that the campaign issue will develop without their hammering on it.

What all Democrats assembled here would like to know is just how effective—or possibly ineffective—Senator McCarthy will be as a big gun in the fall campaign. They take with a grain of salt the statement of Chairman Leonard Hall that he will be booked for "3 solid months" either through the Republican Speaker's Committee or through acceptance of local invitations. From reports received here, McCarthy's appeal lies in his own middle west, where the Republican party may decide he will be a big asset, and in the South, where he would be of no help in electing Republican congressmen and senators because the few candidates running on the Republican ticket have no chance.

How far the senator's effectiveness has been damaged by the legislative tie up his investigation has caused, when the questions at stake seem much less important than the regular business of Congress, is still to be determined.

Celebrations Set

NEW ORLEANS May 8—UP—Celebrations have been planned in Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma for the observance of Armed Forces Day 1954 on May 15.

The Army said that ceremonies will include airplane fly-overs, open houses in military establishments, displays of the 280mm atomic cannon, and addresses by high-ranking civilian officials and military officers.

W. E. OWEN

Faculty Member To Head Dept.

RUSTON, May 8 (Special)—New head of the electrical engineering department in the school of engineering at Louisiana Tech will be W. E. Owen, who has been a faculty member of that department since 1947. The appointment will be effective with the beginning of the summer session on June 7, President R. L. Ropp announced.

Owen will succeed H. J. Nethken, head of electrical engineering at the college since 1925, who is retiring.

The new department head was engaged in radio work in Alexandria several years ago. During World War II he was employed in the bureau of standards in Washington, D. C. He taught electrical engineering at Louisiana State University for two years prior to joining the Tech faculty.

This summer Owen will be on leave to work in the electronics plant of Westinghouse in Baltimore.

He holds a B. A. degree from Louisiana College, M. B. A. from the University of Pennsylvania, B. S. in electrical engineering from Louisiana State University and the M. S. from Harvard. He is a registered professional engineer in Louisiana.

AIRMAN THIRD CLASS GLENN B. CLOYD, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cloyd, Route 2, West Monroe, is spending a few days with his parents here while on a delay en route from Carswell Air Force Base, Ft. Worth, Texas to Okinawa. Airman Cloyd entered the Air Force on Feb. 2, 1953, and was sent to Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, for basic training. At the completion of basic he was transferred to jet mechanic training school at Amarillo, Texas, and then to Ft. Worth.

CIO Steelworkers Refuse To Sign No-Raiding Pact

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The office of David J. McDonald, president of the CIO United Steelworkers, said today the big union has adopted a policy which will not permit signing a proposed "no raiding" agreement with the AFL.

McDonald, himself, was not available for comment and his office declined further comment except to say the policy was adopted by the union's 39-member executive board some time ago.

Close observers said the action came after David Beck, an AFL vice president and leader of the big International Brotherhood of Teamsters, declined to line his million-odd members up with the pact.

McDonald is expected to have more to say about the union position at a meeting of the CIO-USW executive committee Monday in Washington.

The proposal was made at last year's AFL convention and was considered a preliminary step toward merger of the two big union organizations.

Utility Baptists Homecoming Is Set

UTILITY (Special) — Church officials have announced that a big homecoming is being scheduled at the Utility Baptist Church for May 30.

All former pastors and members of the church have been issued an invitation to be present for the special event, officials said.

Rev. Vernon Chevallier, pastor of the church, said all persons who ever took part in activities at the church are invited to return for the homecoming.

Closing Events Of Carroll High Listed This Month

M. H. Carroll, principal of the Carroll High School, announces the closing exercises for his school. On May 19 the annual musical will be held in the school auditorium.

Baccalaureate exercises will be held Sunday, May 23 at 2:30 p. m. when Dr. Alfred Campbell, of Nashville, Tenn., will deliver the sermon. He is a former graduate of this school and was a resident of West Monroe.

On Wednesday, May 26 Rabbi David Lefkowitz, of Shreveport, will deliver the commencement sermon to the class of seventy-one graduates.

Graduation At LaSalle May 21

OLLA, May 8 (Special) — Commencement exercises at LaSalle High School will be held May 21 at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Roy C. Welch, principal, announced that Miss Barbara Smith was valedictorian of the class and Miss Addie Mae Wilson was salutatorian.

Rev. David Mayor will be the principal speaker for the baccalaureate service to be held on May 16 at 8 p. m.

Ushers for the baccalaureate service will be Melba Gormon, Marie Slay, Elaine Cruse, Madra Nichols, Patsy Gregory and Shirley Brady.

Ike Suffers Defeat On Taft-Hartley Law Revision

WASHINGTON, May 8—UP—President Eisenhower's legislative proposals to Congress are not all doing so well.

Senate scuttling of revisions of the Taft - Hartley labor law Friday was widely considered a major setback.

Other principal presidential proposals appear destined for the legislative wastebasket.

However, the President is expected to fare better in the two to three months remaining in the current session of the 83rd Congress.

A look at the legislative scorecard shows these markers on what may arbitrarily be called the credit and debit side:

DEBIT

Farm — Mr. Eisenhower is in trouble with his proposals for a flexible price support program for farm products. The outcome is uncertain. A large bloc of legislators, possibly a majority, wants to continue present law calling for 90 per cent of parity supports. If Congress does not enact a new farm law, Mr. Eisenhower will get substantially what he wants since the 1949 law calling for flexible supports—which never went into effect—then would become effective.

Statehood — Statehood for Hawaii appears dead. The Senate attached statehood for Alaska to the administration measure. Speaker Joseph W Martin Jr. has made it clear several times that the House will not vote on the Alaska statehood bill even at the cost of killing Hawaiian statehood.

Reciprocal trade — Current reciprocal trade law expires June 12. The President asked Congress to extend the program for three years with new provisions for tariff cuts of up to 5 per cent a year on commodities that already have been reduced the maximum now permitted under the law. Mr. Eisenhower is given no chance whatever of getting this program approved. The best he can get, according to his Capitol Hill advisers, is an extension of the present law for one year.

CREDIT SIDE

Social security — Congress is expected to approve the President's recommendations for liberalizing the social security program.

Foreign aid — Approval expected for continuation of foreign aid although on a more modest scale than proposed.

St. Lawrence seaway — A big triumph for the President in getting approval of the $105 million St. Lawrence seaway project. Republican and Democratic presidents for 30 years have been trying to push the measure through Congress.

Taxes — Mr. Eisenhower stands a good chance of getting substantially what he asked for in the way of tax law changes. Republicans believe they have the votes to defeat a plan sponsored by Senate Democrats to increase personal income tax exemptions. Mr. Eisenhower's tax relief program puts the emphasis on reductions for business to spur expansion and for certain groups of individuals.

Housing — He is expected to get substantially what he wants in the way of new housing legislation. However, Congress probably will write into the new law safeguards against any further "windfall" profits to builders in the operation of the Federal Housing Administration's mortgage insurance program.

Postal rate increase bill — Passage in doubt.

Federal health reinsurance plan —Also in doubt.

18-year-old vote — Mr. Eisenhower is given no chance of getting congressional approval for lowering the voting age from 21 to 18 by constitutional amendment. The Senate takes up the House-passed measure next week.

9 Persons Bitten By Rabid Puppy

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Five persons bitten by a rabid puppy began treatment today as the little cur dog died in the city pound.

Four others bitten by the puppy have not started treatment at the Hinds County Health Department. Dr. George Riley, county health officer, said private physicians may be treating them.

He said all nine apparently knew they were bitten by a rabid dog and should begin treatment immediately.

Meanwhile, health officials continued search for a Chow dog that bit a 4-year-old boy.

Officials do not know whether the dog is rabid but began rabies shots on the boy to play safe.

Dr. Riley reported the boy's father said a Chow dog captured after a long chase yesterday was not the dog that bit his son.

The captured dog is in the city pound but shows no signs of rabies, Dr. Riley said.

Police reminded Jackson residents that allowing a dog to run at large is against the law and said all such dogs will be impounded for observation.

They urged dog owners to keep their dogs in their yards, or locked up.

The little black and tan puppy, three months old, bit nine persons who tried to pet him Wednesday.

"He was a vicious little thing," Dr. Riley said.

ON COUNCIL — Ray Bowen, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shipp, of Wisner, was recently elected to the sophomore council at Massachussets Institute of Technology. Bowen, who is majoring in nuclear physics, is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and was named to the dean's list for his excellent scholastic record.

W. Monroe High School Awards Are Presented

The seniors of West Monroe High School were honored at a general assembly of the student body on Thursday, May 6 along with special guests who made various presentations and awards.

Following a processional of the seniors, the group joined in prayer, the Pledge of Allegiance, and in singing the "Star-Spangled Banner." Don De Loach, president of the senior class, was master of ceremonies.

L. L. Price, instructor at N. L. S. C., and chairman of the agriculture committee of the Monroe Kiwanis Club, presented Doris Burnette, senior, with a 4-H Club banner and Jimmy Dennig with a $25 bond for his outstanding supervised farm program for the school year. Four students, Joy Emerel, Betty Preston, Billie Sue May, and Bill Seymour, received speech certificates for their participation in the speech clinic conducted at N. L. S. C.

Miss Katherine Averett, West Monroe High School faculty member and representing the Chief Tusquahoma chapter of the D. A. R., presented Becky Watts, eighth grade student, with the chapter's citizenship award.

Coach Howard Barker recognized the various athletic teams of the school, their managers, and the publicity director. Following two numbers by the ensemble, Girls' and Boys' State delegates were introduced to the assembly.

Two essay awards were presented to Lynn Tillman and Bill Seymour by Mrs. Roy W. Cash, who was representing the auxiliary of the V. F. W.

Following the presentation of the senior class gift a speaker's stand by vice-president, Ed Hislop, P.B. Mangum, principal, made an address with farewell remarks and praise to the senior class. He closed the assembly by challenging the junior class to meet in their future school year the standards set by the first class to graduate from West Monroe High School.

Ceremonies Set For Opening Of Sabine Project

BATON ROUGE, May 8 (AP)—The Louisiana and Texas highway chairmen will cut the ribbon Tuesday opening a seven-mile stretch of U. S. Highway 90 including a Sabine River bridge linking the two states.

Texas' approaches to the river cost about $1,970,000, on the Louisiana side, about $1,600,000. Both states split the $1,948,000 bridge cost.

Officials of Calcasieu Parish and Orange County, the U. S. Corps of Engineers, the U. S. Navy and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads will join Louisiana Chairman Sherwood Loe and Texas Chairman Ely H. Thornton.

Ceremonies begin at 11 a.m. in the bridge center, with music by McNeese State College Band of Lake Charles and Orange High Band of Orange, Texas.

George Craft, Orange Chamber of Commerce president, is master of ceremonies.

Both Louisiana and Texas approaches consist of four lanes of concrete roadway. Eventually a bypass route is to be built from the Western end of the new bridge north of Orange to connect with U. S 90 about four miles west of the city.

New Orleans Jazzman Heard In Geneva

GENEVA (AP)—Sidney Bechet—the New Orleans jazzman—blew into town last night and all but blew the Geneva conference out of town.

He took up his stand, with his soprano saxophone, at Victoria Hall and rocked it with "Muskrat Ramble," "Baby, Won't You Please Come Home," "When The Saints Come Marchin' In," and other Dixieland favorites.

The Swiss audience gave him ovation after ovation. He used five French jazzmen to back him up.

Rep. Cooley Predicts Defeat Of Ike's Farm Plan

WASHINGTON, May 8—(UP)—Rep. Harold D. Cooley (D-N.C.) Saturday forecast overwhelming defeat for President Eisenhower's flexible farm price support plan when it comes up for a vote in the House Agriculture committee.

"It will be lucky to get five votes from the 30 members of the committee," Cooley said in an interview.

He is senior Democrat on the committee and served as chairman in the 82nd Congress. He predicted the committee would send to the House floor legislation to extend present laws requiring the Agriculture Department to support "basic" crops at 90 per cent of "fair price" parity. This law is now scheduled to expire at the end of this year.

Administration Plan

Under the administration plan, supports would be mandatory at 90 per cent of parity for only one of the six basic crops, tobacco. The props would range from 75 to 90 per cent of parity for the other five basic crops — wheat, cotton, corn, rice and peanuts.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson has contended that flexible and lower supports would discourage overproduction and increase consumption. He has pointed out that wheat, cotton and corn account for most of the $6.5 billion the government has tied up in farm surpluses.

Nevertheless, in winding up his case for the flexible plan before the House Agriculture committee last Thursday, Benson emphasized that it would not produce a sharp drop in farm supports.

Gives Comparisons

He gave the following comparison as the department's "best guess" as to the difference in support prices for 1955 crops if the flexible plan were adopted:

Rice — No change. Props would remain at 90 per cent of parity since there is no surplus.

Corn — Seven cents a bushel lower. Supports dropping to $1.54 a bushel, or 85 per cent of parity.

Peanuts — One cent a pound lower. Supports dropping to 11.2 cents a pound, or 83 per cent of parity.

Cotton—1.4 or 2.79 cents a pound lower. Supports dropping to 82 or 86 per cent of parity.

Wheat — 15 to 27 cents a bushel lower. Supports dropping to 79 or 84 per cent of parity.

Gunman Receives Life Sentence As '3-Time Loser'

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A Birmingham gunman was sentenced to life in prison yesterday after a Criminal Court judge denied his motion for a new trial.

D. V. Stinson, 29, was convicted of being a habitual criminal which carried a life penalty in Tennessee.

Stinson and M. B. Montgomery, 25, of Houston, Tex., were captured here after a "botched up" jewelry store holdup which touched off a wild downtown chase.

Montgomery, convicted of robbery and sentenced to 15 years, still faces trial on a charge of assault to murder, accused of shooting police Lt. J. W. Slaughter in the leg.

A third man charged in connection with the holdup, Ira Dawson, 25, is held in Birmingham for trial on other charges.

White To Address Delta Council

STONEVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Gov. Hugh White will fill in for U. S. Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) as featured speaker at the annual Delta Council meeting Tuesday in Cleveland.

Symington is a member of the committee hearing the McCarthy-Army controversy in Washington and will be unable to attend.

Dr. C. R. Sayre, council president, said today Gov. White's agreement to speak fits in with the theme of the "Delta's Salute to Industry."

French Suppress News Of Dien Bien Phu's Fall For Hours, Newsman States

Editor's Note: The following dispatch, filed at 9 a. m.. Hanoi time—8 p. m. EST Friday—is the first dispatch Associated Press correspondent Larry Allen has been able to get through French censorship with direct word of the fall of Dien Bien Phu.

By LARRY ALLEN

Hanoi Indochina (AP)—The French Union fortress of Dien Bien Phu fell last night under overwhelming tidal waves of attacking Vietminh rebels after 56 days of heroic resistance.

The Communist-led enemy legions, outnumbering the defenders six to one, crushed the heart of the trench and barbed wire bastion in northwest Indochina in savage hand-to-hand fighting.

The defenders—Frenchmen, Foreign Legionnaires, Moors and loyal Vietnamese—fought on even after they had run out of ammunition, until they were completely overrun.

The fate of the 12,000-man garrison and the lone woman air force nurse, Miss Genevieve de Galard Terraube, was not learned.

The nurse had been trapped inside the fortress for weeks after the encircling rebels made it impossible for planes to land at Dien Bien Phu.

The French high command released the first news of the fall of the fortress at 9 a.m. today, Hanoi time (8 p.m. EST yesterday).

The high command deliberately suppressed all news of one of the biggest stories of the year for many hours after it had been known throughout the rest of the world.

Not a single line of news about Dien Bien Phu and its fall was allowed to be sent from Hanoi all through Friday. Nothing had been sent up to 9 a.m. Saturday.

When newsmen finally were permitted to send out their stories, they found the Vietnamese communications hopelessly jammed with tens of thousands of words to be moved by Morse telegraph operators. Some of the copy may be several days in clearing.

The latest report the command gave out here was the isolated strongpoint Isabelle, three miles to the south of the main fortress complex, still was holding out at dawn but all radio communication had been cut off.

A French spokesman here said the end of Dien Bien Phu after a magnificent resistance against a vastly outnumbering foe was a "Red Chinese victory rather than a Vietminh victory because of the greatly increased war aid given to the Vietminh (from neighboring China to the north)."

Reliable sources said the Vietminh used a new Russian weapon during the last hours of the battle. They are called "Stalin Organs," consisting of a series of 25 to 30 rockets fired one after another. The rockets burst when they hit the ground.

Couch Named V-P Of Demeter Frat

Andrew Couch, Northeast State student from Winnfield, was elected vice president of Demeter Fraternity, national honorary agriculture organization, at the national convention in Natchitoches.

Northwestern State was the host college for the event. Other officers chosen at this time included Gilbert Dozier of Southwestern, president, and John Dennison, also of Southwestern, secretary-treasurer. The new officers will serve during the 1954-55 term.

H. Lee Prather, president of Northwestern State, welcomed the group and emphasized the theory that there are two methods of judging an organization: By the way it thinks and the activity shown in the fraternity by its membership.

Sylvan Nelken, also of Northwestern, discussed the livestock industry in the state. He declared, "Our cattle are too inferior for breeding purposes. Forage crops lack food value to produce quality beef." Stressing the need of remedying the situation, Nelken asserted, "Our honeymoon is over; business is here."

Considering poultry production in Louisiana, Coldeman Martin, county agent for Natchitoches parish, declared, "Our state has come a long way in the past five years in the poultry industry.

H. J. Young spoke to members of the Future Farmers of America grass judging contest held in this state.

Farms were visited during the afternoon session. Among these were the farms of Herman Taylor, Brahman cattle breeder of Natchitoches, and Newton Carnaham who discussed the advantages of his new above-ground silo.

Northeast students attending the convention were Billy Adcock, Thad Busbice, Andrew Couch, Roy Edgar, Bennie Freyer, Fred Graves and faculty adviser, F. H. Holdeman.

2 Nitro Trucks Begin Perilous 2,550-Mile Trip

FARMINGTON, N. M., May 7—UP—Crews of two specially-built trucks gingerly began a 2,550-mile trip Saturday with loads of 600 quarts of one of the most sensitive explosives known - nitroglycerin.

The cargoes are destined for an oilfield 900 miles northwest of Calgary, Alberta, where the nitroglycerin will be used to "shoot" a wildcat well owned by several major oil companies.

The unusually long haul is being made by the Eastern Torpedo Co., whose offices here provided the nearest supply of the deadly explosive.

The route will include mountain highways but Bert Smith, district manager of the explosives concern, belittled the danger involved.

"It takes a lot more to explode nitro than most people think," he said. "They say a five - pound weight dropped on a can of nitro will explode it. But nothing's going to drop on these."

The beds of the two trucks being used in the Farmington - Calgary haul are covered by a steel awning to block off the sun's rays. Nitroglycerin will withstand any temperature up to 240 degrees, Smith said.

"If there's any danger," he said, "it'll come from a wreck."

The two drivers, Al Sherman, 48, and Shelby Underwood, 29, are given few definite instructions on how to drive except that "they shouldn't stay too close together."

Woman Injured In Auto Collision At N. Eight, Auburn

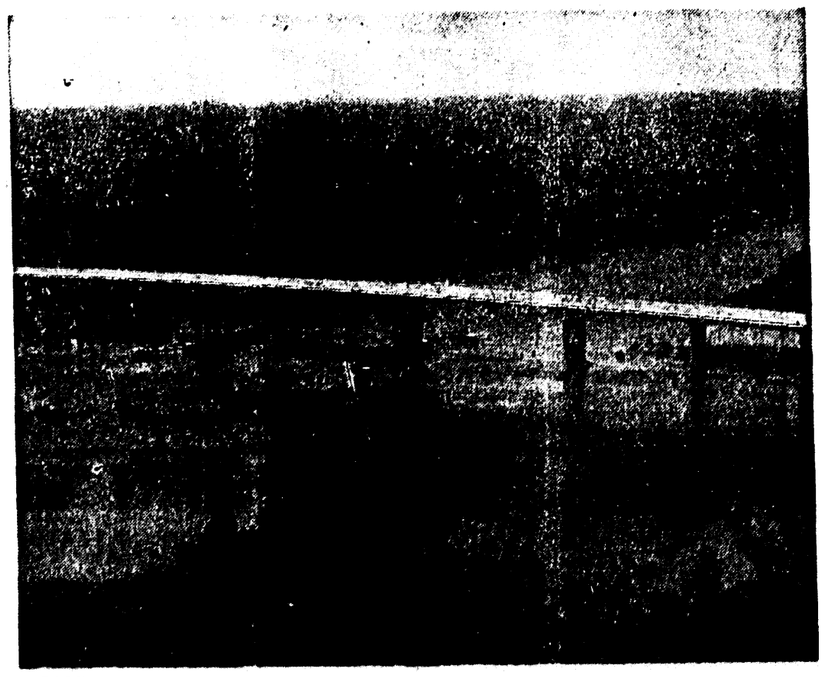
Mrs. Minnie Florence Booth, 24, of Route 2, West Monroe, suffered minor injuries about 4 p.m. yesterday, when the car in which she was riding collided with another vehicle at the intersection of North Eighth street and Auburn avenue.

According to investigating officers, Mrs. Booth was traveling north on North Eighth street in a car driven by her husband, Richard James Booth, 30, when the vehicle collided with a car driven east on Auburn avenue by Jerry L. Menafee, 17, of 1500 Emerson avenue.

Mrs. Booth was taken by Mulhearn ambulance to St. Francis Sanitarium where she was treated for shock and minor injuries.

Yesterday afternoon no charges had been filed against either driver.

New Louisiana-Texas Bridge Dedication Planned



PART OF A NEW $5,000,00 relocation of U. S. Highway 90 in Louisiana and Texas, this bridge over the Sabine River just north of Orange, Texas, will be formally dedicated and opened to traffic at 11 a.m. Tuesday, May 11. Principal speakers at the dedication will be Sherwood R. Loe, Shreveport, chairman of the Louisiana Highway Board, and Ely H. Thornton, Galveston, chairman of the Texas Highway Commission. The seventh in a series of bridges built over the Sabine during the past 30 years, the new span is 0.6 mile long and cost almost $2,000,000 in state and Federal funds.

1st Episcopal Ordination In 99 Yrs. Held In Tensas

FERRIDAY, La. (Special)— The first ordination to take place in Tensas Parish in the ninety-nine years history of the Episcopal Church took place at St. Joseph when the Reverend W. Donald George, deacon - in - charge of Christ Church, St. Joseph, was ordained to the priesthood on the Feast of St. Philip and St. James. The ordination took place in Christ Church, St. Joseph.

The Right Rev. Girault M. Jones, D. D., bishop of Louisiana, ordained and was the celebrant of the Holy Eucharist. He was assisted by the Right Rev. Iverson B. Noland, D. D., Suffragan, bishop of Louisiana.

The Rev. Canon Donald H. Wattley of Christ Church, New Orleans the Episcopal cathedral, read the preface to the ordinal, and the preacher was the Very Rev. Albert R. Stuart, D. D., Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, New Orleans. The ordinal was presented to the bishop for ordination by the Rev. Frank W. Robert, rector of Christ Church, Covington. The Rev. Baker J. Turner, Jr., curate of Grace Church, New Orleans, led the litany for ordination; the Rev. Mark G. Holliday, vicar of St. Matthias' Church, Athens, Tex., read the epistle, and the Rev. Edwin C. Coleman, rector of Mt. Olivet Church, Pineville, La., read the gospel.

The Rev. Sherwood S. Clayton, rector of Grace Church, New Orleans, was the investor; and the master of ceremonies for the service was the Rev. Robert E. Ratelle, rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Ruston, La. The chaplain to the bishop was the Rev. Robert H. Manning, rector of St. Andrews' Church, New Orleans, was Acolyte. Mrs. Thomas M. Wade, III, was the organist.

Immediately following the service the new priest bestowed individual blessings to those in the congregation. He celebrated his first Holy Eucharist on Sunday at 7:00 and 11:00 a.m. in Christ Church and at 9:00 in Grace Church.

Demonstration Week In Home Is Observed Here

National Home Demonstration Club week was observed by the Colony Club with a luncheon in the Barn in West Monroe. After the luncheon the members went to the agricultural building for the holding of the regular meeting.

The session opened with the Lord's Prayer and the usual opening ceremonies including roll call. Members answered the calling of their names with something growing in their gardens.

Minutes were read and approved and when old and new business was considered the club booth at the fair was given consideration.

Reports were rendered as follows: garden landscape, Mrs. L. J. Bower; food preservation, Mrs. Drew Anderson; family life, Mrs. L. J Bower.

Mrs. Euna Spielman then demonstrated the making of jellies. The pectin, alcohol and jelmeter tests were explained.

A recreation period was enjoyed, and Mrs. Virginia Mullen received a gift from the club.

Those attending were: Mrs. Henry Wroten, Mrs. J. J. Kuhn, Mrs. Drew Anderson, Mrs. Euna Spielman, Mrs. O. B. Haynes, Mrs. L. J. Bower, Mrs. E. O. Welch, Mrs. V. W. Magee, Mrs. Pattie Carr, Mrs. A. J. Methodists In Eros To Observe 50 Years Sunday

Members of the Eros Methodist Church are planning to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of that church Sunday. The church was organized in 1904 and at present only four charter members are living. The four are two brothers and their two sisters: R. E. Collins, Shreveport; A. E. Collins, somewhere in Oregon and Mrs. J. R. Henry and Miss Lillian Collins of West Monroe.

A big day is planned. All former pastors living near enough have been invited to attend. Rev. G. W. Pomeroy, district supervisor, of Ruston, will deliver a sermon Sunday morning. Quarterly conference will be held in the afternoon. Dedication ceremonies are planned for the afternoon. There will be dinner on the ground.

Tuberculosis Ass'n Has Its Annual Meeting

New officers of the Louisiana Tuberculosis Association have been installed at Baton Rouge and are Dr. R. H. Bolyard, president, head of the sociology department of Southwestern Louisiana Institute, Lafayette; Miss Anna Harrison, New Orleans, first vice - president; Jessie Bankston, Baton Rouge second vice - president; Mrs. Iola Huger, Lafayette, secretary, and Mrs. Rodney Toups, New Orleans, treasurer.

The executive committee will comprise Dr. William E. Kramer, Monroe; H. O. Swartz, Winnfield; Mrs. Lamont Seals, Homer; Mrs. T. R. Tomlinson, Doyline; Mrs. H. A. LeBlanc, St. John parish and Dr. Aprippa Robert, Baton Rouge.

In a general session held welcoming addresses were made by Dr. Charles E. Smith, dean of L. S. U. and by Mrs. St. Clair Favrot, of the Baton Rouge Tubercular Association. Response was by the retiring president, Dr. W. E. Kramer of Monroe.

A panel was conducted which comprises Dr. Edward Grant, director of state institutions; Dr. S. J. Phillips, president Louisiana department of public health and others.

There was a general discussion on "What Is Being Done in Controlling Tuberculosis in Louisiana" Dr. Grant stated that money used thus is an investment not an expense and added that many hospital beds are needed for the treatment of the disease in the state. Dr. Phillips told of plans for the establishment of four out-patient diagnostic centers in strategic points in the state. Dr. Sidney Jacobs, president of the Louisiana Trudeau Society stressed that money raised from seal sales is for the purpose of education in the control of the disease.

Following this meeting presentation of awards were made, with Mrs. Lamont Seals, chairman of the seal sale committee presiding. Awards were made for outstanding work in seal sale promotion. Awards were made by Miss Frankie Hebert, secretary of the Louisiana Press Women's Association for the best papers published in school newspapers on tuberculosis.

Special awards for outstanding services over the years in tuberculosis work were presented to Mrs. J. St. Clair Favrot, Baton Rouge; Mrs. Meyer Benson and Dr. A. A. Herold, both of Shreveport; and Dr. W. E. Kramer, Monroe retiring president.

Dr. Kramer was commended for his able leadership as president for the past two years.

Tony Buttita, Monroe Native, Is Opera Star

By H. H. BRINSMADE

If one were out in San Francisco, Calif., way, one would be sure to hear and probably see Tony Buttita a Monroe - born man who is making a hit in Civic Light opera and over CBS radio in the Frisco Bay area.

"Meet Your Neighbor" is just one of the many shows that are seen and heard over TV and they are suited to fill a big place in the hearts and lives of hearers.

Tony is one of three children in his family. There is a brother James, in Monroe, and a sister, Miss Mildred Buttita. None of them are married.

Tony, after early education in Monroe, attended Rice University, then the University of North Carolina. He was a brilliant student and he received his doctor's degree at this university.

After service in the army he went to New York and became interested in the stage. He served in various capacities, including that of press agent.

He is described in "Meet Your Neighbor," in which he stars, as follows:

"Coming to Frisco, he helped make some big successes, 'The Voice of the Turtle' with Margaret Sullivan and 'One Touch of Venus' with Mary Martin.

"In 1947 Tony came here as part of the Light Opera Association. You recall 'Rosalinda,' 'The Three Musketeers' and 'Song of Norway.' This last was Tony's Lucky show. It proved one of the biggest hits Edwin Lester ever sponsored. Today it is presented fully 50 times all over the country.

"This is the eighth season Tony has come to Frisco with the Light Opera Association. His eyes gleam as he describes coming shows such as 'Brigadoon,' 'Porgy and Bess,' 'Peter Pan,' 'The King and I' and 'Midsummer Night's Dream.'

'When not in San Francisco Tony has it real tough. He just goes to the southern part of Europe where he writes on his novel, which will be issued one of these days.'

Cerebral Palsy May Hit Anyone

Sponsors of the campaign in northeast Louisiana to raise funds for cerebral palsy victims Saturday issued the following statement:

"Unlike some other major health ailments, against which we can be rendered immune, cerebral palsy is an insidious condition against which there is no insurance.

"It can—and does—strike any one, of any age, any color, and creed, at any time in life. It could strike your neighbor, or your child —it could even strike you. There is no preventive, no known cure.

"But many of northeast Louisiana's 375 cerebral palsied can overcome the disability, and to help them to do it, United Cerebral Palsy of northeast Louisiana is now conducting a campaign to raise $45,000 this year.

"Friday night, 1954, at 7 p.m. the postmen of Monroe and West Monroe will walk their routes to accept donations. Everyone is urged to help by having their porch lights on and their donations ready.

Morey's Jewelers Get Tremendous Reception

Morey's Jewelers, the new $1,000,000 jewelry store which held its formal opening here Friday and Saturday, received a tremendous reception during its first two days of business.

Gordon P. Gibson, general manager of the new store, said some 1825 persons registered in the store for the numerous prizes which will be given away at a drawing next Saturday or Friday alone, and more were believed to have been there Saturday, although the exact figures had not been tabulated Saturday night.

Large floral decorations, donated by well-wishers, almost literally covered the store during the two-day opening period as shoppers and others wishing to see the displays thronged into the store.

Mayor John E. Coon was on hand Friday morning to greet the first customer on behalf of the store, and to welcome Morey's to Monroe.

The new "automatic" doors which swung swiftly open at the slightest touch of a hand upon them drew much comment from customers who, forgetting to loose the handles, were pulled along with them.

Others were enthralled by the new private diamond show room which allowed them to view the diamonds in private and complete comfort. Many commented on the foyer display, with the suspended showcases in the center and the huge picture window displays on each side

Gibson commenting on the reception given the store by residents in this area, said:

"I wish to extnend my sincere appreciation for the many kind words and favors, such as the floral displays, which have been given to the store and to me for the opening."

Gibson said the registration for the many prizes which will be given away will be held until next Saturday. At 2 p.m. Saturday, the drawing will be held and those registering will receive such prizes as a diamond wrist watch, which is the main prize; four other watches, a waffle baker, a portable radio, a cigarette case and lighter, and service for eight in a lifetime silverplate cutlery set.

Monroe's Newest and Finest Jewelers

In Ouachita Parish

Pioneering Is Recalled By Retired Farm Agent

Mrs. Jewell L. McQuiller who pioneered in establishing the first 17 Home Demonstration Clubs in Ouachita parish—there are some 23 in existence now—last week looked back over her long career devoted to helping farm women with their problems.

The soft-spoken retired home demonstration agent, who stepped aside from extension service work in Ouachita parish after 30 years of service, which started in 1920, resides at 2704 S. Grand in Monroe.

However, four years of retirement has not dimmed her love for that type of work, nor eclipsed the memory which many farm women have of her trail blazing activities, when the faithful horse was still a prime mode of transportation.

Starting as a home demonstration agent in Arkansas in 1916, Mrs. McQuiller worked in several sections of that state, and for a while held the post as state emergency home demonstration agent, with headquarters in Little Rock.

She came to Ouachita parish in 1920, and that fall formed the first parish Home Demonstration Club at Logtown with Mrs. J. B. Filhiol—who still holds that position—as president.

The group had been formed first as a sewing club, and then converted, she said. There were about 10 or 12 members in the charter group. Liberty Club was organized next with about six or seven members.

Mrs. McQuiller, who made her rounds of farm homes in a model "T" Ford, recalled that organizing home demonstration clubs was no cinch.

"You had to sell each prospective member by making a home call. In fact, I was told very early by one person, 'If you'll come break bread with us, we'll like you.'" she said.

In those days when there were few telephones and no radios, the home demonstration agent and county agent were the only connecting links between many farm people and Washington, she recalled.

She pointed to the newspapers as playing a vital role in helping carry the message of the farm agents to the people.

Transportation in those early days was slow and somewhat uncertain at best. Many women walked and a few came to the club meetings by horse and buggy.

Early roads were often impassable, the retired agent recalled as she observed the progress highlighted in last week's observance of National Home Demonstration Week.

"Sometimes roads would slush off and I would have to get someone to make repairs before they would be passable again." She said that she was often stranded for periods of several hours at a time in Ward Nine.

The working days of the early day home demonstration agent were long, and without an aide or any office help, she also handled 4-H Club activities—then in the formative stage.

"It was not unusual to work until 3 a.m. at some farm home helping can beef," she reminisced.

The home agent served many purposes: As a source of information on almost any subject that might be bothering the farm house wife, to a troubleshooter in an emergency.

"If someone died at midnight, I'd called to help at the home. If a child from here were stranded in New Orleans, I'd be called to help."

She helped tend the sick, and assisted when the stork hovered near an isolated farm home. She also loaned many items of household ware from her own home.

"I worked hard, long hours, but I had a good time doing it," she reflected smilingly.

Only three home demonstration agents served briefly in the parish before Mrs. McQuiller took over. Her successor, when she relinquished the post in 1949, was Mrs. Euna D. Spielman, the present agent.

Mrs. McQuiller's family consists of her husband, Boatner, and one daughter, Mrs. Carolyn Lampkins of Shreveport.

Truck Kills Child

TUPELO, Miss. (AP)—Robert Rineheart, 13-year-old son of Mrs. Ester Rineheart, was killed on U. S. Highway 45 today near his home about 10 miles south of Corinth.

Highway patrolman O. E. Elder said the child apparently ran into the side of a truck driven by Bobby Gann of Corinth.

Mormon Group Breaks Ground For Chapel Here

The local branch of the Latter Day Saints which was established in a chapel at 307 North Second Street, met loss of the building by fire March 9, 1952. With funds available they purchased a site for a new church at 2300 Lee Avenue, and it was there that ground was recently broken for a new $45,000 edifice.

The church here started with two families in 1938 and now has membership of 265.

The church of this denomination has had a rapid growth in the Salt Lake Valley where there are today 1,500,000 members. In its missionary work throughout the world 3,000 men and women are engaged. They receive no salaries and travel and make a living through their own efforts.

The church at Salt Lake City was organized in 1830 by Prophet Joseph Smith.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (FHTNC)—Jacob B. Croke, fire control technician third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Croke of Route 2, Box 181, and husband of the former Miss Polly M. Brown of Star Route, S., all of Winnsboro, La., now serving aboard the heavy cruiser USS Quincy, has been awarded the navy good conduct medal for three years of exemplary conduct.

CHERRY POINT, N. C. (FHTNC) — Marines Sgt. Clifton L. Humphries of Route 3, and Pfc. Eason L. Wright, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eason L. Wright all of Monroe, La., have reported to the Marine corps air station here for duty with the 2nd Marine aircraft wing.

Drowning Victim's Rites Set

WINNIELD, May 8 (Special)—Jesse D. Bishop, 22, of Winnfield, was drowned early Friday afternoon, when a boat in which he and five other men were riding sank in the Grand river, near Placquemine.

According to report received here Bishop, who was employed by the Texas Oil Exploration Company, and four other men were returning to work after a visit to town, when the accident occurred. The ferry, which the men usually used for transportation across the river, was not in operation, so the men persuaded an unidentified man to take them in his motor boat.

As the boat neared the opposite shore it was reported to have started to sink. Bishop's four companions and the owner of the boat jumped to safety, but the Winnfield man went down with the boat.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Jerusalem Church, near Winnfield.

Services will be conducted by Rev. H. J. Mott, West Monroe, assisted by Rev. E. B. Barton and Rev. Ernest Evans, both of Winnfield.

Interment will be in Jerusalem Cemetery, under the direction of Southern Funeral Home of Winnfield.

Pallbearers will include members of the Winnfield National Guard unit.

Bishop is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Bishop, Winnfield- two brothers, Johnny Bishop, Orange, Tex., and Lee Dell Bishop; Winnfield; one sister, Blanch R. Evans, Orange, Tex., and his grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Cogley, Winnfield.

Mayors Proclaim An Armed Forces Day Observance

Mayors John E. Coon and J. Allen Norris, of Monroe and West Monroe respectively, Friday issued a joint proclamation designating Thursday, May 13, as Armed Forces day in the Twin Cities.

The Armed Forces Day Proclamation declared that:

"Whereas the members of the Armed Forces of the United States have constantly demonstrated their loyalty and devotion to the service of their country; and

"Whereas the men and women of the Armed Forces are actively engaged, at home and overseas, in upholding and defending our Democratic way of life as opposed to ideologies which seek to destroy the basic principles of freedom cherished by this nation; and

"Whereas it is appropriate that on a specific day each year our Armed Forces demonstrate to the people of the United States and our friends overseas their increased teamwork and efficiency and their technological advances; and

"Whereas it is fitting and proper that all our citizens devote one day each year to paying tribute to our fighting forces as the protectors and defenders of our nation:

"Now, therefore, we, John E. Coon and J. Allen Norris, do hereby proclaim Thursday, May 13, 1954, as Armed Forces Day.

"I call upon my fellow citizens to display the flag of the United States on Armed Forces Day and to manifest their recognition of the sacrifice and devotion to duty of the men and women of the Armed Forces by attending and participating in the local observance of the day conducted by the Armed Forces and the civil authorities.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Monroe and the City of West Monroe to be affixed."

MAYOR JOHN E. COON,
MAYOR J. ALLEN NORRIS.

Free Book on Arthritis And Rheumatism

How To Avoid Crippling Deformities

An amazing newly enlarged 44-page book entitled "Rheumatism" will be sent free to anyone who will write for it.

It reveals why drugs and medicines give only temporary relief and fail to remove the causes of the trouble; explains a specialized non-surgical, non-medical treatment which has proven successful for the past 35 years.

You incur no obligation in sending for this instructive book. It may be the means of saving you years of untold misery. Write today to The Ball Clinic, Dept. 3702, Excelsior Springs, Missouri. Adv.

TRAIN WITHOUT TRACK—An A. L. and M. diesel locomotive, pulling over 20 cars, ran off the end of a switch track here shortly before midnight Friday and wound up stuck in the sand. Work crewmen went to the task of restoring the heavy engine to the track yesterday morning. No one was injured. The incident occurred behind a liquor storage firm off the Sterlington Road. Scouts Taught Conservation At Camp Ki-Ro-Li

Almost 200 Boy Scouts from 14 troops in the Monroe-West Monroe area Friday night and Saturday attended a "Conservation Camporee" at Camp Ki-Ro-Li near West Monroe.

Charles E. Meltabarger, field Scout executive, said the "camporee" was held in conjunction with the Scouts 1954 emphasis on conservation of woods and wildlife.

In all, he said, there were 176 Scouts at the camp, 24 leaders, three staff members and seven persons helping with the program for the Scouts.

State foresters and rangers were with the boys in the woods Friday night and Saturday, giving demonstrations on such conservation matters as hand fire-fighting, mechanical fire-fighting, tree stand improvement, selective marking and cutting, tree growth and other such matters.

Vernon Robinson, district forester, and Ed Champagne, his assistant, were both on the scene as were several Rangers and their helpers.

The boys camped out at Camp Ki-Ro-Li all Friday night, watched demonstrations of the various phases of conservation Saturday morning and the early part of the afternoon, and returned to their homes later Saturday.

The 14 troops at the "camporee" comprised boys from the Boy Scout central district, which lies mainly in the Monroe-West Monroe area, Meltabarger said.

They spent the night at Ki-Ro-Li in pup tents.

Meltabarger said the regular summer outing for the Scouts at Ki-Ro-Li will begin on June 6 this year.

NEW GAS BUILDING—Hundreds of local persons toured the new United Gas building on Louisville avenue yesterday, when the building was formally opened. N. C. McGowen, president of the gas company, was in Monroe over the week end in connection with ceremonies that officially put the building in service. (Staff photo)

Sentiment Grows For Limitation Of Crude Imports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Wilverton (R-NJ) of the House Commerce Committee called this week for prompt action by Congress to curb imports of residual fuel oil.

In a statement in the congressional record, Wolverton cited a resolution in which governors of coal producing states recently asked "remedial action by Congress" to restrict oil imports.

"The call is urgent," Wolverton said. "The answer should not be delayed."

Proposals to limit residual oil imports to 5 per cent of domestic demand and imports of crude oil and other oil products to 10 per cent are pending in Congress. The limitations would be figured quarterly, based on domestic demand in the corresponding quarter of the preceding year.

Wolverton said imports of residual oil are a serious factor in present distress in the coal industry. Governors of coal producing states formed the governors' permanent fuel conference at a meeting here April 28 and adopted the resolution calling for congressional action.

The resolution urged members of Congress from affected states to "use their best offices in obtaining immediate legislative action against unrestricted residual oil imports."

A hearing has been scheduled before a Senate Commerce subcommittee May 13 and 14 on a bill by Sen. Tunt (D-Wyo) to amend the natural gas act to give the Federal Power Commission authority to control gas imports if it finds they are causing unemployment or injury in competing fuel industries in this country.

World's Deepest Oil Well To Be Tested Soon

BAKERSFIELD, Calif., May 8 (AP) — The world's deepest well, which has produced king-sized headaches but no oil so far, probably will be tested for production within two weeks.

"With good luck we should be ready by that time to make a test at the 17,100-foot level," division manager George Sowards of the Ohio Oil Co. said today.

The celebrated 1½ million dollar well on the Paloma field, 25 miles southwest of here, bottoms at a record 21,482 feet. But the drill pipe stuck two feet off bottom last Oct. 28 and crews have been working 24 hours a day seven days a week ever since at the world's deepest "fishing" job, trying to retrieve the lost drilling pipe.

The first cut in the pipe was at about 10,000 feet. In the past 6½ months the hole has been cleared down to the 17,000-foot mark.

It has been a gruelling job, fishing out 50-foot sections of drill pipe after washing and cutting it, then using a magnet to clear out chunks of the cut metal.

The work was especially slow at the 16,495-foot mark where the hole had sidetracked an earlier "fish" consisting of a core barrel. Futile attempts to retrieve the core barrel had taken 54 days. And the sidetracking left a slight bend in the hole.

Sowards indicated that if exceptionally good progress is made in removing the drill pipe, crews might pass up the 17,100-foot test in an attempt to get back all the hole lost.

But the well's log showed a hard sand in that vicinity which may be profitably productive.

When the wildcat was spudded in Oct. 23, 1951, Ohio planned to prospect the Point of Rocks sand of the Eocene age. This sand is a prolific oil-producer in fields 27 miles northwest of the Paloma test.

"But the Eocene is at much greater depth than we anticipated," said Sowers, adding that they expected to tap it at about 21,000 feet. But at that depth the hole was only in lower Miocene formation.

Sowards estimated that the underlying granite floor is at least another 2,000 feet below the bottom of the hole.

The Ohio's big well was drilled through hitherto unlogged formation from the 11,950-foot mark to 21,482. More than 80 other wells on the Paloma field are producing from sands between 10,000 and 11,950 feet.

Five Girls To Lead Start High

START, May 8 (Special) — The student body at Start High School named the cheer leaders to represent the school for this fall.

Named to the posts were Mary Joyce Fuller, Mary Ann Robinson, Joyce Garland, LaJuana Flint and Kathie Jan Fleischmann.

NOW SHE BECOMES COLONEL — Another honor has come to Irene Reid, director of advertising for the News-Star — World. She is shown in the above picture being presented with a commission by Frank Bonner, local Delta C. and S. Airlines, manager, of a commission as flying colonel. The commission recites that this is done in recognition of her outstanding contribution to the development of aviation and for support of air transportation. It bears the signature of C. E. Woolman, president of the airlines.

Awards Day Held At LSU College Of Commerce Friday

BATON ROUGE —UP— Awards Day at the college of commerce was held yesterday.

Dr. J. B. Trant, dean of the college, presided. The day began with the crowning of Peggy Wade of Dallas, Tex., as queen of commerce day. Members of her court were Ann Abell and Eleanor Zeagler of Baton Rouge, Susan Ellwood of Ft. Worth, Tex., and Flo Montgomery of Tallulah.

Sherrel McIlveene of Cotton Valley was awarded the Delta Sigma Pi scholarship key as the male senior having the highest grades in one of the commerce curricula and the Alpha Kappa PSI award as the male senior in commerce attaining the highest scholastic average for three years of collegiate work at the university.

Allan N. Sommer of Rayne was another double winner, receiving the Marcy Hartman annual award as the highest ranking accounting major and the Louisiana certified public accountants award for the member of the graduating class ranking first in accounting.

The Pi Tau Pi award went to Edward Blewer of Shreveport, as the junior student making the highest grades in one of the curricula of the college.

Phyllis D'Abadie of Lake Charles received the Beta Alpha Psi award for the junior in accounting with the highest academic average.

First place winner of the Earl A. Saliers accounting essay award was J. Curtis Spell of Crowley. Walter Frank, Dubach, and Ray Vittur of New Orleans received honorable mention in the contest.

The Alpha Beta Chi key went to Janice Denson of Jennings, as the senior woman student in the college considered by the sorority as the most outstanding in accomplishments, professional attitude and scholastic attainments.

Jerry Jones of Grand Chenier received the Lester J. Williams scholarship.

Holders of the college of commerce honor awards and consumer credit awards were introduced. The commerce awards recipients were David Johnson of Baton Rouge, Phyllis D'Abadie and Janice Denson. Consumer credit awards went to Walter Bankston, Baton Rouge, Ronald E. Boyington, Bogalusa, and Ellis Laravia of Jonesville.

The ceremony closed with the introduction of college officers

Stocks Continue Upward Move; Reach New Highs

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP) — The Stock Market continued its drive ahead this week with only slight hesitancy.

Periodic pauses in the upward movement of the list constituted what brokers called a consolidation of recent marked gains.

Right now the market on average stands at the highest levels of the past 24 years.

With the general business outlook brighter than for many weeks past, brokers feel there is nothing in sight to block the upward path of the market except wars and threats of wars.

The market has been forging ahead for nearly eight months. Upon occasion, there has been a setback that might be termed a reaction. These have all been mild. Many brokers would like to see more pronounced reactions on the theory that they would clear the air in an emphatic manner for a sustained drive ahead. However, it is felt that the market with its own action has demonstrated that it can keep going up with short periods to consolidate its gains.

This week, as in past weeks, there has been a great amount of selectivity, the buying and selling of stocks on the basis of corporate or industry developments.

The railroads, which got rolling last week, continued their progress this week and provided solid ground for the market's upward swing.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 1.6 per cent on the week whereas the railroad component of the average gained 3.4 per cent.

To show the relative level of the market, the AP average advanced $1.90 on the week and closed at $123.60, a new high for the year and the best level for the average since April 17, 1930. The average failed to make a new high for the year on only one day this week.

Most U.S. government bonds declined every day this week as the Treasury accepted subscriptions to its new 1⅞ per cent four-year nine-month note. The Coporate Bond Market was irregular.

Paul Martin Looks 'Em Over

Twin Cities baseball operators haven't complained about the small crowds seeing games at Legion Memorial Stadium, but this early in the Cotton States campaign the attendance is below any figures for the last four seasons in which Shreveport interests operated the local club.

Opening night showed 2,207 paying customers, smallest since our return to the league, and then the attendance fell well below 1,000 for other games played. It's going to take some 2,000 crowds or a lot of better-than - a - 1,000 games to assure the 60,000 for the season that has been figured necessary to make baseball a break-even sport here.

Cool and threatening weather could be a factor on keeping the attendance down this early. We'll know more about that as the night's grow warmer, particularly if the Sports are still showing plenty of fight, especially that fight-from-behind kind that has been winning late inning games. The Pine Bluff series was as tense as any you could want. We took two out of three from the Judges, both wins coming with ninth inning sprees four and three runs. The lone loss showed a final frame uprising for four runs that kept the fans excited even though beaten.

Manager Ed Head has been letting his boys win the headlines, but the new Sports skipper is throwing his weight from the dugout, third base coaching box and the front office. While the Sports have been looking pretty good, as well as anything else we've seen in the league, Head is still considering improvements and his friends with the Brooklyn Dodger and New York Yankee organizations may pass him on some other talent as the higher classifications cut down their squads.

The club officials are doing their best to furnish us a good ball club. If baseball should fail now it will be because the customer-potential wasn't there. We estimate the club can be assured of 30,000 as there are around 500 persons who'll see all 60 games here. That means it will take 1,500 more fans seeing at least 20 games to make the 60,000 mark.

Winning state championships of some sort is becoming a habit with Jonesboro-Hodge High School, the latest being the Class A track and field title sewed up a week ago at Lafayette. Our Jackson Parish friends can be proud of the fine sports program developed at Jonesboro-Hodge in the past five years that brought a state basketball title under Arnold Kilpatrick (now athletic director at Northeast State) in 1951, the track crown under Jack Jaggers and Bobby Tabarlet in 1952, the basketball title again with Coach Harrel C. Haile in 1953, and now a repeat in track for Coach Tabarlet and Carroll Dowies.

J-H also shows fine football and baseball teams, the latter runner-up last year to Neville of Monroe for the north Louisiana title. Neville went on to win the state championship. And J-H softball teams won both boys' and girls' titles at the recent rally at Louisiana Tech.

Earlier state titles had been far between for the Jackson Tigers. The late Neal Caldwell coached the Tigers to their first state crown, the Class B diadem in football back in 1930. It was 1945 before Jack Jaggers put J-H in the winner's circle again with the state Class A football championship. If the present pattern continues in the development of Jonesboro-Hodge's sports programs, the championships won't be as far between again.

Bringing home first place awards for J-H from Lafayette were Stanley Pope, Leon Whitten, Ronny Breihn and Charlie Pyles in the 440 relay and football shuttle relay; Pyles in the hop-step-jump, and Tommy Ayres in the high jump; Pope was second in the 100-yard dash and 180 low hurdles; Bob Bennett was third in the 440; Ayres was second in the broad jump; Don Hill tied for fourth in the 880; and the mile relay team ran third.

Four other first places went to the boys in this area. Doug Winberry of LaSalle at Olla won the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and Tommy Hinton of Ruston was the class of the shot put and discus competition.

Millers Whip Sports, 7-1, Even Series

Twin Cities Held To Three Hits By Meridian's White

The Meridian Milers fired a tough little lefthander, Tommy White, at the Twin Cities Sports last night, and the Legion Memorial Stadium tenants found him more than they could solve as White put them away with three hits in sparking the Millers to a 7-1 victory that evened the current Cotton States League series here. The final of the series is scheduled for 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Wildness of Paul Aube, starting Sports hurler, cost four runs as the Millers got away to a fast lead in the second inning with the quartet of tallies on only one hit.

Only Chuck Forbes, Twin Cities outfielder, was able to break White's shutout when he tagged the Meridian lefty for a double in the sixth inning and came around on a pair of infield outs.

Aube failed to last the hectic second inning as Ernie Jordan, a two-game winner, was sent to his relief. Jordan permitted one run before going out for a pinch hitter in the seventh, and the Millers got to Sam Adkisson for two more in the seventh.

In addition to Chuck Forbes' double, the only other hits off White were singles by Sam Chetta in the second inning and Herman Herzog in the seventh.

Aube, after quickly retiring the Millers on pop-ups in the first inning, just as quickly lost his control in the second inning to hand the invaders a fat four-run lead. Wendy Forbes led off the second with a double. Manager Tommy Davis was hit by a pitched ball. Ray Rogers walked to load the bases with one out. White tapped a roller along the third base line, scoring Forbes, and Aube muffed the ball allowing White to reach second.

Gene Pompella and George Ryan walked in succession, forcing Davis and Rogers across, and Manager Ed Head called Jordan to replace Aube. Jack Maupin grounded to Jordan and White was forced at the plate. Catcher Sam Chetta, trying to double Maupin at first, threw well enough but the ball was deflected by a flailing arm of the base runner, and Pompella came home before the ball could be recovered.

Chuck Forbes cracked White's shutout in the sixth as he led with a double, raced to third as Paul Flores grounded out to short, and C. J. Fontana grounded out to second, but the Millers got the run back in the seventh as W. Forbes singled, stole second, and came home on "Beans" Giordanengo's single.

Jordan was pulled for a pinch-hitter in the seventh, and the Millers promptly got to Adkisson for two more runs in the eighth. Adkisson loaded the bases with one out as Ryan was hit by a pitched ball. Maupin singled, and W. Forbes walked. Davis' sacrifice fly scored Ryan, and Maupin tallied when Waters, fielding Giordanengo's grounder, threw into the dirt at first.

Proposed Twin City Gun Club Seeks Members

Intensifying the membership drive for the Twin City Gun Club, which plans to conduct a skeet and trapshooting range at Selman Field here, applications for membership are being mailed to approximately 200 former members of the old Monroe Skeet Club and other known shotgun enthusiasts by T. O. Bancroft, the Twin Cities foremost gun expert, who is working with LeRoy Stern and S. K. Bernheim in an effort to revitalize skeet shooting here.

Organization of the gun club is being stimulated by former members of the Monroe Skeet Club which disbanded when its old range gave way at Plum and South Sixth Streets for the new Plum Street Grammar School.

The City of Monroe has already granted use of the old pistol range at Selman Field, located near the U. S. Highway 80 overpass east of the city limits.

Stern, who will serve with Bernheim as a range manager for the proposed club, said the city council has approved and allocated this property as a permanent location for the club which plans to conduct Saturday and Sunday shoots with electrically operated skeet and trap mechanisms.

Stern pointed out that sportsmen failing to receive an application by mail should not feel slighted, but apply for membership.

We are mailing applications to former members," Stern said, but we know there are other sportsmen certain to be interested, and we welcome their joining us in formation of our gun club."

Sportsmen desiring information regarding the club are invited to contact Stern by phoning 6626 or Bernheim at 2-2470.

Southeasterners Assured Of Tie For Gulf Crown

HAMMOND, La., May 8 (AP) — Southeastern clinched a tie for the Gulf States Conference baseball championship by shutting out Southwestern Louisiana Institute 8-0 today.

The victory closed Southeastern's regular season and gave the school a 9-3 GSC record. SLI, with one more game to play, has a 6-5 record.

Gary Whitfield gave up six hits and got credit for his seventh triumph of the season. He struck out 10 and walked three.

Ray Taliaferro started for SLI but gave way to Harley Cahill. Taliaferro lost his control in the fifth and issued four straight walks.

Tech Golfers End Season With 15-3 Win Over Gents

RUSTON, La., May 8 (Special)—The Louisiana Tech golfers ended their season today with a 15-3 win over Centenary College, and in so doing, compiled a 10-1 mark for the year.

The Bulldog linksmen were undefeated in Gulf States Conference play this season, and are defending loop champions.

Jerry Winston and Jim Rivers of Tech finished today with a low score tie of 77; while Larry McCord was low for the losers, with 81.

Winston defeated the Gent's Ed Jolley, 3-0; and Howard Dennis, Tech, split with Ed Carter, Centenary, one and one-half apiece in individual play.

Winston and Dennis combined to defeat Jolley and Carter, 3-0.

Rivers split with McCord, one and one-half apiece; and Tech's Joe Morris beat Wally Baker, 3-0.

In the final foursome, Rivers and Morris beat McCord and Baker, 3-0.

Boros Hangs Onto Slim Lead After Third At Ardmore

ARDMORE, Okla., May 8 (AP)—The Ardmore Open Golf Tournament developed into a wide open scramble at the end of the third round today as sponsor Waco Turner increased the prize money to $31,860 and the pressure mounted in proportion.

Former National Open champion Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N. C., managed to hang onto his lead although he took a 2-over par 72 on this tough 6,483-yard Dornick Hills Country Club course.

This gave Boros a 54-hole total of 209, one under par, but he held only a slim lead as five solid challengers moved within two shots of overhauling him in the battle down the stretch for the $7,200 top prize offered by Turner.

Boros, who captured the 1952 Open championship, started the day with a 137 total after rounds of 68-69 but succumbed to par as he took an out-of-bounds penalty on the 453-yard par-four 13th hole on his second shot. He recovered to birdie the 14th and then matched par on the final three holes.

Pressing closely behind the North Carolina pace setter were five players at 211. They were Bo Wininger of Oklahoma City, an equal favorite along with host pro Dutch Harrison among today's galler of an estimated 5,000; Leo Biagetti of Sandusky, Ohio, tiny Jerry Barber of Lacanada, Calif., Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill., and Bob Toski, the 127-pounder from Livingston, N. J., who won two tournaments on the winter tour.

The leaders:

Julius Boros, Mid Pines, N. C., 68-69-72--209.

Bo Wininger, Oklahoma City 70-71-70—211.

Leo Biagetti, Sandusky, O., 69-72-70—211.

Jerry Barber, Lacanada, Calif., 75-67-69—211.

Neville Wins; Swanson Has No-Hit Tourney Record

Farmerville Falls To Tigers, 3 To 1, In District Final

RUSTON, La., May 8 (Special)—The Neville High School Tigers of Monroe, defending state Class A baseball champions, won their third straight North Louisiana Rally Association championship at the district rally here today by defeating Farmerville High in the Class A finals, 3 to 1, with Arthur "Little Red" Swanson distinguishing himself with nine consecutive innings of no-hit no-run ball in two tournament games.

Swanson, who gave the rally a perfect preliminary game of five innings as Neville defeated LaSalle of Olla, 3-0, Friday, and he came back in relief today to hurl the last four innings in claiming the win over Farmerville although Neville was ahead after three innings of work with Gene Barham, Tiger starter.

Swanson faced only the regulation number of batters in the LaSalle game, walking no batters, and he walked only two Farmers in setting them down almost in order in today's title contest.

The Tigers spotted the Farmers a one run lead in the top of the third inning when Taylor was safe on Billy Hardy's error, Garris reached first when Alton McCready dropped Wayne Causey's throw to second, allowing Taylor to reach third, and Redden squeezed Taylor home.

But the Bengals came charging back for their three runs in the same inning. Swanson, batting for Terry Reeves, walked. Mickey Yerger came through with a single, and Billy Hardy made up for his error by lining a single into left field that got through the Farmerville gardener and rolled to the fence. Both Swanson and Yerger scored on the play and Hardy pulled up at third from where he scored on Causey's outfield fly.

Third place in Class A went to LaSalle on a forfeit from Ruston.

FOREST-CHATHAM CHAMPS

Darkhorse Forest, winner of four consecutive Class B games, defeated Gibsland, 7-2, in the B championship tussle.

In the semi-finals, they blanked Bernice, 1-0; while Gibsland downed Spearsville, 2-1.

Spearsville won the consolation tilt from Bernice, 9-6.

In the Class C title game, Chatham, behind the no-hit pitching of George Moore, defeated Linville, 9-1.

Semi-final results were Linville 7, Oak Ridge 2; and Chatham 5, Sibley 1.

Football Eagles 4 Ink Contracts Of Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, May 8 (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles did a big business in signing players this week, bringing under contract star passer Bobby Tomason, and his chief targets, Pete Pihos and Bobby Walston. The National Football League club also signed veteran guard, Johnny Magee.

Thomason, 25-year-old veteran T quarterback, was slow starting last season, but after he found himself the Eagles won six straight games. He was fourth best among the individual passing stars in the league. He completed 162 passes in 304 attempts for 2,462 yards and 21 touchdowns. He led the league in touchdowns.

Pihos had his finest season in 1953, being named to the All-Pro team. The former Indiana great, led the league in pass catching with 63 for 1,049 yards and 10 TDs. Walston, 185-pound pass catcher, also is a field goal specialist. Magee is back for his seventh season with the pros.

Santee Big Show For Big 7 Track Meet May 21-22

BOULDER, Colo., May 8 (AP)—Wes Santee of Kansas, the miler who may become the first American to smash the four-minute barrier, is the star attraction in the Big Seven Conference track and field meet here May 21-22.

But none of the experts figure Santee will touch the 3:59.4 mark run in England Thursday by Roger Bannister of Oxford.

"The altitude is too big an obstacle," said Frank Potts, track coach at Colorado University of 27 years.

The cinder track at Folsom Field is exactly a mile high—5,280 feet. Potts says that makes a miler's time from 8 to 10 seconds slower than at the lower elevations of the Big Seven schools like Lawrence, Kan., where the altitude is 4,500 feet lower.

"Over the year I've found that Colorado milers will run eight to 10 seconds faster at the lower elevations," Potts says. "The two milers will run 15 to 20 seconds faster. So you can expect the boys from down below to run slower when they get up here."

Santee set the American record of 4:02.4 last June at the Compton, Calif., Invitational Relays. He logged 4:03.1 in the Kansas Relays last month at Lawrence.

The fastest mile ever run here was 4:25.2 by John Doyle of East Denver, in the 1939 Colorado high school track meet. College milers haven't been able to break 4:26.

Proof that the track itself is fast, though, is seen in the quarter-mile record of 46.9 set by Dave Bolen of Colorado University in 1949. The mark is 1.1 seconds under the Big Seven record.

Green Wave Again Defeats Vandy; In 2nd Place SC Tie

NEW ORLEANS, May 8 (AP)—Tulane defeated Vanderbilt 4-3 today to move into a tie for second place in the Southeastern Conference's western division baseball standings.

The victory — Tulane's eighth against six defeats in conference play — gave the Greenies a sweep of a two-game series with Vanderbilt, which has a conference record of eight wins and seven losses. It was Tulane's last home appearance of the season.

Freshman Lionel Richard pitched all the way for Tulane, giving up six hits, striking out seven and walking three. It was his second triumph against no defeats.

Charlie Hawkins went the route for Vanderbilt and was charged with his second loss against seven victories.

Tommy Warner and Jim Zimmerlee paced the Tulane hitting attack with two hits apiece. Gary Page got two of Vanderbilt's six hits.

Boatright, Bennett Are Tribe's 'Most Valuable'

Outstanding athletes in football and basketball were presented awards at a combination banquet for members of the two athletic squads with Mark Boatright, a familiar figure of gridirons of this area for eight years as a high school and college performer, wining the "most valuable" football player trophy presented by Sam Rubin Jr. of R. and A. Jewelry, and Robert Bennett claiming the "most valuable" basketball player trophy.

Other awards were:

Basketball—Bill Bigby and Robert Bennett, honorary co-captains for the 1953-54 season; Loyd Cocker, best trainer; Bill Crowe, sportsmanship award and Mel Gibson, winner of coach Arnold Kilpatrick's award for best foul shot percentage.

In addition to trophy winners, other football players attending were Tommy Boatright, Vernon Wilson, Walter Reed, Ed Lee, Gerald Busby, Robert McDonald, Willard Beavers, Bill Broda, Joe Messaros, Camillo Detore, Bob Windell, Jimmy Berry, Percy Wheeler, Bob Parker, Sherrod McKoin, Ellard Brantley, Sammy Moore, C. J. Melancon, Johnny Goodwin, and managers, Perry Elder, Bobby Meachum, Kermit Stevens, and Ronald Gunter.

Basketball players attending, in addition to award winners, were Bobby McPhail, Junior Austin, Travis Ford, Monty Montgomery, Harmon Ayres, Joe Jordan, Bobby Tullos, Harold Davis, and manager Freddie Bond.

Athletic leaders attending were Jim Malone and "Woody" Boyles of the football staff, coach Kilpatrick of the cagers, and trainer "Bully" Willis.

Legion Juniors Have Four Days To File Entries

Bob McNeely, West Monroe, Fifth District commissioner of American Legion Junior baseball, yesterday reminded that the deadline for forwarding entry fees to qualify teams for district title play this season is next Wednesday.

"All Legion posts in the Fifth District planning to enter teams in competition this summer should have their entry officially secure not later than Wednesday," McNeely said. League play will begin late this month.

All six contenders from last year—Ruston, Rayville, Farmerville, Bastrop, Winnsboro and Monroe—are expected back as well as three others who have been absent for a season or so—West Monroe, Jonesboro-Hodge and Delhi.

Vic Seixas Falls Before Patty In Italian Net Play

ROME, May 8 (AP) — Underdog Budge Patty upset Vic Seixas but America's female ace, Maureen Connolly, came through with an easy victory today in the Italian International Tennis Tournament.

Patty, the former Los Angeles player who now lives in Paris and New York, took full advantage of Seixas' erratic play and whipped the Philadelphian with surprising ease 6-3, 6-2, 10-8. Seixas had little besides an occasional powerful serve and led only in the first three games of the quarter final match.

Patty, 1950 Wimbledon champion, will meet Jaroslav Drobny in the semi-finals. Drobny, seeded second here behind Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, beat Patty in a classic marathon duel at Wimbledon a year ago.

Miss Connolly, who like Seixas won a Wimbledon singles championship last year, continued her triumphal European tour with a 6-1, 6-3 semi-finals rout over Silvana Lazzarino, Italy's top woman player.

It was a tough day all around for the crowd of 1,500 Italian fans as their female star was beaten in 45 minutes and Seixas, whom they adopted as a favorite, also was soundly trounced.

They walked out in droves as the Connolly-Lazzarino match neared its end, calling to the out-classed Italian girl, "she's just too good for you," and similar remarks.

Little Mo, who now has lost only 13 games in eight sets, will meet England's Pat Ward in the finals. Miss Ward advanced by defeating Totta Zehden in the semi-finals, 6-4, 6-2.

Dobson Gets Release, Offered Coaching Job

BOSTON, May 8 (AP)—Veteran righthand pitcher Joe Dobson was given his unconditional release by the Boston Red Sox today and was offered a postion as coach with the club. The Sox office announced Dobson was considering the offer. He had appeared only in two relief roles this season.

LSU Blanks Ole Miss, 7 To 0, On 5-Hit Twirling

BATON ROUGE, May 8 (AP) — Freshman Tommy Barfield gave up five hits today in pitching Louisiana State to a 7-0 Southeastern Conference victory over Mississippi.

Barfield, making his first start of the season, was backed up by a four-run lead in the first inning when LSU took advantage of five errors and sent Mississippi starter Archie White to the showers.

Tommy Virgets and Paul Zinser each got three hits to lead LSU's 10 hit attack on White and his relief, Joe Gibbon.

Bernie Schrieber led the Mississippi batting with two hits in four trips.

Undefeated Royal Note Winner At Churchill Downs

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 8 (AP) — Undefeated Royal Note won his third race today with a two-length victory over a field of eleven 2-year-olds in the $10,000-added Bashford Manor Stakes before 23,500 fans at Churchill Downs.

A third track record was out of the question for the son of Spy Song since the Downs racing strip was on the slow side today. Royal Note covered the five furlongs in 1:00 1-5, the track record is :58 3-5.

Royal Note, who set a new track record for three furlongs at Oaklawn Park and equaled Keeneland's track record for slightly more than a half mile, was followed to the wire by Texas Bulldog and Prince Eric, both rank outsiders.

Backed down to odds on favoritism, Royal Note returned $3.20, $3 and $2.80. Texas Bulldog paid $13.-20 and $7.80 while Prince Eric paid $8 to show.

Hank Moreno, riding without a whip, hustled Royal Note into the lead before leaving the back stretch. In the turn for home, Tricky Homer made a run at the unbeaten bay colt but the bid soon subsided. Texas Bulldog and Prince Eric tried to get through in the stretch, but Moreno reached behind and struck Royal Note with his hand several times. Royal Note responded willingly and pulled away.

Royal Note's owners, T. L. Wison and C. T. Houston, both of Lexington, picked up the $13,100 winner's pot.

'55 WSGA Golf Meet To Be At Shreveport Club

BIRMINGHAM, May 8 (AP) —Mrs. Reid McKenzie, president of the Women's Southern Golf Association, announced today selection of the Shreveport, La., Country Club as site for the 1955 WSGA tournament.

Mrs. McKenzie, from St. Petersburg, Fla., said the tournament next year will start about May 1. Mrs. B. Chambliss Cordell, Shreveport, was named tournament chairman.

This year's Southern Women's tournament will be played at the Birmingham Country Club next week.

McMullen Quits W-J For Job At Akron U.

AKRON, Ohio, May 8 (AP)—Joe McMullen, coach at Washington and Jefferson College for the past two years, today was named head football coach at Akron University.

The 29-year-old McMullen takes over the post Athletic Director Kenneth (Red) Cochrane handled for the past two years. Cochrane, who found the two positions too taxing, will remain as athletic director.

McMullen will receive between $6,000 and $7,000 annually.

During his two years at Washington and Jefferson, McMullen won four and lost four last year and had a 5-1 mark in 1952.

Chetta Bids For Bat Title

By J. P. FRIEND
League Statistician

The dreaded injury jinx has robbed the Hot Springs Bathers not only of their star catcher, but the Cotton States League's first batting leader.

Official records for the first week of play, ending Tuesday night, reveal that Jackie Bales posted a .600 figure in three games before being cut down by a broken bone in his right leg. He is expected to be sidelined for at least six weeks, and possibly longer.

Appearing in five official times at bat the home grown Bather collected three hits and all sailed over the fence to give him the homer leadership, as well as the top mace mark. He scored five runs and batted in three more, along with four base on balls.

Frank Walenga, El Dorado first baseman, is runnerup with .500, securing four safeties in twice that number of tries. He, too, went for distance with the first batting cycle of the young season, a single, double, triple and home run.

Two other newcomers trail within the ultra-swat sphere. Jim Scott, Hot Springs outfielder, is clicking at .455 in four games, followed by Monroe's Sam Chetta, hard hitting catcher, with .409. The veteran Jack Maupin, who is filling the spot vacated by Dolf Regelsky in the Meridian lineup, broke away to an impressive start with .400 in a half dozen contests.

Freshmen shade the returnees within the remaining .300 circle. There are 13 rookies who are gracing the group of select batters to only eight veteran holdovers. Irving "Beans" Giordanengo, given the first string catching job with Meridian this season, is making manager Tommy Davis' choice look very good. "Beans" is hitting .391. Two vets and a rook are deadlocked for the seventh rating of .385: Pel Austin, El Dorado slugger; Steve Korfonta, Hot Springs, second ranking hitter of '53, and Doug Kassay, Pine Bluff, gardener. Herman Herzog, Monroe shortstop, complete the upper 10 bracket with a robust .381.

A pair of familiar faces and another newcomer are deadlocked with .375 to lead the second division of batsmen; Gene Bilo, El Dorado speedster making his loop debut; Vern (Moose) Shetler, Meridian first baseman who batted in 103 runs for Hot Springs last summer; and Frank Lucchesi, Pine Bluff pilot.

Not far behind is Dave Waters, Monroe third baseman, who leads in hits, 10, and total bases, 14, while compiling .370. He is having to step lively to stay ahead of Meridian's Davis, who packs a current .368 wallop. Dick Eaton, Greenville first baseman, racked up an early .357 figure.

Two sets of ties feature the remaining .300 hitters. Jack Maroney, Greenville Handy Andy; Cliff Mansfield, Pine Bluff rookie; Banks McDowell, Greenville dependable, and Tim Ryan, Meridian, are clubbing .333, while Frank Cooper, Monroe; John Maltagiati, Pine Bluff, and Bob Norden, Monroe, all strangers within the circuit, have .313 apiece. Paul Griffith, a Memphis contrubution to Greenville's leading cause, has .300.

Maupin leads in runs, eight; Giordanego, and Shetler have batted in seven runners. Eaton has swiped four sacks already, averaging one a game. Several batters have a pair of doubles.

Two big mound winners last year, John Paul Jones of Greenville, and Bobby Brown, El Dorado, share top pitching laurels with Ernie Jordan, a relief artist with Monroe. All have recorded a pair of wins. Nine other chunkers have single triumphs without defeat. Despite two losses Roy Jayne, Meridian, leads in strikeouts, 16. Brown and Archie Jones, Pine Bluff, whiffed 14.

Pine Bluff is setting a double club pace, batting .286 and fielding .967.

Roger Bannister Expected To Run At London June 12

LONDON, May 8 (AP) — Miracle Roger Bannister's next race is expected to be in the June 12 Anglo-American University meet at London's White City Stadium.

The 25-year-old intern was invited to that meet some time ago, beyond that his plans are up in the air for next few months.

Bannister left town for the weekend and couldn't be contacted about his immediate racing plans, if he has made any.

His mother said "Roger has not had time yet to think about his athletic future. He has had so many offers and it's all rather confusing. I am sure that so far he has made no definite plans."

In the June 12 meet, a combined Oxford and Cambridge team will meet an all-star group from Cornell and Pennsylvania Universities.

Bannister originally was invited to take part in a special 1,000 meters race at this meet with an eye on the 2:20.4 record set by Norway's Audun Boysen at Oslo last year.

Now with his historic 3:59.4 mile still ringing around the world, he is likely to be asked to run in a half mile event instead. The world record for this distance is 1:48.6, held by America's Mal Whitfield.

Other certain fixtures for Bannister this year are the British Empire Games in August at Vancouver where he undoubtedly will go after the half mile and one mile championships, and the European Games at Bern, Switzerland, later in August.

Bannister still has made no formal announcement about an invitation from Los Angeles to compete in the "Miracle Mile" at the Coliseum Relays there May 21, but friends said it is almost certain he will turn it down to keep up with his medical studies.

Oct. 16 — Mississippi Southern there.
Oct. 23 — Arkansas State there.
Oct. 30 — Stetson there.
Nov. 6 — Louisiana Tech there.
Nov. 13 — McNeese State here.
Nov. 20 — Northwestern State here.

Max Schmeling Will Ref Milwaukee Bout

BERLIN, May 8 (AP)—Former German world heavyweight champion Max Schmeling will act as referee in the middleweight bout between German champion Hans Stretz and American Billy Kilgore at Milwaukee on May 18, manager Fritz Gretzschel said today.

Schmeling plans to fly to the United States on May 16. Stretz expects to leave May 14.

Jet Action Cops Two-Length Win In Withers Mile

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP)—The Maine Chance farm of Elizabeth N. Graham produced a top challenger for the $100,000 Preakness at Pimlico today when Jet Action splashed through the rain and slop at Belmont Park to score an impressive victory in the $35,350 Withers Mile.

The chestnut son of Jet Pilot, 1947 Kentucky Derby winner, has easily won his only other start of the year at Belmont last Tuesday and is getting better all the time. The colt failed to win in two starts last year.

Jet Action showed plenty of class, however, this gloomy afternoon as he took the lead in the first quarter mile, was taken off the pace by jockey Jorge Contreras, then grabbed the lead near the top of the stretch and sloshed home a two lengths winner over John Barry Ryan's Buttevant.

The latter was two lengths ahead of the King Ranch's High Gun who in turn finished half a length ahead of Palm Tree from the Greentree stable. Palm Tree and another Greentree colt, Diving Board, had been made the 6-5 favorite by the crowd of 27,810.

Jet Action's time was 1:36 3-5, 2 5ths of a second slower than Native Dancer required to win the 1953 Withers. Top Fleet holds the track record of 1:34 4-5 set in 1942. Jet Action paid $11.90, $7.60 and $4.50. Buttevant paid $10 and $6.20 and High Gun paid $4.10 to show.

The $22,500 international steeplechase was an 18-length runaway for Extra Points owned by L. H. Nelles of Canada.

Extra Points led all the way over a field of 12 other horses from England, Ireland and the United States.

Mrs. J. R. H. Thouron's The Mast was second and the Brookmeade stable's His Boots, third. The time for the about two-mile race over 12 jumps on a soft track was 3:56 2-5.

Extra Points paid $7.80, $3.80 and $3.30. The prices on The Mast were $3.60 and $3.20. His Boots returned $5.30.

Hassayampa Will Be Supplementary Entry For Preakness Race

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 8 (AP)—The owner of Hasseyampa, third in last Saturday's Kentucky Derby, will gamble a $7,500 supplementary fee to enter his colt in the $100,000-added Preakness at Pimlico May 22.

Trainer Howard (Babe) Wells announced today that Hasseyampa would stay at Churchill Downs until the spring meeting ends May 15. Original plans called for the colt to be shipped to California but he "came out of the Derby in such good shape" that owner Robert W. McIlvain "decided he deserved the chance."

Nominations for the Preakness closed Feb. 15. Monday is the deadline for supplementary entries.

Derby winner Determine is back in California and will skip the mile and three - sixteenths Baltimore race.

Hasty Road, second to Determine in the Derby but victor over the California grey in the Derby Trial, also may miss the Preakness.

LUNA TURLS SHUTOUT

ROCHESTER, N.Y., May 8 (AP)—Lefthander Guillermo (Memo) Luna, for whom the St. Louis Cardinals paid a reported $105,000 last year, made his first start for the International League Red Wings a four-hit, shutout today as Rochester defeated the Ottawa Athletics 4-0.

Bengals Nab 1st From Chisox; Cards Check Redlegs

Garver Triumphs On Seven-Hitter; Tigers Win, 12-1

CHICAGO, May 8 (AP) — Sharp-pitching Ned Garver, who now has yielded only three runs in 37 innings hurled the Detroit Tigers into the American League lead behind an 18-hit assault which blasted the Chicago White Sox 12-1 today.

Chicago's lone run was unearned.

The rampaging Bengals clawed five Chicago pitchers from start to finish, exploding for a six-run sixth after a four-run first, to wrest first place from the White Sox by 34 percentage points.

Detroit's 10-5 record actually is a half-game behind Chicago's 14-8 mark, but the Tigers lead on a percentage basis, .667 to .636.

Garver, 28-year-old righthander, rationed seven hits in winning his third victory without defeat. Nifty Ned and his pounding mates so discouraged the Sox that Paul Richards ran in almost his entire bench in the sixth and seventh innings.

Richards used 19 players.

The loser was starter Don Johnson, who lasted three innings in suffering his first defeat after two victories. Johnson was followed by Harry Dorish, Jack Harshman, Al Sima and Tom Flanigan.

Heutel, 10 To 1 Shot, Captures Tom Fool 'Cap

CHICAGO, May 8 (AP)—Hentel, a 10-1 shot, got up near the end today to capture the mile and a sixteenth $7,500 Tom Fool Handicap at Sportsman's Park.

Heutel, owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Muckler of St. Louis and ridden by Job Dean Jessop, came from fourth place at the final bend to challenge leading Phil D.

They battled to the wire with Heutel taking the decision by a head. Four lengths back, in third place, was Gulf Stream.

Big failure was En Fleur, the five-year-old mare who had won her first two starts at Sportsman's. Like Phil D. a 2-1 betting choice, she was in fine position all the way but faded in the stretch.

Andros, Lion and Dads Degree completed the field. Time for the mile and a sixteenth was 1:47 1-5. Heutel paid $22.20, $8.40 and $4.80. Phil D. was good for $4.00 and $3.00 while Gulf Stream returned $4.20.

The crowd of 17,250 bet $1,216,292 at the mutuel windows.

Woman Vs. Alligator On Kallio Mat Card Tues.

WORLD'S ONLY woman alligator wrestler is Ada Ash, (above) who takes on the seven-foot, 200-pound reptile Tuesday night at Kallio's Arena. The Alaska Wolf Man meets Danny Dusek in the regular main event; and Bill Barney wrestles Al Szasz, Ada's husband, in the semi-final. Both professional matches are two-falls-to-win.

Ada Ash, woman wrestler and judo expert, wrestles a seven-foot alligator Tuesday night at Kallio's Arena in the 8:15 opener; Danny Dusek tests the Alaska Wolf Man in the best of three falls main event; and Bill Barney takes on newcomer Al Szasz in best of three falls semi-final.

Ada is Mrs. Al Szasz in private life, and husband and wife form an accomplished wrestling team, as well as working together getting things ready for the alligator grapple.

Ada became interested in the science of alligator tussling while watching a famous Floridian's act, and learned to master the 'gators under his training supervision.

With a sense of balance and timing from many professional wrestling matches, Miss Ash found that reptile 'rassling" also required steady nerves, strength and courage. Her match with the 200-pounder, named Ali I, will open the Kallio program Tuesday.

Dusek, a husky strongman, youngest of the renowned Dusek brothers, is a good match for the villainous Wolf. Both were winners last week; Dusek over Bill Barney, and Wolf Man over George Curtis, although he was disqualified for slugging after the final bell.

Szasz, besides aiding his wife in the 'gator exhibition, is also an accomplished wrestler, forming a formidable team with the Madam. They have written numerous books on self defense and judo, and have demonstrated both in rings and TV appearances all over the country.

Barney, who is 'way behind on his personal boast to Promoter Kallio that he would win 50 per cent of his Kallio wrestling matches, has another tough row to hoe this week. Last Tuesday, it was the veteran husky, Dusek, and now he must face not only a skilled matman, but a judo expert as well.

West Monroe's Marbles Event Due This Week

The West Monroe Lions Club conducts its city championship marbles tournament for grammar schools of Ward Five next Saturday morning at the West Monroe High School, beginning at 9 o'clock, it was announced yesterday by George Screpetis, tourney chairman.

Champions of all schools will be presented trophies at the regular meeting of the Lions Club at 7 o'clock the night of May 20, and the tournament's grand champion will be sponsored to the state tournament at Baton Rouge.

Jimmy Finks Returns

PITTSBURGH, May 8 (AP)—Quarterback Jimmy Finks today signed a contact for the 1954-55 season with the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League. It will be his sixth year with the team.

Finks, who injured a knee last season and had to undergo a cartilage operation, became the 23rd player to be signed by the Steelers.

NCAA Places 2 Schools On Probation, Raps Five

CHICAGO, May 8 (AP)—The policy-making council of the National Collegiate Athletic Association today placed two schools on probation for one year and "severely" reprimanded five for violations of the N.C.A.A. athletic code.

On probation are Kansas State College at Manhattan, Kan., and North Carolina State College at Raleigh, N.C.

Reprimanded are Seton Hall University of South Orange, N.J., and four schools of the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference — Hardin-Simmons University, Texas Technological College, University of Arizona at Tucson, and West Texas State College.

North Carolina State was prohibited under the probation from participating in the National Collegiate basketball championships in 1955 should it get that far in competition.

But Walter Byers, N.C.A.A. executive director, said the penalties "will not affect the schools otherwise in regard to scheduling or eligibility for N.C.A.A. events."

All of the schools were cited for "tryouts" of prospective basketball or football players, but Kansas State was singled out further because of the existence of an organization in Manhattan called the Wildcat Club.

From 1947 to March 1952, the N.C.A.A. resolution of probation said, "this organization collected funds in the amount of at least $50,500 for use in part to defray out-of-state travel and the entertainment costs of the institution's basketball and football staff members, and to finance certain other athletic department activities.

The N.C.A.A. said also that a "complete and accurate accounting of the disbursements" of the club were not available to its investigators.

Byers pointed out, however, that "the Wildcat Club funds were not collected to aid athletes and it should not be inferred that they were."

The N.C.A.A. said North Carolina has followed "at least since 1950, the practice of paying the transportation costs of prospective athletes to visit the campus."

It said the college tried out mostly basketball players and "to a less extent" football players.

In the case of North Carolina State, the council said it also was supporting the action of the Atlantic Coast Conference in ruling ineligible for one year 11 prospective basketball players who were tried out in May, 1953. It is against N.C.A.A. policy to name the players.

The probations are for one year, at which time the N.C.A.A.'s committee on infractions will review the athletic policies and practices of the two schools prior to lifting the penalities.

Red Birds Count Early To Notch 7 To 3 Triumph

CINCINNATI, May 8 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals made seven hits good for seven runs in the first three innings today as they pounded out a 7-3 victory over the National League-leading Cincinnati Redlegs. Stan Musial's ninth home run of the season drove in three of the runs.

Harvey Haddix, survived a shaky start in which he allowed all three Cincinnati runs in the first two innings, to get his third triumph of the season.

The game had to be stopped three times because of rain and it was played in 50-degree temperature.

Starter Art Fowler and his reliever, Ken Raffensberger, were soft touches for the Cardinals.

Fowler, a 30-year-old "rookie", didn't even last out the first inning as the Cards scored three times before Raffensberger arrived on the scene.

Raffensberger lasted until the sixth but Musial's home run was the big blow as St. Louis got four runs off him in the third. Musial's out-of-the-park wallop came after Solly Hemus and Schoendienst had singled.

Japanese Amass Points To Easily Win Asian Games

MANILA, Sunday, May 9 (AP)—Japan romped off with the Asian Games last night, winding up with almost as many titles as were earned by all the other 17 countries and governments.

The Japanese, amassing 2,390 points to 1,736 ½ for second place Philippines, captured 39 individual and teams titles. The other countries together got 40.

About half a million spectators saw the 1,000 athletes compete.

Powerful teen-age swimmers from Japan served notice their country will be a threat in that department of the next Olympics by turning in marks rivaling those of swimmers in the United States and Europe.

Keiji Hase, 18, swam the 200-meter backstroke in 1:07.1 which compares with the Olympic mark of 1:05.4 set by Y. Oyakawa of the United States.

Hiroshi Suzuki won the 100-meter freestyle in 58.2 compared with the Olympic record time of 57.1 set by Clark Scholes of the United States.

The games wind up today with a ceremonial parade. The next games will be held in 1958 in Japan.

Other team totals in addition to Japan and the Philippines were: Nationalist China 1,394; South Korea 999; Singapore 611; India 571 ½; Pakistan 452; Burma 393; Indonesia 258; Hong Kong 181; Israel 178; Ceylon 54; Afghanistan 25; and Malaya 7.

Team champions crowned were:

Track—Japan.

Swimming and diving—Japan.

Basketball — Philippines by defeating Nationalist China, 34-27.

Boxing—Philippines.

Shooting—Philippines.

Soccer—Nationalist China by defeating South Korea, 5-2.

Water polo—Singapore by defeating Japan, 4-2.

Weightlifting—South Korea.

The Asian Games only recognize team championships in basketball, soccer and water polo. All other team titles are unofficial.

Tulsa Options Two; Names One Disabled

TULSA, Okla., May 8 (AP)—Tulsa pared its roster to the Texas League's 19-player limit today by optioning two pitchers and placing second baseman Tom Korczowski on the disabled list.

Southpaw hurler Cliff Ross was sent to Schnectady, N.Y., of the Eastern League, and Natalio Irizarry, a right hander, was ordered to Columbia, S.C., of the South Atlantic League.

Deadline for meeting the player limit is midnight.

Parry O'Brien Rips Down 60-Foot Limit On Shotput

LOS ANGELES, May 8 (AP)—Giant Parry O'Brien of Los Angeles made a shambles of the supposedly impenetrable 60-foot mark in the shotput today when he twice officially broke the distance and wound up a record-shattering day with an amazing put of 60 feet 5¼ inches.

The 22-year-old holder of the world record, with a performance that astounded several thousand track and field fans gathered for the U.C.L.A.-U.S.C. dual Pacific Coast Conference meet, actually broke his own world record three times before concluding the series.

America's 1952 Olympic champion signaled what was to come when he tossed the 16-pound iron ball unofficially 60 feet 4 inches in his first warmup while he was still wearing his sweat suit, complete with pants and jacket.

O'Brien last year set the official world record of 59 feet 2¼ inches. Two weeks ago he bettered the mark in an exhibition at Drake Relays, registering 59 feet 9¾ inches. Application for acceptance of the mark was in the works until he went on his rampage today.

If the practice performance hadn't been convincing enough, this was the official clincher.

The 220-pound former University of Southern California athlete on his next appearance in the ring let go for 60 feet ¼ inch.

Comparatively speaking with these brilliant efforts he tailed off a bit, but still bettered his own world mark once more with a put of 59 feet 10¼ inches.

Here is the order of his official tosses:

1. Fouled. (The ball also slipped and hardly reached the measuring area).
2. 60 feet 5¼ inches.
3. 60 feet ¼ inch.
4. 59 feet 10¼ inches.
5. Fouled. (Unofficially 59 feet 10¼ inches).
6. 58 feet 10¾ inches.

O'Brien competed in an event listed formally on the program as a special open shotput. Officials of the meet said all specifications had been met and application would be made for acceptance of the mark as a new world standard.

O'Brien, who has been a great shotputter dating back to his high school days in Santa Monica, Calif., said afterwards that "I'm going for 62 feet after this."

Bobby Thomson To Rejoin Club; No Action Date

MILWAUKEE, May 8 (AP)—Bobby Thomson, injured Milwaukee Braves outfielder, will rejoin the National League club in New York Tuesday.

Thomson, acquired from the New York Giants in a winter trade, suffered a triple fracture of his right ankle in a spring training game in Florida.

General manager John Quinn said he had been advised by Dr. Robert Lonargan, who has been treating Thomson, that he is satisfied with the progress the outfielder is making.

Dr. Lonergan said Thomson had been walking with a cane and probably would need it for some time. He was unable to set any date for Thomson's return to action.

Thomson is on the disabled list and will be until May 15, when the Braves probably will extend the listing for another 30 day period.

RE-SIGNS WITH BEARS

CHICAGO, May 8 (AP)—Billy Stone, 190-pound halfback, today signed for his fourth season with the Chicago Bears of the National Football League. Stone, a Bradley University product, last season caught 34 passes for 376 yards and four touchdowns. He carried 72 times for 169 yards and two TD's.

Sacrifice Fly Rule Puts Points On Batting Marks

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP)—The new sacrifice fly rule has proved to be a bigger boon to major league batters than generally expected.

The rule, instituted this season, exempts a batter from a time at bat if he drives a run with a fair fly ball.

Collectively, it appears to have made only a little difference. Individually however, it has added many points to some players' averages.

Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians and Gil Hodges of the Brooklyn Dodgers have reaped the biggest harvest from the sacrifice fly rule so far. Rosen hit five sacrifice flies in Cleveland's first 18 games. Through games of Friday, May 7, the hard-hitting infielder was batting .338.

Under last year's rule, when a batter was charged with a time at bat on a run-scoring fly, Rosen would be hitting .314. Thus the new rule has added 24 points to his batting average.

Hodges has picked up 19 points with four sacrifice flies. His average of .357 would have been only .338 a year ago. Milwaukee's Andy Pafko owes his .306 average to three sacrifice flies. Otherwise he'd be hitting .289.

In all, 95 sacrifice flies have been hit through Friday's games, 52 by National League players and 43 by American leaguers. Each circuit has added three percentage points to its batting average.

The Indians lead all clubs with 11 sacrifice flies. Brooklyn, Milwaukee and the New York Yankees are next with nine each. Oddly enough, the Chicago Cubs, who lead all clubs with a .305 batting average, have hit the fewest. They have two, both made by pitcher Paul Minner.

Except for Rosen, Hodges and Pafko, no player has hit more than a pair of sacrifice flies. Those with two include Wally Westlakd and George Strickland, Cleveland; Roy Sievers, Washington; Yogie Berra and Gil McDougald, Yankees; Ferris Fain and Jim Keegan, Chicago White Sox; Bill Renna, Philadelphia Athletics; Junior Gilliam, Brooklyn; Monte Irvin, New York Giants, Red Schoendienst, St. Louis and Minner.

Only 24 of the 95 sacrifice blows have been hit by lefthanded batters. That could mean one of two things. There are more righthanded hitters in the majors or the righthanded batters hit more fly balls.

Summer School Nearing

Enrollment for the summer school at Northeast State is scheduled June 4-5, with regular class work beginning on June 7. The nine-week session will end on August 6.

Student teaching will be available in the laboratory school which still has a few openings for pupils in certain grades. Parents who wish to enroll their children for summer study are requested to make application with Mrs. Evelyn Otts, director of teacher training at Northeast.

Summer school offerings are designed to meet the needs of teachers, beginning college students, and persons interested in continuing their college studies.

Students who are graduating this spring from high school and others who are beginning college work will be able to schedule a full program of study.

A maximum of ten semester hours may be earned. The registration fee is $9, with the addition of a small cost required to cover laboratory work in certain science courses. No additional fee is charged for private music lessons.

Dormitory facilities are available for both men and women at the rate of $7.50 per month. Room reservation may be made by sending a $1 deposit to the college auditor. Meals are obtainable in the cafeteria on the campus on a monthly plan or by paying for each meal. This plan is to be carried out for the convenience of dormitory students and those who commute daily.

All entering students should present high school transcripts or transcripts from other colleges and universities which they have attended.

Veterans on the G. I. or Korean Bills should present their certificates of eligibility to prevent delay in registration.

Besides regular classes, the summer school will include features such as workshops and conferences. The best available consultants will be secured to conduct these sessions, Dean William M. Smith announced.

The calendar also includes opportunities for recreational activities such as drama, concerts, movies, dances and parties.

MISS MARY ANNE McDADE

2 Piano Majors At Northeast Set For Recital

Miss Jane Wallace of West Monroe and Miss Mary Anne McDade of Oak Grove will be presented in recital Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building on the Northeast State campus.

Both college students are pupils of Mrs. Florence Z. Allbritton and candidates for the bachelor of science degree with majors in piano. They will play the recital in partial fulfillment of requirements for the degree.

Before entering Northeast State, Miss McDade studied piano with Miss Jean Copeland and Mrs. J. D. Copeland in Oak Grove. During her college years she has participated regularly in solo and ensemble performances of the Music Department. She is treasurer of the student chapter of Music Educators National Conference and she has been a member of the college choir several years.

Miss Wallace, who was a student of Mrs. Allbritton throughout high school, is well known in this area for her numerous solo appearances before schools civic groups and radio, in addition to generous contributions to campus activities in music, drama, and organizations of different natures.

She has served as an officer in the student chapter, MENC, has been a member of the college choir and ensemble and piano soloist with the band. National and international honors have also been received in piano.

Good Record Broken

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Deathless days on Little Rock's traffic calendar ended at 192 yesterday when 18-year-old Austin D. Smith was killed in a wreck at a city intersection.

Smith, a high school senior, was driving a truck which collided with an automobile driven by U. B. Key.

Key, head of the city street department, was hospitalized.

Broiling hamburgers? Top each pattie with a thin slice of yellow cheese for a good taste change. Sprinkle the cheese with a little paprika.

When you are planning a company dinner, try to have one course or one dish a little out of the ordinary.

SO LITTLE cash buys so "blooming" much in this sensible buy located at 1309 COLLEGE AVE. with it's livable features galore! It's cooled by an auto. shutter attic fan with timer; the well-arranged living room has false fireplace with floor - to ceiling bookcases on either side; the 55x172' lot is well landscaped with St. Augustine and there's a garage with metal over head door. Pay $325 closing costs and buy the happiest home in the college area. Total price is only $8900.

PERSNICKITY?

LIKE something a little above ordinary in a home, a little more than "run of the mill," may be a new SOLID brick home? Well, if you're "persnickity" about homes . . . look what only $810 down buys on G. I. financing on SANDEL DRIVE in the Broadmoor section: 1278 sq. feet of living area fairly crammed with unusual features . . . . There are 3 spacious bedrooms and a den; living room has wall-to-wall carpeting and a Roman brick fireplace wall; there's central heat; it's of SOLID BRICK construction with a lifetime crushed marble roof; and it's on a corner lot. Total price is $16,200 and will show anytime!

100% G. I.

THE FHA value is $8500 but the selling price is only $8660 and you can pay the closing costs and move into the best buy in West Monroe at 308 RIVERBEND DRIVE . . . and boy, whata' home! First of all it's on a 100' frontage lot with these features among the 1019 sq. feet: (2) bedrooms with roomy closets; large living room with separate dining room; it's only 3 years old; and the kitchen is a perfect delight. Drive by for a look and if you like the outside, we'll be more than glad to show you the inside.

SORRY!

WHEN this one's gone, there just won't be anymore . . . for NORTHSIDE homes this reasonably priced and this young just don't happen very often . . . so call today to look at 1511 N. 7th and it's many distinguished features! First of all it's priced at only $10,700 and that buys all the following: (5) rooms with (2) larger than usual bedrooms, a well - proportioned living room and a separate dining room; it's on a corner lot in a choice neighborhood; and it also has a side screened porch and a garage. We'll be "tickled pink" to show you this one today!

100% G. I.

ONLY $300 Closing costs with monthly notes of less than $45 buys a heck-of-a-lot of home in an established neighborhood at 307 GEORGIA ST. It's a roomy (2) bedroom home with 936 sq. feet of living area, including among is copper plumbing; washer plumbing; nice oak floors; roomy kitchen and other wanted features. It's a steal at only $7000, so you'd better call today.

SCOTCHMAN'S DELIGHT!

IT'S that and how for it's appraised for $7500 by the FHA and selling for only $6900 with only $900 down and monthly notes of less than $45. Plus being in an excellent neighborhood with paved streets, curbs and gutters . . . it's a roomy containing 1036 sq. feet of living area with these livable features: 2 bedrooms; large living room with real fireplace and there's a separate dining room. It also has a new 30 gal. heater; attic fan and floor furnace; kitchen has tile counter tops and splashboard and it has a delightful fenced backyard. The location is 103 GRAYLING LANE and it's vacant. Call for a "peep" today!

WE'RE EXPECTING . . .

. . . your call to let us take you to see this 6 months old young'un that has more than it's share of comfortable ideas! It's on an 80'x195' corner lot; it's more than adequately heated with (4) wall heaters; there's a 42" attic fan (3) bedrooms; washer plumbing and carport; it has a 40 gallon water heater; unusual cabinet space; it's only four blocks to Claiborne grammar school and the bath has a shower. $1353 down turns the key and it's on BLAIR ST. off Hwy. 80 in Butler's Addition. Wanta' look today?

DOWN AMONG the sheltering palms . . . except in this case, it's the sheltering pine trees, for at 105 STIX STREET in West Monroe that's exactly what you'll find. A nice three bedroom home with a separate dining room (something out of the ordinary these days). $375 is absolutely all it takes to make it yours! A few more details? O. K.! Nice oak floors; store room in back of double carport; floor furnace; 42" attic fan; washer plumbing; stovehood; and more; and more. If you're in the market . . . you'll want to see . . . and buy this! Call now.

HOW MANY KIDS . .

do you have? Not enough closet space? Only one bathroom? If this is your case, stop pulling your hair out and read on further! On a nice corner lot in West Monroe (322 STEWART) there's a home to take care of your needs!! This three bedroom home is loaded with features with you and your family in mind; the hall is lined with floor to ceiling closets and cabinets; nice screened in back porch (perfect for the kiddies); carport with storeroom; a bathroom and a half bathroom; and can you imagine . . . this home is selling for $10,500 . . . and $1,300 gives you the key to open this door for your family! Call us now . . . we'll be glad to take the whole family out for their approval!

100% G. I.

When you see this home . . . you'll want to sign the papers then and there to make it yours! Drive by 4103 Lee Courts and see if you don't agree with us . . . then call and we'll show you the inside, (which is really a treat!) Among the features galore (beside the fact that it is on a 120 foot frontage) you'll find: natural woodwork; nice large kitchen with roomy breakfast area and loads of cabinet space; Payne forced air unit; bedrooms have closets with lights; washer plumbing on screened back porch; storage room in garage; 36" automatic shutter fan. Pay the closing costs of just $350 and start moving in! This is a "for sure" good buy . . . for it's selling for $1,250 less than the VA appraisal! There's no doubt about it . . . we're expecting your call.

WAY OUT . . .

(but not too far out) from the noises of the city . . . you'll find your "dream" home. Take a spin out to see it . . . It's on RESTFUL HOME ROAD (right off White's Ferry Road). The rooms are nice and large (let us quote a few sizes here . . . living room 13x22; dining area 9x12; den 9x23; bedroom 12x13; bedroom 13x15 (both bedrooms have built-in double closets); breakfast area 8x15.) No kidding . . . this is a dream of a house. There's a disappearing stair to the attic in the garage; metal overhead door in garage; a sliding door separates the kitchen and garage; natural woodwork; central heating; tension joint windows; aluminum screens; 48" attic fan; and, there's a neat attractive chicken house in the back yard. You'll want to see this "sunny" home and if you call us, I'm sure it can be arranged.

IT'S TWINS!

AND they're looking for families! It's really a shame to leave them there (506x510 CRYER . . . right across the street from Millsaps school and one block from the new high school) for they really are cute. They're brand spanking new . . . and won't cost much to own one . . . pay $700 down and then you pay rent until the rest of the down payment is made. Main attractions are: concrete carport; three nice size bedrooms; two storerooms; nice closet space; asphalt tile floors; metal venetian blinds to match each room; and by, the way, we think the price is right . . . it's $10,770. Go by and see if you agree!

ON THE WAGON?

WELL . . . If it's covered and cramped and you're thinkin' of moving . . . how's this? A year old youngster on ESSEX ST. in Marie Place with the following features among it's 1150 sq feet: there are (2) roomy bedrooms and a pine-paneled den (all with sliding door closets); central heat; it's air conditioned; there are glistening hardwood block floors throughout; tile bath with shower; fenced back yard and other modern features! Pay only the closing costs ($400) on a 100 per cent G.I. loan and make this exciting move.

"A Community For Better Living"

Business Picture Mixed; Construction Booms, But Retail Trade Badly Off

By WALTER BREEDE JR.

NEW YORK (AP) — Good news about jobs, stock prices, building activity and corporate earnings offset less cheerful developments this week in retail trade, coal mining and steel production.

The Commerce and Labor Departments reported the first month-to-month dip in unemployment since October. The number of jobless in April was 3,465,000—down 260,000 from the March unemployment figure of 3,725,000. The number of people holding steady jobs climbed nearly half a million to 60,598,000.

The week brought fresh evidence of a continuing boom in new construction. Volume of heavy engineering contract awards was nearly 494 million dollars—up 100 per cent from the previous week and 50 per cent higher than in the same week last year. F. W. Dodge Corp. said its forthcoming tally of building contract awards for the first four months this year, representing all types of construction, will set an all-time record.

The bull market in stocks continued, with the Associated Press 60-stock average thrusting repeatedly to new 24-year highs. An Associated Press compilation of first quarter earnings reports showed total profits of more than 600 major corporations a mere three-tenths of one per cent behind the boom levels of 1953. The New York Stock Exchange announced that first quarter dividends paid by companies whose stocks are listed totaled a record 1½ billion dollars; Chrysler Corp. declared its 11th consecutive quarterly dividend of $1.50 a share.

On the bearish side, the federal reserve bank of Chicago said the spring season "has yet to bring forth any clear signals of halt in the downdrift of business."

"Generally speaking," said the bank, "in most areas of the economy which experience a spring resurgence of activity, the pickup this year is smaller than usual, and in those lines for which spring is the slow season, the letdown this year is greater than last. The slower pace of business is being reflected in the credit markets. Net private borrowing demands are smaller."

Retail merchants couldn't match the volume of the previous week, not to mention year-ago business. Dun & Bradstreet said dollar volume of consumer spending ranged from 3 to 7 per cent below the same week last year. Merchants put their major selling effort into May white sales and Mother's Day promotions but results were below expectations.

Retail sales of new automobiles were substantially under the high levels of a year ago and slightly below the previous week. Used car sales continued to show improvement.

On the production front, early estimates indicated that the week's output of passenger cars would set an eight-month record, but the figures were revised downward after operations at Chrysler Corp. were slowed by a labor dispute.

Studebaker announced plans for another one-week shutdown at its South Bend, Ind., plant to keep production in line with inventories but Chevrolet, Ford and Buick stepped on the gas and rolled out 63 per cent of the week's production of 122,431 passenger cars. Plymouth, traditionally the industry's No. 3 producer, dropped into fifth place behind Buick and Oldsmobile while Chevrolet and Ford slugged it out for the top spot, with Chevvy holding a slight edge. Between them, the two leaders produced nearly a million cars in the first four months this year. Ford's output was up 40 per cent over the January-April period of 1953.

Scheduled steel production dipped to 1,604,000 tons vs. 1,637,000 the previous week and 2,259,000 a year earlier. Trade sources said new orders should pick up soon because warehouse inventories are depleted. The CIO United Steel Workers Union drafted wage and other contract demands for presentation to the steel companies later this month. Great Lakes ore boats in the week ended May 3 carried less than half as much iron ore as in the same week of 1953. In Washington, the Office of Defense Mobilization said the military and the Atomic Energy Commission will take 42 per cent less steel in the three months starting July 1 than in the current quarter.

Anthracite mining in Pennsylvania's Panther Creek Valle came to a halt when Lehigh Navigation Coal Co. ordered an "indefinite" shutdown of operations. The company cited excessive operating losses.

Railroad freight carloadings, at their highest point since Dec. 12, were still a good 17 per cent under last year. The Assn. of American Railroads said first quarter profits of major carriers have been averaging 50 per cent less than last year.

There were further indications that the inventory adjustment which has been held to be the prime cause of the nine-month business downturn still may have some distance to go. The Commerce Department reported a 744-million-dollar rise in business inventories for March. That brought the total to more than 81 billion dollars—a gain of 1.6 billion over March 1953.

J. S. Clark School Plans Musicale, M'Kennel Play

The J. S. Clark Elementary school's Dramatic Guild will present under direction of Harold Dunning, "The Bishop's Candlesticks" by Norman McKennel, at 8 p.m. Monday in the school auditorium.

This is a truly great play that is founded on an incident in Victor Hugo's novel, "Les Miserables."

Directed by Mrs. Etta B. Johnson and Mrs. Ella Smith, the same schools' fifty voice choir will be presented in a "Musicale," Sunday, May 16 at 3 p.m. in the school auditorium.

There will also be a display exhibits of classroom activities.

The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. James Poole Chairman Of Club Activities

Organized sports for the women of Oak Ridge will be encouraged by members of the Caddoan Club during the summer months. Mrs. James Poole was named to the chairmanship of this feature at the regular monthly meeting Monday night.

The program, which concluded the years study of the home, included talks on Equipping the Home, by Mrs. Jack Carey; Mother as Health Coordinator, by Mrs. W. M. Nolan; and Recreation in the Family by Mrs. Joe Cabuck. The roll call picture table held pictures of household labor savers.

The business session, presided by vice-president, Mrs. W. A. Shaw, was filled with many matters, since the club had concluded its first regular year of activity and was ready to adopt or change policies. An unlimited membership was favored for the new year. The limit has been twenty. The year books will be made commercially, with the exception of the covers. The 1954 year books were done entirely by members.

The meeting was held in Community Hall of the Masonic Building. In token of appreciation of the use of the facilities which had been furnished by the Pierian Club, the Caddoans decided to meet on Tuesday afternoon for a complete cleaning of the hall.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Will Rolfe and Mrs. John Day. Members present — Mrs. W. A. Shaw, Mrs. J. E. Files, Mrs. H. E. Stevenson, Mrs. S. L. Parks, Mrs. Sam Williams, Mrs. Clarke Williams, Mrs. Joe Cabuck, Mrs. W. M. Nolan, Mrs. G. L. Greene, Mrs. Jack Carey, Mrs. James Poole and Mrs. R. M. Kennedy, and one guest Miss Nadine Davis of Sprinfield, Mo.

Annual Garden Pilgrimage Will Be Held Monday

"Bayou Garden Pilgrimage and Tea" — The Monroe Garden Club's annual garden pilgrimage will be held Monday, May 1, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Four beautiful Bayou Gardens are to be visited. The first garden is that of Mrs. N. G. Gaston, with Mrs. J. C. Ernest's garden as the second and Mrs. H. A. Mouk's garden listed third. The last garden on the schedule is Mrs. C. C. Whittelsey's, where the tea is to be held.

The pilgrimage is for members of the Monroe Garden Club, with all members of the Town and Country Garden Club and the Patio Garden Club as the only invited guests.

Add a bit of rosemary to snap beans when you are cooking them for extra flavor.

MISS MARTHA WILLIAMS, soloist, will sing in "Spring Serenade" when Mrs. Estelle Schulze Sanders presents her students in a recital on Monday evening at 8:15 p.m. at Neville High School. Each year Mrs. Sanders selects a worthy organization, as a benefit, and this year the Salvation Army was chosen.

Music Guild Honors Natl. Music Week

One of the nicest events held in honor of National Music Week was an open program given by the Music Guild in the Fine Arts Building of the Northeast State College Monday night followed by a lovely tea in the home of Mrs. C. L. Dillingham.

Members of the guild enjoyed the occasion with many music lovers as their guests. Mrs. B. B. Martin gave an interesting text on American music and said in part that music has changed greatly in the twentieth century due to the change of pace in modern living. With the invention of the automobile, moving pictures, radio, television and the electronic reproduction of sound, music of all types is heard in every home and the individual has the ability to choose the type that pleases him most, therefore there is a greater knowledge and appreciation of music than ever before. Modern composers do not look nor act like composers and need no longer live in poverty as most of them do not earn their living as composers but gain their livelihood from recordings, directing music, giving concerts, teaching, etc. There are many more composers who come from all parts of the country and all walks of life and the great number indicates a creative activity in music seen now as never before.

Numbers presented on the program were chosen from American composers. Mrs. D. N. White sang Go Way From My Window by Niles; Mrs. Williams presented two of her piano students, Patricia Smith, who played Night Song by Gould and Diane Smith, who played Piano Etude by Kabelovsky. Mrs. R. W. Cretney sang My Menagerie by Faye Foster. Whispering by Rose was presented by Mrs. Cecil Hill, Mrs. B. B. Martin and Mrs. Wilbur Bullock. Mrs. J. Norman Coon sang Do Not Go My Love by Hagman and When I Bring You Colour'd Toys by Carpenter. Mrs. Wilbur Bullock and Mrs. Willys Hopkins played a Piano Sonata for two pianos written in 1942 by Hindemith. Mrs. J. Norman Coon, Mrs. R. W. Cretney and Mrs. Wilbur Bullock sang the Night Has a Thousand Eyes by Cain.

The choral ensemble directed by Mrs. Wilbur Bullock and accompanied by Mrs. Willys Hopkins sang the following group of numbers: To a Wild Rose and Thy Beaming Eyes by MacDowell, Beside Still Waters by Hamblen, Of What Use Is a Girl by Crist, and No Parking by Freed. Members of the ensemble who sang were Mrs. Cecil Hill, Mrs. Morris Miller, Mrs. Paul Newman, Mrs. Leon C. Noland, Jr., Mrs. J. M. Shipp, Mrs. J. Norman Coon, Mrs. R. W. Cretney, and Mrs. B. B. Martin. The room was lovely with baskets of spring flowers placed about.

Mrs. Dillingham assisted by Mrs. Shipp Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Coon, invited members and guests to the lovely Dillingham home where they served refreshments. Mrs. Shipp presided at the punch bowl which was placed at one end of a lovely lace covered table. The center piece was a lovely arrangement of roses that held a dainty music box which delighted the guests with gay tunes. Long green tapers completed the centerpiece and were also found with arrangements of roses enhancing other parts of the room. Hostesses passed among the guests with a delicious assortment of sandwiches and small cakes that were cleverly decorated with a music staff.

Joe Biedenharn Portrait Presented To Museum

Of widespread interest to friends of the late Mr. Joe Biedenharn will be the presentation of his portrait by the Biedenharn family to the Vicksburg Historical Society at 3 p.m. Tuesday in Vicksburg.

The presentation will be made by Miss Emy-Lou Biedenharn, and Henry Biedenharn III will unveil the picture.

The painting will hang in the old Court House Museum.

The director of the Vicksburg Historical Society which operates the museum requested the portrait of Mr. Biedenharn since Vicksburg was his early childhood home.

The presentation program will be held in the old court room of the museum and will be followed by a reception with hostesses of the historical society dressed in ante-bellum costumes.

Rev. Seth Granberry will give the invocation which will be followed by a solo program of music by Mrs. Norman Doughty.

Mr. John Brenine, a former classmate of the late Mr. Biedenharn, will give a brief talk and afterwards Miss Emy Lou Biedenharn will present the portrait.

The unveiling will follow with Historical Society, receiving it.

A musical program and reception in the old court house will be held immediately after the ceremony.

All friends of the Biedenharn family are welcome to attend the presentation and reception.

Siddon-Neal

FERRIDAY — Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Neal of Ferriday announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Rowena, to Sam D. Siddon, son of Mrs. W. S. Siddon, of Ferriday, and Mrs. Neva Smith of Barger, Tex.

Miss Neal and Mr. Siddon are graduates of the 1952 class of the Ferriday High school. The time and place of the wedding will be announced at a later date.

Wipe greasy pots and pans with a paper towel before putting in sink or dishpan to wash. Saves grease from going down the drain!

Purely Personal

Dr. and Mrs. William Kirt of Baton Rouge arrived in Monroe on Friday for the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Smith. Informal parties were planned for each day. They will return to Baton Rouge tonight after spending the day on the river, aboard the "Sailor".

Mrs. Robert Boswell of Bristol, Va., surprised her sister, Mrs. Estelle Sanders, and arrived Thursday to be present for the "Spring Serenade" recital on Monday evening.

Leaving Friday for the Crushers convention in Houston, Tex., were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sherrouse and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wallace.

Mrs. Walter Kellogg and Mrs. George Miller are in Birmingham, Ala., this week end playing in the Woman's Southern championship golf tournament.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Adams are attending the Southern States Chiropractic convention in Jackson, Miss., this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Moore, Jr., will leave this week for New Orleans where Mr. Moore will attend the state C. P. A. convention; en route they will visit friends in Baton Rouge. Before returning home they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glusman in Pass Christian, Miss.

Mrs. George Trousdale is in New Orleans, where she will participate in the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Kappa Kappa Gamma chapter at Newcomb College.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerold Olcott had as their guests this week, Mrs. Olcott's aunt, Mrs. Z. T. Stone of Pine Bluff, Ark., and Mrs. D. H. Rogers also of Pine Bluff. On Friday morning they were entertained in the Olcott home with Mrs. J. F. stone co-hostess, at a coffee party. About thirty-five guests called. Mrs. H. B. Cannon and Mrs. Leon Sutton also complimented them before their return on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Slade Brown, Mrs. John Brown and daughter, Sue, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown are attending the opera in Dallas, Tex., this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dugas of Donaldsonville are the weekend guests of their daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downing.

Dr. and Mrs. Burg Waddill of Baton Rouge were house guests of their daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ransom, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Guerriero have returned from Biloxi, Miss., where they attended the Louisiana State Bar Association convention. They were guests at the Buena Vista Hotel while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Ethridge announce the birth of their daughter, Charlotte on Wednesday evening, May 5 at the St. Francis sanitarium.

Mrs. J. F. Jones and Mrs. Bell Brown have returned from Natchez Miss, where they attended the funeral of Mr. John King on Thursday.

Mrs. Eloise Stanhope and son, David, spent the Mother's Day week - end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Calhoun in Mineral Springs, Ark.

Mrs. D. R. Sartor and Miss Freeda Mickel will motor to DeRidder for the week end. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Sartor. While there, Mrs. Sartor will exhibit her water color sketches for the DeRidder Study Club in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Crosby. Following the exhibit they will be guests of honor at a barbecue. They will also be entertained at a coffee in the home of Mrs. Brent Seal.

Literary Guild Will Sponsor Junior Club

The Literary Guild met for lunch at the Lotus Club for their May meeting. This year will be the twenty-fifth anniversary of The Literary Guild. The May meeting was an unusually happy one as the daughters and daughters-in-law of the club members met with them with the purpose of organizing a junior club to be sponsored by The Literary Guild.

Two unusually good reviews were given by Mrs. Duncan Cook and Mrs. Dewitt Milam. Mrs. Cook reviewed "Desiree" by Salenko and Mrs. Milam "Living in Today's World" by Agnes David Kim.

After the program coffee and cookies were served. The hostesses for May were Mrs. Richard Hale and Mrs. Clifford U. Johnson.

Members and guests present were: Mrs. Milling Bernstein, Herbert Breard, Duncan Cook, J. G. Durrett, N. G. Gaston, Richard Hale, E. D. Holloway, Clifford Johnson, J. B. Important for MOTHERS-TO-BE

Millions of expectant mothers consider time-tested Mother's Friend an important aid to comfort and ease during pregnancy. Simply rub or gently massage Mother's Friend onto the abdomen—helps relieve the pain and discomfort of tight, dry, stretched skin. Mother's Friend can also aid in keeping skin smooth and supple after baby comes. Relieves aching back and leg muscles, too. For Expectant Mothers

ROAMIN' IN THE RURAL

—With Euna Spielman

Members Celebrate National H. D. Week

During this past week, thousands of rural farm and non-farm women, proud of their home life and communities in which they live, celebrated National Home Demonstration Week. The women brought out the fact that home demonstration work has helped millions of women, particularly in rural areas, lead a richer, fuller life. Through home demonstration work, rural women are offered many opportunities to pool their efforts, work together, and become more informed on many subjects that lead to finer home life, wider community service and greater world understanding.

A farm woman who was asked if the home demonstration program met the needs of the farm women gave this answer, "Times have been when a farm woman was picked out in a crowd by her tired, haggard look, her red calloused hands, her poorly fitted clothes, and her timid manner. But this is not true today. Our farm women are as well dressed and groomed, can preside over a meeting with as much poise and parliamentary precision as their city neighbors. We still make our clothes, but we have learned how in home demonstration work. Our farm homes are as modern as the city home. Our families are as well fed for we study nutrition in our clubs. We, who are in the business of research for better things for better living, have a deep appreciation of our home demonstration program as it is bringing these latest developments in research to us."

One of the highlights of the week's celebration was a tea at the home of Mrs. A. T. Stout, May 7th. The retired Home Demonstration agent, Mrs. Jewel McQuiller, and the past presidents of the Ouachita Home Demonstration Council received recognition for their contribution to the home demonstration program. The past presidents are: Mrs. J. B. Filhoil, Sr., Logtown Club; Mrs. Alma Hale, Liberty; Mrs. C. R. Alexander, Sterlington; Mrs. E. W. Earl, Colony; Mrs. C. B. Hammett, Swartz Club; Mrs. Robert Cann, Logtown; Mrs. T. G. Johnson, Swartz; Mrs. J. S. Sims, Liberty; Mrs. Hilton Owens, Cypress; and Mrs. J. R. Frantom, Claiborne. Mrs. A. T. Stout, Logtown is the present president.

Other special guests attending this celebration were: Mrs. Monroe McIntyre, Franklin Parish president of state council; Mrs. C. T. Deloach, Richland Parish, state treasurer; and Mrs. Ada Hanchey, Home Demonstration agent of Franklin Parish.

State Home Demonstration Council Meeting At L. S. U.

Ouachita Parish will have its full quota of representatives attending the state council meeting May 10-12. Mrs. A. T. Stout, president of Ouachita Council, Mrs. Loyd Coon, general director, Mrs. Fred Riser, president-elect for 1955-56, Mrs. Ouida Jones, Claiborne Club member, will attend this conference. Mrs. Stout is chairman of the state citizenship committee. The home demonstration agent will also attend the state meeting.

Important Dates

House furnishing leaders, are you ready to learn to refinish furnitureu Mrs. Jessie Hill, L. S. U. specialist, will give you this training May 13th at 9:30 a.m. Bring your piece of furniture, sandpaper, an old cloth, and paint brush to this meeting. (Be sure to wear an old dress).

Council Meeting

May 15th is council meeting. The program is full of interesting features: Turn in written report on National Home Demonstration Week activities, paying $5 for short course transportation, discussion on plans for curb market, and demonstration on mass feeding by the Civil Defense Organization. This is a good time to bring a guest to the meeting.

Girl Scout News

The Girl Scouts today join with the rest of you in a tribute to Mother, on her day. Among the other unselfish and wonderful things Mother does is to serve as leader of a Girl Scout troop, or on the troop committee, on day camp staff, and in other ways.

This afternoon Troop 21 is giving a tea for their mothers at the Benoit home on Jackson. The girls are prepared to honor Mother, not only by entertaining, but by presenting her with a gift made by her own daughter's hands. As we said before, we've heard of a lot of Mother's Day plans that we can't tell until afterward.

In some parts of the country the first robin is the sign of spring, or the first crocus, or whatever. In Girl Scouting, sure signs of summer are camp registrations. The honor of being first to register for day camp in July goes to Heidi Rowan of Troop 18 and Donna Lee Wirick of Troop 1, both Brownie Scouts of Sherrouse School. Come on, the rest of you parents and include day camp in summer plans for your child.

For the first time day camp will be held at our own camp, Pine Wood, over in Union Parish. The committee thinks there is room enough and shade enough now to make the site suitable for units. Camp will be for eight days, July 13-22, and will be open to girls who next fall will be in the third grade or higher. After June 1, registrations will be open to all girls of that age, whether Scouts or not.

Troop 23 weathered storms and rains of the week end, remaining at Pine Wood from Friday afternoon until Sunday afternoon. The girls had a good time, of course, but weather did not permit hiking or much else out of doors. The girls claim to be real pioneers after cooking breakfast on the fireplace when the electricity went off Saturday. No lights or cooking fuel and very little water, because, of course, the pump couldn't function, caused the girls to go back to an earlier age of hanging the cocoa pot on a crane over the fire and learning to light and care for a kerosene lamp.

Mrs. R. W. Hofler and Mrs. Theo Herr are leaders of the troop, made up of sixth graders at St. Matthew's. The following girls went on the camping trip: Jolene Buttitta, Rose Ann Cascio, Adeline Elias, Fay Farraci, Kay Farraci, Henrietta Henderson, Carolyn Herr, Veronica Hervey, Jo Ellington Scroggs, and Judy Williams We think leaders and girls proved themselves real Scouts. In spite of having to leave in the rain, they left everything ship shape at camp, we find.

Bayou DeSiard Garden Club Holds May Flower Show

"The Merry Month Of May" was the theme of the Bayou DeSiard Flower Show held Wednesday, May 5th, at the Fellowship Hall of the College Place Baptist Church. Members of College Heights Garden Club and Sprigs and Twigs Garden Club were invited to participate in the arrangement and horticulture divisions.

Shrubs and flowering plants decorating the entrance to the show were furnished by a local nursery.

Guests were welcomed by Mrs. R. D. Farr, Jr., president, Mrs. J. H. Huffman, chairman, Mrs. H. W. Tolson, co-chairman, and hostesses, Mrs. Jack Rushing, Mrs. R. T. Farr, and Mrs. W. G. Miller.

Judges were Mrs. C. E. McKenzie and Mrs. C. C. Lucky. Tri-color award in the arrangement division was won by Mrs. G. W. Joyce Wells, Vernon Martin Pledge Troth

The First Baptist Church in Wisner was the setting last Saturday evening for the ceremony in which Miss Joyce Wells became the bride of Mr. Vernon Martin.

The double ring ceremony was read by the bride's father, the Rev. Mark A. Wells, pastor of the First Baptist Church. She was given in marriage by her grandfather, Rev. A. C. Wells of Sulphur Springs, Tex.

Miss Betty McGlanery of Dallas was maid of honor. Mr. Bobby Martin, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Nelda Martin accompanied by Sue Ann Kiper presented the nuptial music and sang "Always."

The bride was lovely in a white satin ballerina dress with her veil of illusion caught to a tiara of pearls.

Paul Morgan and Rupert Scott of Wisner were ushers. Becky Clark and Jane Warner lighted the candles.

The bride's table at the reception in the recreation room of the church was covered with a white linen cloth and held a three tiered cake. The corners of the table held nosegays of pink tulle and magnolia connected with swags of evergreen draped from the corners to the edge of the cloth.

The bride's going away suit was of navy linen with white accessories.

The bride carried a white orchid.

Wayne Gray, Mrs. Wayne Gray, Mrs. W. T. Davis, Mrs. H.D. Touchstone, Mrs. C. P. Gray, Jr., and the hostess, Mrs. Turpin.

MISS DOROTHY SEEGERS

Miss Seegers Is Betrothed

Of interest to friends in this section of the state is the announcement made by the Reverend and Mrs. Sidney A. Seegers, of Mooringsport, of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. E. W. Williams, of Junction City, Ark., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Williams, also of Junction City. The wedding will be solemnized on Saturday, May twentyninth, at six o'clock in the evening, in the Methodist Church in Mooringsport, with the bride's father, the Rev. Mr. Seegers officiating.

Miss Seegers has asked Miss Peggy Robison, of Shreveport, to be her maid of honor, and her flower girl will be little Miss Emily Seegers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Seegers, Jr., of Monroe. Mr. Willams will have his brother, Mr. Lavelle Williams, of Junction City, as best man.

Miss Seegers is a graduate of the Columbia High School, and received her B. A. and B. S. degrees, in home economics from the Louisiana Polytechnic Institute last June. She was a member of Beta Sigma Omicron, social sorority, and of the Blue Jackets. She is now a member of the faculty of the Junction City High School.

Mr. Williams attended the Junction City High School, and is presently connected with the Arkansas Power and Light Co. in El Dorado. The young couple will live in Junction City until Mr. Williams reports for service in the armed forces.

MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE TILLMAN KIRTON

Betty Sue Scott Becomes Bride Of Clarence Kirton

The marriage of Miss Betty Sue Scott, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Abner Roger Scott, to Clarence Tillman Kirton, son of Mrs. Elon Kirton and the late George T. Kirton of Pensacola, Florida, was solemnized April 16 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Christian Church, with Reverend R. T. Watson performing the ceremony.

Baskets of gladioli and white roses and seven branched candelabra with white tapers, decorated the church. Mrs. Robert V. Wroten organist, played the nuptial music, before the ceremony. Mr. Jennings Wilkins sang "Through the Years," "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding suit of white linen with matching accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a white bearded iris.

Julius Ray Dean served as best man and William Thomas Lee and Bobby Joe Wallace were the ushers. Miss Vonnette Austin registered the guests as they entered.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Scott chose a dress of sheer navy trimmed with pink. Mrs. Kirton wore a powder blue suit and both had corsages of baby orchids.

After a honeymoon in Vicksburg, Miss. the couple are at home at 4210 DeSlard. Mrs. Kirton is a graduate of Louisiana Tech and Mr. Kirton is a student at Northeast State College.

Mrs. Ora Thornton of Pensacola, Fla., was an out-of-town guest at the wedding.

MRS. THOMAS O. ROAN, the former Nelda Nolan was married April 10. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nolan of Calhoun. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. T. J. Roan and the late Mr. Roan, also of Calhoun.

Don't discard the wing tips, giblets or neck of a chicken. Use them to make chicken broth for use as a soup or in a sauce. Cover the chicken parts with a couple of cups of water and add a small onion, a few celery leaves and parsley sprigs, a small carrot, a bay leaf, salt and peppercorns.

"Best Seller" for 3 good reasons

Buick now outsells all other cars in its price class and above

YOU'VE probably noticed it right in your own neighborhood.

Bright new Buicks appearing here, there, everywhere. And more and more of them in recent weeks.

Know what's happening?

Folks in growing numbers—(and maybe you'll be joining them soon!)—are finding Buick styling, performance and value far too wonderful to pass up.

So Buick is selling at a record pace—outselling all other cars in its price class and above.

Matter of fact, latest figures for the first quarter of 1954 show that, in total national volume, Buick is outselling every other car in America except two of the so-called "low-price three."

A look and a ride and a peek at the price tag will be all you'll need to know what's back of this best-selling success.

There's styling in Buick that's the greatest beauty advance in years—the very look of tomorrow—and with the spectacular panoramic windshield that's part and parcel of this dream-car look.

There's performance in Buick as never before—with record-high V8 power, with the sensationally smooth whip of Twin-Turbine Dynaflow,* with the buoyant ride of all-coil-springing, with a new precision of control and handling.

And there's value in Buick that's hard to match—with prices starting near the "low-price three"—prices that buy more Buick beauty and power and thrill and sheer automobile than smart money ever bought before.

How about you?

Are you ready, willing and waiting to be shown that this best seller called Buick is the buy of the year for you, too? Drop in this week, or give us a call, and we'll arrange a demonstration.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

MISS JANE BRADY'S engagement and approaching marriage to Joe Coats, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Coats of Covington, Tenn., is announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Brady of Swartz.

Shell Family Holds Reunion

A family reunion was held April 25, in the home of Allan L. Shell, honoring his 73rd birthday. His seven children with twenty-five grandchildren and three great grandchildren were present.

Lunch was served outside and many pictures were taken of the group which had not been together for several years.

With Mr. and Mrs. Shell were, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Brumfield and children, Stanley, Barbara and Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Russell and children, Betty, Gwen, Kent, Ronnie Bill, Sissy and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Russell, daughter Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Russell and children, Stacy and Stevie, all from Orange, Tex.

Also Sgt. and Mrs. Lovelle Russell, of Ft. Campbell, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Garland Shell, Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Shell and children, James and Lillie Mae, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Shell, children, Dickie and Jan, all of West Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Shell and John Allon, Yvonne, Linda Jo and Terry of Satsuma, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jacobs and sons, Paul Dwoyne, David and Dwight of Chatham.

Besides the immediate family, other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Russell and family of West Monroe, Rev. J. G. Garrett and Mrs. Fannie Herd, Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rolen, Sikes, and Mr. and Mrs. Everage Lewis and family of Eros.

When you are making a one-crust pie, make sure you prick the bottom and sides of the pastry shell thoroughly before you bake it. Pricking the dough will let steam escape and help the shell to keep its shape. Be sure to cool the shell before adding the filling.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES W. MILLER

Miller-Shipman Vows Are Pledged In Baskin Church

Miss Nadine Shipman, daughter of Mrs. J. E. Shipman and the late Mr. Shipman of Baskin, became the bride of Charles W. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Miller of Baskin in an impressive double ring ceremony performed at the Methodist Church in Baskin by the Rev. Bengston of Winnsboro and Rev. Merritt of Baskin.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and white stock with cathedral tapers in branched candelabra on each side. The sides of the arch were entwined in ivy with sprays of mock orange.

Miss Emma June Anderson, cousin of the bride, presented nuptial music and accompanied Miss Jean Marie Brocato of Gilbert who sang "I Love You Truly."

The candles were lighted by Mr. Billy Miller and Mr. Cecil Miller, brothers of the groom, who also served as groomsmen.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. James Shipman, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of white satin with the bodice of chantilly lace with scolloped neck and white satin fitted sleeves which came to points over the wrist. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a crown of orange blossoms.

Mrs. J. T. Tims, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in an ankle - length pink antique shantung with scalloped neckline outlined in seed pearls. Her headdress was a bandeau of white mock orange blossoms. She carried a nosegay of pink and blue shasta daisies.

Mrs. James Broadway of Gilbert and Mrs. Tommy Wilson of Monroe served as bridesmaids and were dressed in blue, identical with the maid of honor.

Mr. Miller served his son as best man.

Cheryl Robinson of Ferriday, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a blue organdy model with ruffled waltz-length skirt and pink roses around the neck. She carried a basket of sweetheart roses.

Hugh Marlette of Rayville, also a cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion a navy linen with matching accessories and pink carnations.

Mrs. Miller, the bridegroom's mother, was wearing a beige printed silk with matching accessories and white carnations.

Miss Kathlyn Goforth presided at the bride's register.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride.

Assisting with the courtesies at the reception were Mrs. R. E. Reagan of Baskin, Mrs. H. Watson of Crowville, Mrs, Roger Miller, Mrs. Wilson Miller, Mrs. H. L. Anderson of Winnsboro, Mrs. Dudley Odom and Miss Opal Brand of Baskin.

For a wedding trip to Florida and south Louisiana, the bride changed to a brown suit with brown accessories and the white orchid from her bouquet. They will make their home in Winnsboro.

The bride is a graduate of Northeast Louisiana State College, having majored in home economics. Mr. Miller graduated from Louisiana Tech where he received his degree in agriculture engineering.

DORIS ELAINE MORRIS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Lee Morris of Rayville, will wed James Gregory Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Malone of Crew Lake, on June 5. The wedding will be solemnized at the Start Baptist Church.

Nuptial Mass Unites Couple In Waterproof

Among the weddings of the early spring season was that of Miss Cora Elizabeth Durbin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lanius Durbin of Waterproof and Harry N. Theriot, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Theriot of Port Allen, which was solemnized at nuptial mass Saturday, May 1 at 10 o'clock with Rev. John P. Quinn officiating in a double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with ivy, Queen Annes Lace, stock, cluster mums and fern. The family pews were marked with white satin ribbons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace. The tight fitting bodice fastened to the waist with tiny matching buttons, had a stand-up collar and finger tip sleeves. The very bouffant ankle-length skirt was fashioned with insertions of nylon pleats around the center with a wide lace flounce completing the bottom. A crown of seed pearls and sequins held a short veil of illusion. She carried a white prayer book topped with a small bouquet of white carnations and a single white orchid.

Miss Florence Durbin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and another sister, Miss Lola Durbin was bridesmaid. They wore similar gowns of orchid embroidered nylon net with matching boleros, and small close fitting hats covered with tiny white flowers. Each carried a nosegay of yellow carnations.

Barbara Ann and Terry Marie Durbin, also sisters of the bride, acted as flower girls. They wore becoming frocks of pink embroidered net with wreaths of pink rose buds in their hair. They carried small baskets from which they scattered rose petals in the path of the bride.

The bridegroom had as his best man, Victor Rappolo and as groomsman, Allen Theriot, both of Baton Rouge. Ushers were Lee Rife, James O. Peace and Milton Theriot.

Miss Kay Gremillion, organist, played the nuptial music before the ceremony and accompanied Miss Kate Durbin who sang, "On This Day, Beautiful Mother" and "Mother At Your Feet Is Kneeling," and "O Lord I Am Unworthy."

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Decorating the reception room were arrangements of white carnations, delphiniums and stock. White and silver bells were suspended from the chandelier over the bride's table that was centered with white carnations, snap dragons and candytuft. A three tiered wedding cake was at one end of the table and at the opposite was the punch bowl, presided over by Miss Janet Oglesby and the sisters of the bride. Another sister, Mrs. Lee Rife, served the cake and Mrs. James Peace presided at the register.

Following the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon in Florida. Mrs. Theriot wore a brown cotton dress flecked with black. Her accessories were black. Her corsage was the orchid from her wedding bouquet. On their return they will be at home in Lake Charles.

Mrs. Theriot was graduated from the Waterproof High School and Mr. Theriot graduated from the Port Allen High School and Louisiana State University.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Tim Gremillion, Mr. and Mrs. S. Theriot, Port Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Theriot, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Theriot, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bourgeous, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rappolo, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scafidi, Mr. and Mrs. James Peace, of Baton Rouge, Miss Bernice Chancellor and Mandaret Thompson, Laurel, Miss., Mrs. Wealthy Thomas and Thompson Clarke of St. Joseph.

A dash of allspice is delicious in a tomato sauce. And some cooks like to add a suspicion of cinnamon, too. Or if you want to add herbs, rather than spice, to the sauce try dill, parsley or basil. If you use parsley be sure to add enough to give real flavor. A tomato sauce usually also benefits from a dash of sugar; the amount of sugar needed will depend on the acidity of the tomatoes.

EAST CARROLL PARISH

Home of Lake Providence and the Annual Miss Louisiana Beauty Pageant!

East Carroll parish is to be congratulated on having such a diversified field of recreation and is one of the richest parishes in Louisiana.

It has some of the most outstanding herds of beef and dairy cattle together with the other agricultural assets such as rice and cotton.

The financial condition of East Carroll parish has shown a consistent increase each year and at the same time a marked decrease in indebtedness.

The two local banks have combined resources of approximately $6,000,000.

Over and above these financial assets, the parish has a federal savings and loan asset of more than one and one half million dollars, and a farm loan bank of more than a half million dollars.

The town of Lake Providence is nationally known for its antebellum homes as well as the most modern architecture. The town is blessed with fine churches and schools. The finest farms to be found anywhere are located on well built farm to market, all weather roads.

East Carroll Is Garden Spot Of The Delta Area

By MAUDE VAN FOSSEN

As in the case of many other parishes, the contours of East Carroll have evolved through a number of transfers and divisions of jurisdiction. In a decree of 1722 the area was included by Bienville in a newly created district of New Orleans. In 1805 it was placed by the governor and council of the Territory of Orleans in the county of Ouachita. It was reassigned, however, by an Act of 1811, to Concordia county which was thereby extended to the Arkansas line between Bayou Macon and the Mississippi River; and by the same act it was immediately enclosed in a new parish, Warren, made largely from this northern extension.

However, in 1814, the first legislature of the state of Louisiana abolished Warren, and it's upper portion, including the now East Carroll area, was given back to the parish or county of Ouachita.

In 1832 the legislature carved from northeast Ouachita and north Concordia a new parish with the name of "Carroll," named in honor of Charles Carroll of Carrollton signer of the Declaration of Independence. Providence was the seat of government of Carroll Parish until 1855 when the honor passed to Floyd.

By Act 24, the legislature in 1877 ordered the parish divided into East and West Carroll, with Bayou Macon as the dividing line. Reasons for the division were as follows: Floyd, the parish seat, was 12 miles westward from the Mississippi River front, across Macon lowlands, which since the Civil War destruction of the levees in Arkansas in 1633 and owing to later breaks, were flooded for months every year and rendered almost impassable except by boat; and finally in the lawlessness of the war and reconstruction era guerrillas and bandits became a menace along the usual routes of traffic.

Providence was made the seat of government for East Carroll, whose boundaries since 1876 have remained unchanged except for some growing sandbars in the river, fronting the town.

Charter for the town is No. 88 in the state and issued by Gov. William P. Kellog; C. C. Antoine, lieutenant governor and president of the senate; C. D. Estilette, speaker of the House of Representatives, and N. Durand, assistant secretary of state.

First municipal officers, from minutes of July 3, 1876, were Edward J. Delony, mayor; D. L. Morgan, Charles R. Egelly, V. M. Purdy, James M. McGuire and Jason Hamilton, councilmen, met for organization at the first meeting place, law office of Montgomery and Delony. Town boundary was given as starting at a point on the west bank of the Mississippi River due east from lower line of dwelling of Alexander Armstrong (whose descendants still own the site); from thence westward so as to embrace his house and lot; thence from northeast corner of said lot on west side and westward along the line dividing the plantation of Ingram and Davis from the present town of Providence and the other lots and dwellings on the banks of the lake to the SW corner of the property of John Williams; thence northward to the margin of Lake "Providence"; thence eastward along the margin of said lake to a point on a line with the north side of the property of W. H. Blount (town's first marshal); thence east to the Mississippi River to place of beginning.

Romance, History

East Carroll is one of the most romantic and historic parishes of Louisiana, a garden spot of the Delta, having an area of 420 square miles and a population (1951) of approximately 18,000. It forms the northeastern corner of the state, being bounded by Arkansas on the north; the Mississippi River on the east; Bayou Macon on the west and Madison Parish on the south. It is basically a region of field and woodlands, drawing much of its prosperity from the land.

Still given to agriculture and agriculture processing much of its area is wooded, but is fast being cleared for pasture lands and drilling of oil wells. Its soil runs from sandy and clay loam to Wabash and Sharkey clay (buckshot). Adapted to diversified farming and capable of virtually any crop grown in the temperate zone, it produces at present livestock, cotton, corn, oats, rice, alfalfa, soybeans, singletary peas, clover, hay, vegetables and fruits.

Besides gins, warehouses, a compress, grain drier - cleaner-elevator and dairies, there are lumbering, sand and gravel and natural gas extraction industries.

Forests, lakes, bayous and river, parks and playgrounds offer excellent recreational facilities. Health and medical conditions are already at health resort level and a fine hospital is now being erected.

Taensas Indians

State history has it that the first settlers of East Carroll area were the Taensas (now spelled Tensas) tribe of Indians. It was visited in 1541 by DeSoto, and in 1682 by LaSalle. Proof of the Indians as inhabitants are several Indian mounds, consisting of piles of earth from 80 to 99 feet across and about 35 feet high, once used by Indians as refuges from overflows and as burial grounds for their chiefs.

The town of Providence (now Lake Providence) is said to have received its name when a boat and crew were lucky enough to pass the pirate Bunch and his crew, hidden in Old River facing the point of Bunch's Bend. They stopped here to offer prayer to Almighty Providence for their safe escape. Bunch, the pirate, preyed on river traffic, and the thrills of his early escapades give material for student essays on the early history of the parish.

Early Settlers

James Floyd (1803) seems to have been the first white settler in the parish, and his location seems to have been on the river front. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert (Harbird) Hood, from Kentucky, established here around 1805. Other early plantation owners were Larche, Dempsey, Chambliss and Browder with later entries made in the Transylvania area by W. M. Graham (1826), William B. Keene and George M. Newman (1830). Others to colonize early were the Delonys (first mayor of the town), Pilchers, Gilfoils, J. M. Patten, brother of Thomas Patten, who renovated and extended the house later to be named Arlington (ancestral home of Frank Voelker, judge of the sixth judicial district) and in the Bunch's Bend area were Richard S. Key, McAlpines, McCullough, Van Fossens and Barbers.

These early settlers enjoyed a mellow and spacious way of living, with each plantation having its "big house," where the owner, master of a number of slaves, lived with his family. Behind it was the servants' quarters, out - buildings, barns, stables and gins. Rows of cabins, usually alike, formed the slave quarters.

These grand homes of the parish, some of them still standing in good condition today, included Suave Terre, home of the Keenes, with its haunted chambers; Stamboul, notable for its splendid hand hewn cypress timbers; Homestead (Benjamin home) flanked by two cisterns; Concord, raised five feet from the ground as a protective measure against floods; Erin house, built by the Stowers, is of great distinction; Afton, named for the famed English river, was the home of the Keys since 1832, fronted with its hundred year old Boxwood hedge; Buckmeadow, featuring an immense length of gallery and one roof over all auxiliary buildings; Elder Grove, built by Col. T. L. Van Fossen, and housing the Napoleon House parlor suite of 16 pieces of hand carved rosewood; Gossypoia, built in 1856 and owned by the William Denis Brown family and heirs for the past 50 years.

Arlington, the most historic of them all, was headquarters for Generals McArthur, McPherson and Grant.

BEAUTIFUL LAKE PROVIDENCE —Fronting the town of Lake Providence the annual Miss Louisiana Beauty Pageant is held with the lake as a background for the affair which centers attention state wide each year on the parish seat of East Carroll parish.

Joseph E. Ransdell

The Hon. Joseph E. Ransdell, now 95, is the favorite son of East Carroll, as well as its most illustrious. His political record is long and useful. He was district attorney for 12 years, member of the house of representatives, from the fifth congressional district for 14 years; he was sworn into the senate where he served for 18 years, on March 4, 1913, and served until March 4, 1931.

He earned high honors, in which community, state and nation shared. For example, the act of 1906 to eradicate Texas fever in cattle; act of 1917 to create a national home for lepers at Carville; act of 1920 to establish, in Washington, D. C., the National Institute of Health for ascertainment of the cause, prevention and cure of diseases of human beings.

Adras Laborde of Alexandria, in his "Ransdell of Louisiana," gives a complete and interesting account of the life of "The Senator," as he is affectionately called, along with "Uncle Joe," by relatives and friends in East Carroll.

Education

With M. M. Walsworth, superintendent of education in East Carroll many progressive steps have been made in education and educational facilities. A $900,000 building program is now in progress. B. A. Bayles is parish supervisor and Mrs. Georgia Payne Pinkston, visiting teacher.

From the minutes of the school board of August 12, 1884 we read that W. S. Brown was superintendent, and ex - officio secretary; Charles M. Pilcher was temporary president, and E. C. Manning, W. D. Bell, B. F. Therrel, school directors. V. M. Purdy, parish treasurer was ex - officio treasurer of the school board funds, and Joseph E. Ransdell was their attorney. Early salaries for white teachers were $40 a month or $360 a school session, while today the average salary is $3,452.50 annually. The first budget was $1,156.88, and for 1954 it was $722,474.94.

Early records were of three schools for white children, in East Carroll, located in Lake Providence staffed by C. C. Miller, principal; Miss M. C. Keller, first assistant; Miss Dessie Bell, second assistant; Miss Maude Taylor and Mr. C. M. Beard, teachers. Transylvania, Miss Laura L. Stiles; and plantation school at Longwood plantation. Petition was filed that a school for white children (18 listed) be opened in wards four and five, and a township school in ward one (Sondheimer). For the Lake Providence school for Negroes, T. L. Galbreth was named principal and Beulah Burton, assistant. Prices submitted by local printer for carrying school board proceedings for the nine month school session, a fee of $50 was asked.

Today in the school faculties of the three schools for white children Lake Providence High, Monticello High, and Transylvania Junior high there is a faculty of 57 teachers, parish supervisor, visiting teacher, home bound teacher, school band, home economics, agriculture, commerce offered as special courses. A total of 22 buses are used to transport the children to the three schools for white and 19 schools for Negroes, with the East Carroll Parish Training School in Lake Providence, carrying the largest enrollment.

Prison Dist. No. 1

In 1926 the State Legislature passed Act No. 203 authorizing the organization of prison districts. The East Carroll Police Jury realized the benefits to be derived from the operation of such a project and formed Prison District No. 1, for the Sixth Judicial District, composed of the parishes of East Carroll, Madison and Tensas.

The board purchased 289.70 acres of land for $7,242.50. The original structures were necessarily rather crude and farming operations were conducted at a minimum expense, but, through the years, by slow process of evolution and careful management, the prison district has become a flourishing institution. In its growth and success the acreage has been increased to 1,163 acres, and today, under the supervision of Riley Mangum, the prison barracks are to be replaced with handsome modern fireproof buildings, the prisoners are being kindly and humanely treated, and a big pay off to the parish comes in the splendid crops harvested.

Religion

With education must be embraced religion, for without religion there would be no spiritual growth and expansion.

There is St. Patrick's church (and school) for academic and educational training of white children and Blessed Martin de Porres School, a parochial school for Negroes. The First Baptist Church, with a beautiful new building and furnishings, First Methodist church, Grace Episcopal Church and day school, Church of Christ, Assembly of God, a Pentecostal church on the outskirts of the town, and the Church of the Nazarene give opportunity for all who desire to have full Christian expansion in the church of their choice.

Recreation

Lake Providence offers an attractive and natural setting for the varied water sports which interest water enthusiasts of every age group. The American Legion post, throught its civic improvemet projects, has built a substantial dock and sand beach, fronting their handsome new brick home, on a lake that is nine miles in length and stocked with large - mouth bass, calico bass, white bass, sunfish, crappies, buffalo, catfish, carp and garfish.

To the commercial fishermen a normal year will bring $100,000 in revenue.

Finance

The financial condition of East Carroll has shown a consistent increase of assets and a decrease of bonded indebtedness. The two banking institutions of the parish, First National and Lake Providence Banks, have combined resources of approximately $6,000,000. North Louisiana Federal Savings & Loan has assets of $1,163,193.94; Lake Providence Light and Water Plant, $1,126,780.02 Northeast National Farm Loan, $452,879.09.

Agriculture

The 1909 records indicate that a small salary was paid to a crop demonstrator. There is no record, however, as to when this demonstrator began work or whether he was in charge of several parishes. Cooperative Extension work began in East Carroll Parish in July of 1914.

Early Extension teaching consisted more or less of object demonstrations. Letters, meetings and tours were not used very much as teaching agencies. The agent usually worked on whatever problems he came across from day to day. Little thought and time were given to planning a year's activities. As time progressed community meetings were held where farm problems were discussed and more definite plans developed. Local leaders were utilized by the agent in assisting and in advising the agent in determining local problems of farmers.

Present County Agent C. A. Rose traces the growth and diversification of agriculture in East Carroll Parish since his tenure, which began on April 1, 1930, a period of a quarter of a century in the following summary:

"The years 1930 and 1954 is a picture of contrasts, agriculturally speaking," states Mr. Rose.

"All during the 30's," the County Agent continued, "the plantation system of agriculture prevailed with only a few small farms located mostly in the 6th and 7th wards of the parish. Cotton was about the only crop of any economic importance grown. Beef and dairy cattle were few, and of very ordinary quality. In the early 30's there were no registered cattle of any kind. Hay was produced on most farms but it was of an inferior quality. Half hearted attempts were made at corn production, but mostly by tenants. In those days landlords always pointed to the inferior corn apologetically, explaining that tenants just would not cultivate the crop as should be done.

"Very few tractors were to be seen and only one operator in the parish was attempting to operate his plantation entirely with mechanical power. This was W. T. Mitchiner of Olivedell Plantation. It was the exception rather than the rule when a crop of corn on a plantation averaged above 20 bushels per acre.

"In these early days the application of fertilizers to crops was not an established practice. Fertilizer companies very often gave the county agents several tons of nitrate each year to put on demonstratios. With fertilizer being given to the farmer free gratis they were often reluctant to put it out and some skeptics thought the county agent was minion of the fertilizer interests. About 30 pounds of nitrogen per acre was all anyone would venture to apply.

"Large plantations and the tenant system of farming prevailed. Operators were mostly concerned with getting desirable tenants and then concerned themselves mostly with keeping the tenants at work in the cotton fields. Insect control was carried out systematically only on a very few plantations."

Cotton Yields Low

"Most planters liked to boast of a yield of a bale of cotton per acre, but the sad fact remained that when crop control restrictions were applied in 1934 the parish could establish a five year average yield of only 285 pounds lint cotton per acre. In those days no cover crops of any kind were planted. Soil preparation was poor and drainage even worse. To tell a planter that his plantation needed drainage was almost an insult and usually provoked his wrath and indignation."

Slow Changes

"In the fall of 1930 the first winter cover crop demonstrations were established on the plantations of A. T. Phillips in Ward 1 and the late Senator Norris Wilhamson in Ward 2. Results secured were most gratifying. The following year C. E. Hester, the then-manager of Alston, Crump and Wynne plantation at Transylvania, and now sheriff of Madison Parish, almost doubled the yield of cotton by turning under a good growth of peas and vetch before planting cotton. After the "plow-up" AAA program in 1933 and subsequent reduction in cotton planting in 1934 about 5,000 acres of vetch and peas were planted in the fall of 1933. By 1936 over 12,000 acres were planted and by 1940 farmers in every section of the parish had generally accepted the growing of winter legumes as a most beneficial practice.

"About 20,000 acres of vetch and peas were planted in the falls of 1940 and 1941.

"During the last ten years changes in the agricultural pattern have been so rapid and progressive that the office of the county agent has been taxed to the limit to keep up with answers to current farm problems. On the some 100,000 acres of cropland in cultivation in the parish during 1954 only about 30,000 acres will be devoted to cotton.

"About 25,000 acres will be in improved permanent pastures, 10,000 acres in rice, 20,000 acres in oats and other grain and 15,000 acres in soybeans. Along with this diversification of crops have come improved and up to date farming practices. The rate of fertilizer applications have doubled. Last year on 44,000 acres devoted to cotton over 50,000 bales were produced. Farmers follow recommendations of the county agent's office very closely. This includes recommendations for such farm practices as fertilization, varieties, insect control, rotations, pasture establishment and management, soil preparation, farm management, and growing such crops as rice, soybeans, winter legumes, pasture and grasses."

Livestock

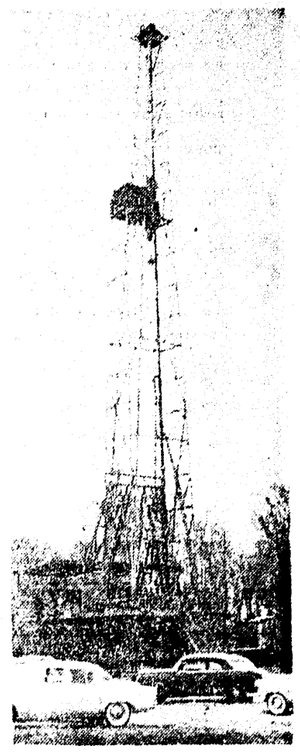
"While great strides have been made in crop production, equal progress has been made in beef cattle and dairy cattle production. Some of the best commercial herds to be found in the south are in East Carroll Parish. Harry Shields, Olivedell Plantation, Millikin Plantation, A. T. Shields, Russell Fleeman, J. E. Holt, Brown Brothers, E. V. Parker, Eddie Ragus and a number of others have developed commercial herds that equal in quality, type and conformation some of the best pure bred herds of the state.

"This development has been brought about by use of extra good bulls, fine pastures and good feeding practices. Constant selection and culling are carried out on all these operations. Angus and herefords predominate. Some 22 dairymen operate modern and up-to-date dairy farms. Class A milk is produced and marketed in Eudora, Ark., Monroe, Bastrop and Lake Providence.

"Without a fine citizenship progress could not have been made. Through the cooperation and assistance of FHA - Joe LeBeau, parish director - over 300 farmers have secured land and home ownership. Transylvania is a shining example of what a community can develop into when good people come together. Other communities that have made outstanding progress have been Elmwood and Monticello. Transylvania was sponsored by the government but Elmwood and Monticello came up the hard way and developed into fine progressive communities with small assistance from the FHA."

"Through the cooperation and assistance of the SCS many drainage and land use problems have been solved."

"In conclusion it might be said that the progress now so well underway is but the forerunner of greater progress and prosperity that lies in the immediate future."



OIL RIG — Black gold is becoming an important item in the economy of East Carroll as shown by the oil rig in the above picture.

LARGE COTTON PRODUCTION — The mechanical cotton picker, above, in operation on the Wayne Baker "Roberta Plantation", has replaced day laborers in East Carroll Parish for the principal crop of the area.

ANTEBELLUM HOME — "Arlington", the home of General Sparrow and the ancestral home of Judge Frank Voelker of the sixth judicial district, is only one of the many beautiful homes to be found throughout East Carroll Parish.

Parkview Baptists Open Revival Series Monday

Parkview Baptist Church, North Eleventh and Forsythe avenue, will tomorrow initiate a revival series of services which will continue through May 16. Interest and enthusiasm among the members and public together with the attraction of a visiting speaker of note already assure large attendance at all services.

There will be an early morning service from 7 a.m. to 7:40 a.m. for those who are employed and who must report for work at 8 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served preceding the morning service. The evening service will open at 7:45 p.m. and will last approximately one hour.

Rev. Tom M. Collins, pastor of the North Jacksonville Baptist Church, Jacksonville, Fla., is to lead the services as evangelist. He has the reputation of being a powerful and inspirational speaker. He is a native of Gordo, Ala., and completed college at Mississippi State University with an A. B. degree. While attending college he was member of the Blue Key, and president of the state student Y. M. C. A.

Reverend Collins headed a settlement house (Opportunity House) in Jacksonville, Fla. before he attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

Prior to holding pastorates in Carrollton, Ala. and Summerville, Ga., Reverend Collins was state Sunday School Secretary of the state of Florida.

Rev. H. L. Sampson, pastor of Parkview, and Ed Crowley, chairman of the evangelism committee, urge the people of the Twin Cities to come to hear the messages that will be delivered by an outstanding man of God. Music will be directed by John E. Davis.

REV. TOM COLLINS

Guild Day Is Observed Today In Grace Church

This Sunday, May 9, is to be observed in the music at Grace Episcopal Church as "Guild Sunday" in honor of the American Guild of Organists. Founded in 1896 and now having 12,000 members and 250 chapters of branches throughout the country, the third Sunday after Easter this year is being observed by its members in churches where they service as organists or choirmasters. At Grace Church, Mr. Charles Wilhite, the organist - choirmaster, will play compositions by contemporary Americans who are active members of the guild. This summer the guild will hold its bi-ennial convention in Minneapolis, Minn.

The guild is non - sectarian and membership is available to both the organists and the choirmasters in all religious bodies. The purposes of the A. G. O. are: to advance the cause of worthy church music; to elevate the status of church musicians; to increase their appreciation of their responsibilities, duties and opportunities; to raise the standard of efficiency of organists and choir directors by examinations in organ playing in the theory of music, in general musical knowledge and in choir training; and to provide members with opportunities for meeting for discussion of professional topics.

My Answer

By BILLY GRAHAM

QUESTION: Was not Jesus a rebel against the society in which He lived; and if He were here today would He not still be a rebel? J. T.

ANSWER: Your question implies a half truth; which, like all partial statements of the case, is dangerous and misinforming. Jesus Christ was a revolutionary personality, with a message described by His contemporaries as "turning the world upside down;" but He was not a rebel against constituted authority. He protested vehemently against the rigid ecclesiasticism of His day, which insisted upon the letter of the law and had no concern for its spirit. He insisted that human needs were superior to ecclesiastical dogma and ritual; and therefore He healed the needy and fed the hungry on the Sabbath Day. He spoke against the greed and avarice of those who were plotting to take the homes of the widows and orphans, and all the while were outwardly very pious in their religious duties. He made the term "Pharisee" to become one of contempt because the ultra-religious persons of His day were actually hypocrites, meticulous in the details of religious ceremony and unconcerned for the sick and needy. He didn't deny the authority of the rulers of His people; and when asked if He also paid His taxes, he replied by sending the payment with Peter. When asked if His nation should pay taxes to the despised Roman government, He replied, "Give unto Caesar that which is Caesar's"; and added significantly, "and unto God that which is God's." Jesus Christ was revolutionary, that is true; but He was not a rebel against constituted authorities.

Methodists Unite Choirs In Annual Choral Event

The second annual choral concert sponsored by the Southside Methodist Church will be presented Friday, May 14 at 8 p.m. in the Ouachita Parish High School auditorium. Participating will be the choirs of five churches as follows:

First Methodist Church, Monroe; Gordon Avenue Methodist Church, Monroe, Memorial Methodist Church, Monroe; First Methodist Church, West Monroe; McGuire Methodist Church, West Monroe and Southside Methodist Church, Monroe.

An excellent program will be presented and the public is cordially invited as money received will be devoted to church purposes of the participating groups.

'John Wesley' Film Shown Last Times Here

Large numbers of people have the past few days attended the "premiere showing" of the great color movie "John Wesley," at the First Methodist Church in Monroe. There was no admission as it was not the intention to realize money from this great showing.

Starting Thursday and running Friday and Saturday as well as the last showings tonight, the time of each presentation was at 7 and 8:30 p.m.

Many came to Monroe from some distance to see this great missionary film and it is expected that tonight at the church there will be larger numbers than through the week, at the two night showings.

John Wesley's rescue from a burning house at the age of five, at the film's initiation, forecasts the dramatic and eventful life that is unfolded.

The English clergyman thought his venture in America as a missionary to the Indians had failed, but it opened wide the door to the discovery of the religious certainty he sought.

JOHN WESLEY

This great film will never be forgotten and all who have not attended the showing, are urged to do so tonight for the last time.

Garden Clubs To Tour Gardens

The Monroe Garden Club and two sponsored clubs, Patio and Town and Country, will tour the following bayou gardens tomorrow: Nathan Gaston, J. C. Earnest, Harold Nouk and Charles Whittelsy. The tour is from 3 to 5, beginning at the Gaston's and ending with a tea with Alice Whittelsy.

One day we had the hose and air conditioning on — the next we were draining off the water with coats on. Our plants have to adjust to these quick changes just as we do.

With Our Plants

The cool days will keep our plants from scalding after the heavy rains, but this kind of weather is hard on the farmer, and that affects all of us.

When the ground dries some, you can prune your climbing roses. Cut out the oldest looking limbs where they come out from the ground or where they join another branch. Instead of pulling out this pruned part, which would tear the other part of the rose from its support —chop the pruned branches in small pieces. They'll fall to the ground and can be carried away.

Floribundas and other roses that bloom constantly are heavy feeders. Each plant can stand a scant handful of 5-10-5 monthly. It seems we'll have to dust with sulphur every week or ten days if we're to control that leaf spot.

If you planted a tree in the winter, I'll give you a recipe for keeping it pepped up during the summer months. Dissolve one tablespoon of ammonium nitrate in one gallon of water. Pour this around the tree every ten days, all the summer. Mark on the calendar the ten-day periods and don't use any larger amounts or apply any more often. All the nurseries or seed stores don't carry this nitrate. Its pretty high powered. You may have to form a pool in the neighborhood and buy a hundred pound sack. Several of us at the Agricultural Building have tried this and found it highly successful.

There's a theory going around among gardeners that to fertilize a dogwood will surely kill it. That idea should be completely dispelled after reading Mr. Hunt's column three weeks ago. He said, as you know, to use a mixture of half cotton seed meal and half bone meal. I hope you clip Mr. Hunt's article each week. If so go back and read his instructions for fertilizing the dogwood.

It is not too late to plant some of the new cannas. They'll bloom a little later, but they'll blossom until frost. I just planted a snow white and what is supposed to be a true pink. I'll tell you about them when they bloom. You can still plant hibiscus, also, caladium bulbs. These bulbs make such a striking effect during the summer months. They are more effective if planted with like colors grouped together. They'll grow in partial shade or full sun. Dig some rich humus in the soil before planting and you'll be rewarded with more beautiful foliage.

Plumbago is a satisfactory summer plant. It comes in pale bluish lavender or white. When amaryllis have finished blooming, work several tablespoons of 5-10-5 around each plant.

For those who want some violet plants, Mrs. W. E. Johnston, 414 Riverbend Drive, West Monroe, has them for you. Mrs. Johnston works part time and leads a busy life, but still has time for her yard and garden. Also — she has periwinkle plants (bush type) she'll give away. Call her at 3-1098 before going for the plants.

Mrs. Earl Calton's neighbor says she believes Mrs. Calton can boast of the first sweet peas in north Louisiana. A large bunch was gathered on February 28. This is another working homemaker who has time for a lovely garden at her home 3202 Lee Ave. Monroe.

Men's Hats

By reading hither and yon, I find that men's hats will show higher crowns and narrower brims. As for color, the range is unlimited — blue, gray, charcoal, brown, or tan.

Your Slip Cover Is Showing

If you're dreading the spring slip cover laundering — really it is not such a difficult job. After you're through with the washing, hang them on the line until they'yre just damp. Then put the cover back on the chair, fasten it, pin in the pleats and turn on all the fans in the house. You'll not be bothered with shrinkage. Don't forget to put the cover on the pillows, too, while they're damp.

Plentiful Foods

Grapefruit is in peak supply now. It takes only one grapefruit or three fourths of a cup of juice to supply the vitamin C needed for the day. That's the vitamin that can't be stored but must be taken each day. It's the vitamin that gives you pep and sparkle.

Dates

Tune in Tuesday at 1:30, KNOE-TV and see Stella Jones from L. S. U. extension department cut up a fryer. You've never seen anybody who could get as much chicken from one fryer as Stella can.

See you next Sunday.

When you are planning a company dinner, try to have one course or one dish a little out of the ordinary.

Baking biscuits? Place them on a cookie sheet without sides, and they'll brown better than they would in a deeper pan.

SOUTHERN GARDENER—

By William Lanier Hunt

Flowers Should Have Some Shade

All through the Fall and Winter, we Southern gardeners work and dig and dream about our spring flower garden. Then, when early spring comes around, our flowers are lovely — everything we had hoped they would be, but when mid-spring gets here with its hot weather and bright sunshine something happens. Somehow, the blossoms do not look as beautiful as they did back in March. What happens?

Flower gardens in the full sun in the Southern States from mid-April till October receive such a harsh light that it is almost impossible to look at the flowers. The sun seems positively to bounce off the blossoms. In order to stand the sun, the pupils of our eyes almost close, and the heat of mid-spring takes the starch out of us. Gone is the illusion!

If you insist upon following books published for northern gardeners which tell you to plant this and that in "full sun," this will be your fate. In the South, we simply must plant our flowers where they will receive some shade for at least a part of the day. Of course, many plants will do perfectly in full sun, but you will not do well in it when you go out to see them. The red flowers will become so dazzling that you can scarcely look at them —the white ones all the more so, and the blue flowers seem to make very little show except the irises, which are translucent.

Iris plants like the full sun, but the flowers are not as beautiful with all the light the sun can give as they are with lights and shadows falling on them. In fact, few flowers are.

The ideal place for flowers is out from fairly tall trees far enough to escape the tree roots but close enough to receive the lights and shadows made by the sun coming through the leaves. The trees should be on the east, south and west sides. If light comes in from the north, that is ideal. Of course, we often cannot create ideal conditions for a garden, and if there is shade on one or two sides, that will have to do. If there is any choice, for those who are making a new garden, by all means choose the site where the western sun—afternoon—will be eliminated or softened. Most of us have more time to enjoy our gardens in the afternoon and evening than at any other time of day, and we certainly should take this into consideration. Few moderns will ever be able to understand all those poems written in past centuries about gardens with dew on them! Sunsets in our part of the world are very beautiful almost every day in the year. For this reason, you will not wish to plant a thick screen of any kind on the west side of your property unless, of course, you must hide some ugly object. Over the tops of shrubbery and through the trunks of tall trees, the sunset can be a real feature from a sitting terrace and garden.

Now is the time to get out your equipment for night lighting the garden. If you do not have any, you will find that there are excellent small spot lights made for gardens. The connections and electric lines are waterproof and so made that you can wind the cord through shrubs or put it up into trees with little trouble and no danger to the trees or yourself. They even make a light that can be put under water in lily pools! A light focused away from your eyes where you sit on the terrace at night will attract the bugs away from you. If you will focus it on the water sprinkler where it works in the garden, you can have a double show. Look up the names of all the kinds of daylilies which stay open or open for the first time during the late evening and night, and plant some of these varieties near your terrace. Plant also some of the flowers which give off a pleasant fragrance at night. The leader of them all is flowering tobacco, listed in seeds catalogues as Nicitiana. There are several colors to be had, but, of course, the flowers which will be seen at night will be the white ones. In case there is not any place for flowers close by the spot where you are accustomed to sit at night, then pot some white nicotianas and set them on a table or on the ground.

Garden Center Notes

By Mary M. Jardine

Flower Date Is June 10

The date set for Flower Show School No I is June 10, 11 and 12 at Northeast College. Course No. I covers Horticulture, Elements of Flower Arranging and Flower Show Parctice. The Flower Show Handbooks (required reading for those taking the course) are available at the Garden Center. These classes are open to the public.

Congratulations to the Garden Wonders of Bastrop. This club had high score for the month and was presented with a cash award.

The Delhi Garden Club provided the center with a delightful display of arrangements and horticulture. Mrs. C. C. Lucky and Mrs. John Sherrouse, Jr. of Monroe served as judges.

First place in the arrangement class was awarded to Mrs. J. R. Waites for a line-mass arrangement of green and white in a tall white pillow vase. Mrs. Waites used green day-lily buds and white gladiolus for height continuing the line with small white callas and a focal point of Easter lilies and buds. Calla foliage was used as a background.

Second place to Mrs. R. M. Dozier. In a low green container with rosy tones, Mrs. Dozier effectively combined tall spikes of blackberry stems and leaf buds, calla foliage, pink snapdragons and deep pink hydrangea as a focal point.

Third place, Mrs. S. A. Mayes for a lovely design of magnolia buds and blooms with self foliage in a low green bowl.

In the norticulture sections ribbons were awarded to Mrs. T. J. Durham for passion flower, Mrs. S. T. Bradley for Queen of Gonzales day lily and Mrs. M. E. McElwee, Jr. for Mrs. Hebert Dewey day lily. Flower shows are getting better all the time. All gardeners strive for better horticulture and the carefully planned schedules are a challenge to judges and exhibitors alike.

Some of the delightful shows seen recently are: The Tensas Garden Club, St. Joseph who chose as their Theme "Through The Ages" arrangements dating from early Egypt to the present time. The Newellton Garden Club chose as their theme "The Parade of the Months" arrangements featuring each month in the year. On display at the center also are some of the prize-winners from the very lovely show staged by the Bayou DeSiard Garden Club. The Tri-Color Award arrangement of foliage only," arranged by Mrs. G. W. Levert and Mrs. Sam Donald. A rhythm arrangement using new growth of pine, pittosporum, and violet leaves in a palm spathe. "Mother's Day" a mass arrangement of white Easter lilies in a flat crystal container—Mrs. R. D. Farr, Jr. A cool all green arrangement of day lily buds, green hydrangea and the green rose in a low green container by Mrs. John Tolar, Mrs. Robert F. Farr arranged canna foliage, green hydrangea and foliage in a symetrical triangle.

Recent visitors to the center were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schneider of Weston, Conn., formerly residents of Monroe.

Attention all Garden Club presidents. Please send the names of your new president to the garden center, and your new year books when they are ready. We constantly have information we would like to pass along to you.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Two Baths Each Day Are Hot Weather Must

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

With warm weather creeping up on us it is a good idea to give some thought to good summer grooming. If we are the least bit careless, it is possible to be offensive to others without realizing it ourselves.

In the first place, the one bath a day rule may be satisfactory in cool weather but during the hot season, two are essential. When you take these should depend on your individual life and schedule. If you do not have time for two tub soakings, at least jump under the shower for your second wetting. Remember, too, that bubble baths are quite cooling and restful when the temperature soars.

A Difference

Many women do not realize that there is a difference between deodorants and non-perspirants. The former simply neutralize perspiration odors while the non-perspirants stop or slow up the flow of perspiration. Well-groomed women use a deodorant every day during every season. In warm weather they switch to non-perspirants, for at least three days a week.

Three or four days a week is enough for most women, although few of them would find their skin irritated even when these are applied every day. It is not a good idea to use your non-perspirant just after shaving under the arms. This sometimes causes irritation.

Try Another

If you find that some product you are applying causes any soreness or lumpiness under your arms, you should discontinue its use. Often one non-perspirant will cause this while another may not. You may be allergic to some ingredient in the one you are using if you have this experience.

Shields are a boon both in summer and in winter when you are in overheated houses. Many women make the mistake of leaving the same shields in for too long a time. The result of this is most unpleasant. Today you can buy inexpensive, temperary shields which you simply use for one day and then throw into the waste basket.

Woodlawn School Group Will Sing At OEA Meeting

Mrs Gladys Seymour, music director Woodlawn Elementary School, will present her students in several vocal numbers at the OEA meeting Monday evening. "Other numbers on the program," states Mrs. Crystal Anthony, program chairman, "include a group discussion led by W. W. Ward on the recent developments in the seven point legislative program of the united schools committee, with emphasis on the salary schedule that has been proposed.

Mrs. John P. Zoll will discuss the services of the NEA with emphasis on the magazine.

Miss Mary Annie Wall, president, urges all members to attend this meeting. The officers for 1954-55 will be elected and two amendments to the by-laws will be up for a vote.

The meeting is set for the Ouachita Parish High School auditorium, Monday at 7:30 p.m.

"SHIRT" JACKET PLUS DRESS . . . OUR PATTERN, A REIFER ORIGINAL

PATTERN A861
by Esther Reifer

PROMINENT DESIGNER—In Esther Reifer's talented hands summer's favorite fashion—the jacket dress—takes on a look of special chic. Unlike so many costumes you've seen, this American designer's dress and jacket look smart together—yet the dress by itself is equally important fashion-wise. Wear the ensemble to town in the morning—wear the dress alone for dinner and dancing in the evening. Mrs. Reifer made her Original in contrasting fabrics—the dress in dramatic black pique, the "skirt-tail" jacket in red and white corded cotton. With our Prominent Designer Pattern, you can duplicate this Original exactly—or design your own fabric and color combination. This pattern is exclusive—available only through this newspaper.

Pattern A861 is available in Misses' Sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 dress requires 3⅛ yards 35-inch fabric; jacket requires 2¼ yards.

Send FIFTY CENTS (in coins) for Pattern A861 to Morning World Pattern Department, P. O. Box 59, Old Chelsea Station, New York 11, N. Y. Please print plainly YOUR NAME, ADDRESS with ZONE, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Family Week Is Being Observed In Local Church

"Christian Family Week" is being observed by the First Christian Church. Last Sunday the couples who were united in marriage by the pastor were given special recognition. Next Sunday, the traditional "Mother's Day," will close the observance.

The choir will sing an anthem appropriate to the occasion. The sermon will be entitled, "The Church in Your House." Flowers will be presented to the church's "Mother of the Year." A flower, colored or white will be given to each worshiper at the door.

Small children will be presented for dedication. The public is invited. Two nurseries for preschool children will be provided. The church is air-conditioned for your comfort. Honor your mother by going to church.

Ever serve orange or grapefruit sections with stewed raisins? This combination tastes good as a breakfast fruit or as dessert at lunch or dinner.

Your Problems

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Mrs. Landers: I live in a two - room apartment with an old school chum of mine. He works now, but I still go to school. I do not mind a date or a party on weekend nights, but he brings his girl friend home almost every night and I have to study and sometimes sleep in the kitchen while he entertains her in the other room. She stays half the night. I have a hard time studying, get little sleep but don't know what to do as this apartment is convenient and inexpensive and another would be hard to find. Any suggestions — Gerry

Cat got your tongue? If you are paying your share of the expenses you can insist on access to your own bed and a quiet place to study. Tell the boy chum that if he doesn't keep the girl out of your hair, you'll let her pay your share since she seems to be utilizing your quarters. Or, let them take the kitchen. The advantage of your arrangements works two ways. The other boy doesn't want you to move out any more than you want to move. So, let him consider your welfare or let him get out. (Maybe it is time he did and married the girl, eh?)

Dear Ann Landers: I am 22 and have been married for three years to a wonderful guy whom I love and who loves me. I have had to work to help my husband support his son from his first marriage. He pays $70 a month. He earns only $75 a week and I earn $50. Our furnished apartment and living expenses eat up all we can make after "deductions." Last month my husband's former wife remarried and her husband would like to adopt the boy, thereby relieving my husband of all financial obligation. He refuses, saying he wants the boy to know always who loves and supports him and wants his son to keep his name.

I feel the boy would be better off with an unbroken home. Also, we then would be able to have a family of our own (something we cannot now afford). Have I any right to insist or to encourage my husband to allow the boy to be adopted — Mrs. S.

No, you have no right to interfere, encourage, suggest, hint or insist that your husband give up all rights to his flesh and blood. That must be his own choice so that he can never criticize or resent your interference. In years to come that could sound the death knell to your marriage. You knew when you married the man that he had this obligation and regardless of what hardship it means to you, it is now yours. However, your husband should have the monthly payment reduced.

And you most certainly are missing the boat when you delay having your own family because of finances. In your situation you need a "family" to take the place of the one your husband lost.

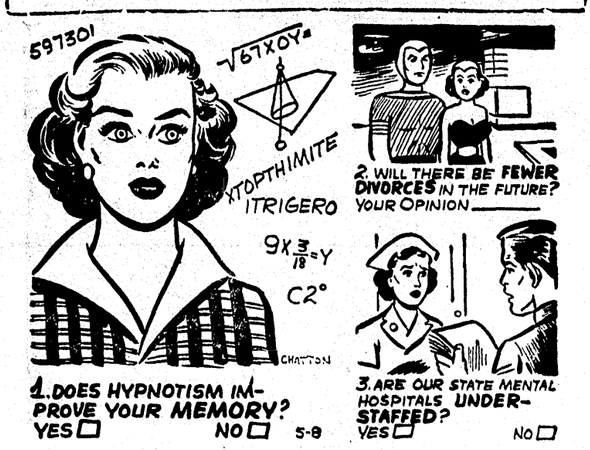
LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.



Answer to Question No. 1

1. No, not permanently, but many hypnotized persons remember incidents in childhood that they could not remember in their ordinary waking state. They can even be made to recall the day of the week, many years back, on which something special occurred. Hypnotism has been used successfully to cure some cases of amnesia. Dangerous for amateurs to attempt.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Yes, because something new is happening. Many wholesome books on sex and marriage are now available. Marriage counselors and marriage courses in high schools and colleges are increasing in number and importance. More than ever, parents are becoming aware of their duty to train children for marriage. Tests that predict marriage happiness have been developed for wide-spread use.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. Yes. The American Psychiatric Association states that the average state mental hospital is understaffed 56 per cent in physicians, 70 per cent in registered nurses, 75 per cent in psychiatric social workers and 30 per cent in clinical phychologists. Three out of four report that they are 20 to 50 per cent overcrowded.

War Pictures Help Make Future Stars

By RAOUL WALSH
(Guest Columnist)

HOLLYWOOD, May 8 — Motion pictures with war backgrounds have a way of making future stars out of unknown players. Warner Bros.' "Battle Cry," which chronicles the training, the romances and the Pacific battles of a group of young Marines during World War II, appears to be a cinch to maintain that tradition.

The picture is loaded with potential stars and with the kind of well-written dramatic roles which give each man the opportunity of catching the public fancy.

I have been complimented on being a judge of acting talent and of developing it successfully. I have my own future book on the stardom chances of the young actors in "Battle Cry." Credited with discovering such stars as John Wayne and Rock Hudson, my opinion seems to carry weight in film circles.

I spent many months in casting "Battle Cry" because I wanted each man to be perfectly suited for the role he was portraying. He had to be young and similar in type to the men in the Marine Corps during World War II. An actor, who is right for his role, naturally has a much better chance of reaching stardom than one who may have lots of ability, but is miscast.

In the cast only Van Heflin, Aldo Ray and James Whitmore had already achieved star stature. The other actors are on trial, but in the race track vernacular they're a classy field.

My future book in the acting derby runs as follows: Tab Hunter: Already a favorite with the younger set, but never had the chance to prove himself as an actor until "Battle Cry." He's a cinch to pay off as a top star in 1955.

William Campbell: Been acquiring valuable experience in supporting roles for past few years. Should enter winner's circle and achieve stardom within the year.

John Lupton: Sensitive young actor, who first attracted attention on stage with Katharine Hepburn. Has been brought along slowly. Should be ready for stardom in 1955.

Perry Lopez: A Latin type with sparkling, virile personality from "South Pacific." Though this is his first trip to the film acting post, he might make grade on ittial attempt.

J. E. McQueen: A natural-born comedian. Had never set foot inside studio before this picture. Has the courage and ability to go the route to stardom.

The field: It's a big and talented field in "Battle Cry." Any one of a group of actors — Fess Parker, Gregg Walcott, Tommy Cook, Glenn Denning or Victor Millan—might make the jump to stardom in the near future.

Having thus far written seriously, let me digress for a semi-humorous slant. You've seen James Whitmore in many pictures with an Army flavor. James is—so I'm informed (with a sly wink) asking for his honorable discharge from film film sergeant ranks, after completing his starring role in this one. The actor feels it is time for him to return to civilian life in his film roles.

Whitmore first earned his "sergeant stripes" in his New York stage debut in "Command Decision." He also ran off with the honors as the top supporting actor of the year. Whitmore became known as the sergeant par excellence when he continued to give outstanding performances as a noncom in such pictures as "Because You're Mine" and "The Command."

Army and Marine men regard Whitmore as more like the popular conception of a sergeant than the real article. When we were casting for Mac, the tough yet understanding marine sergeant, Whitmore was quite naturally the number one choice.

Whitmore says: "The sergeant stripes have been mighty good to me. If I hadn't been lucky enough to play the wise-cracking sergeant in 'Command Decision,' I'd probably still be struggling along in bit roles."

As a Marine Lieutenant Whitmore is making an extra effort to give his best sergeant portrayal. He feels a debt of gratitude to the Marines and wants his performance to be a credit to the Corps.

I COULDN'T BELIEVE IT--YOU'RE SUCH A SWEET-LOOKING GIRL TO BE THUMBING RIDES.
WELL, YOU SEE, I WENT TO MEXICO TO BECOME A BULLFIGHTER. THEN I GOT MIXED UP WITH DIAMOND SMUGGLERS-----

DIAMOND SMUGGLERS?
YES, MA'AM. I WAS ARRESTED TOO. BUT WHEN THE AUTHORITIES CAPTURED THE REAL SMUGGLERS, THEY LET ME GO.
HENRY, STOP THE CAR! I WANT AN ICE CREAM CONE.

DID YOU HEAR WHAT SHE SAID? THAT GIRL, PRACTICALLY ADMITTED BEING A DIAMOND SMUGGLER! HENRY, YOU'VE GOT TO GET RID OF HER!
BUT HOW?

CHEEP!
SURE, WHEN A BIRD'S ON A TELEPHONE WIRE HE'LL SAY ANYTHING ANYBODY IS SAYING OVER THE TELEPHONE
HEAR DOT BOID? HE SAYS SOME-T'ING ISS CHEAP

HELLO, MISS TWIDDLE. IS POOR MRS. KAY STILL SO FAT?
SHE'S GETTING NO THINNER FAST, YOUR MAJESTY
OH, MAMA, SOMEBODY'S TALKIN' ABOUT YOU OUDER PHONE

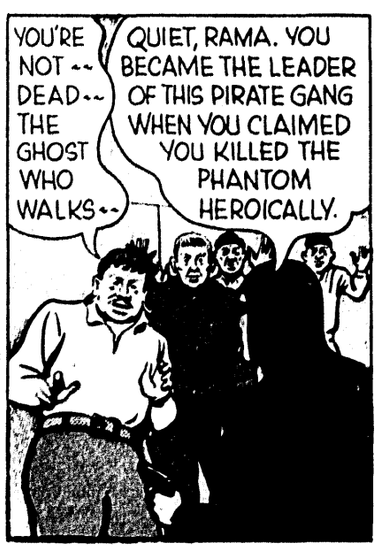
I'VE A MIND TO MAKE A LAW AGAINST WOMEN GETTING AS FAT AS SHE IS
I WISH YOU WOULD, YOUR MAJESTY. SUCH OBESITY SHOULD BE A CRIME
IMACHINE DEM SAYING SUCH TINGS OFER DER VIRE BEHIND MY BACK
PSST. MAMA



YOU'RE NOT -- DEAD -- THE GHOST WHO WALKS --
QUIET, RAMA. YOU BECAME THE LEADER OF THIS PIRATE GANG WHEN YOU CLAIMED YOU KILLED THE PHANTOM HEROICALLY.

HOW WAS THE PHANTOM ABLE TO DESTROY YOUR PIRATE FLEET TEN YEARS AGO? BECAUSE ONE OF YOUR OWN MEN HELPED HIM! A CABIN BOY NAMED RAMA!
NO!

Tales from the Great Book

JOSHUA Master of Jericho

by John Lehti

JOSHUA HAS RETURNED TO THE ISRAELITE CAMP AFTER "SCOUTING OUT" JERICHO.... HE CALLS TOGETHER THE PRIESTS AND TELLS THEM HOW THE MIGHTY, WALLED CITY OF JERICHO CAN BE CONQUERED WITHOUT ANY ISRAELITE BLOODSHED....BUT THE DOUBTING PRIESTS DO NOT SHARE JOSHUA'S CONFIDENCE.....

"YOU SAY WE HAVE ONLY TO MARCH AROUND THE CITY ONCE EACH DAY...FOR SIX DAYS...AND THE SEVENTH DAY CIRCLE IT SEVEN TIMES?"

"AND DO NOTHING BUT BLAST ON THE RAM'S HORNS AND SHOUT LOUDLY?"

"WE ARE NOT TO ATTACK WITH WEAPONS?"

NAY!

"HAS JOSHUA SUDDENLY GONE MAD?"

"HE WILL MAKE THE ARK OF THE LORD'S COVENANT--WRITTEN BY GOD HIMSELF--AN EASY PREY FOR OUR ENEMIES....IF HE INSISTS THAT IT LEAD A MARCH WHERE OUR SOLDIERS ARE NOT GOING TO FIGHT!"

MEANWHILE, WORD OF JOSHUA'S BATTLE STRATEGY HAS PASSED THROUGH THE CAMP--TO THE CAPTAINS OF THE ARMY....

"WHAT IS THIS CHILD'S GAME JOSHUA WOULD HAVE US PLAY?"

"COME, LET US ASK THE PRIESTS IF ALL WE HAVE HEARD IS TRUE!"

...AND SOON THE OUTER COURT OF THE TABERNACLE IS FILLED WITH MANY ANGRY VOICES--WHILE THE PRIESTS TRY TO MAINTAIN A CALMER ATTITUDE.....

"WE ARE NOT CHILDREN, BUT MEN ARMED BY GOD TO FIGHT HIS HOLY BATTLE--AND FIGHT WE WILL!"

"DO NOT BE HASTY...LET US GIVE MORE THOUGHT TO THIS!"

BUT THE CAPTAINS GROW WEARY OF THE ARGUMENTS....AND THEY MARCH UPON JOSHUA'S TENT!

THEY HAVE PICKED THEIR MOST VALIANT CAPTAIN AS SPOKESMAN...AND NOW HE PREPARES TO SPEAK...AND ACT...ACCORDING TO THE CUSTOM OF THE DAY...

....BY SAVAGELY...FEROCIOUSLY...HURLING A JAVELIN INTO THE GROUND AT JOSHUA'S FEET....AND THUNDERING IN A DEEP VOICE:

"WE CHALLENGE YOUR RIGHT TO THE LEADERSHIP OF ISRAEL!"

JOHN LEHTI

NEXT WEEK--JOSHUA...FACE TO FACE WITH REBELLION! 5-9

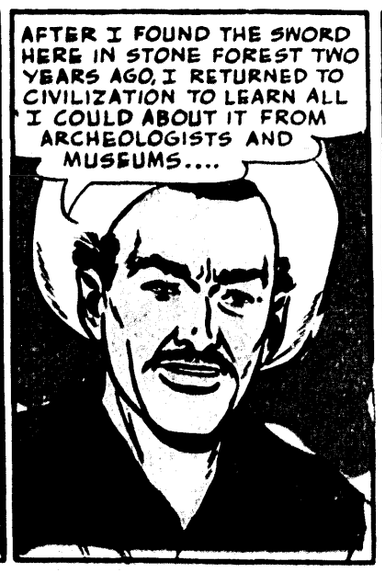
GEE-THE HANDLE OF THE SWORD IS LOADED WITH DIAMONDS, EMERALDS AND RUBIES!
WHAT D'YA MEAN, IT'S PART OF THE HIDDEN FORTUNE OF THE NOLTI, MR. KRUGER?



AFTER I FOUND THE SWORD HERE IN STONE FOREST TWO YEARS AGO, I RETURNED TO CIVILIZATION TO LEARN ALL I COULD ABOUT IT FROM ARCHEOLOGISTS AND MUSEUMS....

MANY YEARS AGO PEOPLE CALLED THE NOLTI INHABITED THIS VALLEY- MANY STORIES ARE TOLD OF THEIR GREAT WEALTH, AND OF A HUGE DRAGON THAT GUARDS A FABULOUS FORTUNE...
AND YOU SAY YOU'VE SEEN THE DRAGON?

YES, LADS-TWICE DURING A FULL MOON- THAT IS WHY I PAINTED THE EYES AND TEETH ON MY TRUCK... HOPING IT WOULD FRIGHTEN THE DRAGON AWAY IF I MET IT AGAIN!
SPUD, DO YOU SUPPOSE BROKHART WAS-
WAS KILLED BY THE DRAGON, TIM? WELL-MAYBE-

WE'RE LOOKING FOR MR. BROKHART, A WRITER WHO HAS MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED IN STONE FOREST....
PERHAPS IF WE FIND THE DRAGON'S HIDEOUT, WE MIGHT FIND A CLUE TO BROKHART- WHERE DID YOU SEE THE DRAGON, MR. KRUGER?

I WARNED YOU TIME AND AGAIN ABOUT SMOKIN' CIGARS, KAYO. SO I'M PUTTIN' YOU IN TH' CELLAR SO I'LL KNOW YOU WON'T BE DISOBEYIN' ME WHILE I'M OUT.

ARE YA GONNA LOCK TH' DOOR, MAMIE?

HECK! I MIGHTA KNOWED SHE WOULD.

BAM!

SAY, YOU BIG BOOB UP THERE!

WAM!

GOOD GRIEF! IT LOOKS LIKE THEY'D BEEN LEAVIN' A LOAD OF COAL WHILE I WAS OUT.

OH, KAYO!

KAYO! SPEAK TO ME, KAYO! WHY DID I EVER LEAVE HIM LOCKED IN HERE?

OH, IF I CAN ONLY REACH TH' POOR BOY BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE.

SAY, YOU'RE GONNA HAVE QUITE A JOB SHOVELIN' THIS LOAD OF COAL BACK IN THERE, AIN'TCHA, MAMIE?

GOOD HEAVENS, KAYO! I THOUGHT YOU WAS BURIED ALIVE.

IF TH' COAL MAN HADN'T HAULED ME OUT BEFORE HE DUMPED HIS LOAD IN TH' CELLAR, WOULDJA GET YERSELF ANOTHER LITTLE NEPHEW, MAMIE?

I WOULD NOT!

I GUESS IT'D BE PRETTY HARD TO FIND ANOTHER KID LIKE ME, AT THAT.

THAT'S JUST IT. I'M AFRAID THERE IS ANOTHER KID LIKE YOU IN TH' WORLD SOMEWHERE AND IT'D BE JUST MY LUCK TO FIND HIM.

YOUR WIFE WILL BE RELEASED ONLY AFTER YOU FLY US SAFELY BACK HOME!

YOU HAVE NO CHOICE BUT TO BELIEVE US AND DO OUR BIDDING!

YOU GUARD THIS GOLD WHILE CUCARACHA AND I RETURN TO THE TEMPLE RUINS FOR MORE!

LATER, IN THE TEMPLE, CUCARACHA PICKS UP ANOTHER IDOL—

SMACK!

BANG

BANG

WELL, THAT'S THAT! I'LL TELL JACK AND ANYONE THAT ASKS ABOUT CUCARACHA THAT THE HEAD-HUNTERS GOT HIM!

VIBORA LUGS THE GOLD DOWN THE ANIMAL TRAIL TO THE LAKE WHERE JACK WAITS.

HE SMILES AS HE THINKS HE WILL SOON BE FLYING HOME ... THE SOLE OWNER OF THE FORTUNE!

HE IS NOT AWARE THAT SHARP JUNGLE EARS HEARD THE SHOTS WHEN HE MURDERED CUCARACHA.

Aren't you glad you use DIAL Soap?

Dial with AT-7 (Hexachlorophene) removes the cause of perspiration odor—keeps you nice to be around all day!

When you're with others—dating and dancing or hard at work—you never worry about perspiration odor when you use Dial. It's the wonderful soap that contains AT-7 (Hexachlorophene). Dial's the only leading soap that has it, and there's nothing else as good at removing skin bacteria that cause odor.

Dial keeps these trouble-makers away, too. For Dial's invisible AT-7 clings to your skin for days; its protection increases, the more you use this rich-lathering soap. Depend on it—Dial stops odor before it starts, and keeps it stopped all over, as no other leading soap, no deodorant can. Dial is delightfully mild. And Dial smells good. Best of all, when you use Dial Soap in the morning, you know you'll still be fresh at night. It's a wonderful feeling. Better get some more Dial today.

Photomicro Proof

P.S.

Shampoo a Diamond Sparkle into your hair with new Dial Shampoo.

DIAL Soap stops odor before it starts!
